Nixon, Khrushchev Exchange Bitter Barbs In Public Debate

Russ Get Anti-War Warning

MOSCOW (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon told an audience of Russians and American here tonight "no nation in the world is strong enough to issue an ultimatum to another without running the risk of self-destruction."

In a speech at ceremonies opening the U.S. exhibition here, Nixon said the United States wants "not peace by ultimatum but peace by negotiation."

EXPLAINS EXHIBIT

Nixon's speech was a point-by-point catalogue of how Americans live and an explanation to the Russians of the things they would see in the fair.

He dealt with questions raised in the Soviet press about unemployment, strikes and racial discrimination in the United States and argued that the United States, as the world's largest capitalist country, has come closest to the Marxist idea of prosperity for all in a classless society.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

Nixon told his audience the United States has true popular government, that Soviet radio broadcasts can be heard daily without American jamming and that the United States is not attempting to force its form of government on anyone else.

"We cannot and should not gloss over the fact that we have some great differences," he said. "We must consistently strive to see those differences discussed and settled at the conference table and not on the battlefield.

"Our leaders must exercise the greatest restraint, patience and understanding in their actions and their statements. They must do nothing that might provoke a war that no one wants."

One or another country may have better weapons at a particular time, Nixon continued, but that is no advantage because "the nation which starts war today will destroy itself."

Hot Words Fly During Tour Of U.S. Exhibit

MOSCOW (AP) — U. S. Vice President Richard M. Nixon told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev face to face today, in a rough and tumble public debate, it would "be a great blow to peace" if the Geneva conference were allowed to fail.

Nixon traded barbed comments with the Soviet leader while escorting him through the American exhibition in Moscow's Sokolniki Park.

At one point, Khrushchev accused Nixon indignantly of threatening him. Nixon denied this, but said:

"I don't believe the cause of peace is helped by your reiterating the point you just made—that you have more strength than we have, because that is a threat, too."

While 200 newsmen, photographers and cameramen eavesdropped the two men engaged in a running foreign policy debate while they looked over the exhibits of dolls, swimsuits and automobiles.

Part of the unscheduled fireworks was recorded while they toured a color television studio. Cameras ground away as they argued.

Nixon promised Khrushchev this portion of the debate would be shown on an American television network uncensored, with simultaneous English translation of the Soviet leader's remarks.

Khrushchev, in answer to a request by Nixon, agreed to allow video tape to be shown on Soviet television. The two men shook hands on the deal.

As they stood on the threshold of a model kitchen in an American home, Nixon and Khrushchev started talking about the relative merits of washing machines and wound up in a sometimes bitter exchange.

"Let us not beat around the bush," Khrushchev said. "The main thing is that we want to put an end to bases on foreign lands. This is the main thing.

"I repeat until that happens we will speak different political languages. The one that is for putting an end to bases on foreign lands is for peace. The one who is against this is for war."

After the spirited exchange at the exhibition grounds, Nixon was Khrushchev's guest at a luncheon in the Kremlin.

Nixon and Khrushchev had met in the Kremlin earlier this morning for the first time since Nixon's arrival yesterday.

Nixon stood toe-to-toe with Khrushchev batting back his arguments one by one. At the end Nixon apologized for being "a poor host at the exposition and allowing a ceremonial visit to turn into hot foreign policy discussions.

"My main point is that in today's world," Nixon said, "it is immaterial which of these two great countries at a particular moment has an advantage. Any advantage in the next war is illusory."

Khrushchev apologized for speaking so frankly to Nixon. But Nixon, recalling some of his political campaigns, told their interpreter:

"Tell him I have been insulted by experts."

Klementi Voroshilov and Deputy Premiers Anastas Mikoyan and Frol Kozlov stood at Khrushchev's elbow during the visit to the exhibition.

When the debate got really rough, Nixon said bluntly: "I trust the premier has understood all the implications. What I mean is that the moment we place either one of these powerful nations through the ultimatum in a position where they have no choice but accept dictation or fight, then you are playing with the most destructive power in the world.

"And this is very import-

Defense Chief Enjoying Rest On Russian River

Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy today was having "a bit of fun" on the Russian River, as his assistant, James H. Douglas, flew to Los Angeles to discuss planes that will fly three times the speed of sound.

The secretary and Douglas arrived yesterday at about 4 p.m. at Hamilton Air Force Base aboard one of the Air Force's fastest jet airliners, the VC137, the military version of the Boeing 707, after a two-hour 15-minute flight from Denver.

McElroy said he was here "mostly to have a bit of fun for a few days, but that Douglas "has a few things in mind he intends to talk over with North American Aviation in Los Angeles."

He said Douglas would discuss with North American the F108 Rapier, a two-man all-weather interceptor that will be a "Mach 3" plane, capable of flying up to three times the speed of sound.

North American disclosed this week that it is working on the highly secret F108 and the B70 Valkyrie bomber. The interceptor is expected to be ready for use in the early 1960s, and the bomber—of nearly equal speed—about 18 months later.

The two officials have been visiting Air Force bases in the Middle West, and seeing military chiefs "to let the unit commanders and their staff tell us their problems," the secretary said.

This is the first time the secretary of defense has been accompanied by all of the chiefs of staff on such conferences. "This new plane (the NC137) has made it possible to get around about twice as fast as was possible before," he explained.

Asked if he thought the national defense system was adequate, McElroy answered: "Yes. I have complete confidence in that—except for incoming missiles.

NO. 1 DEFENSE

"But," he added hastily, "the other fellow has no real capability in that line at the present time. And our number one defense is still the ability to retaliate."

McElroy was greeted by Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Parker, commander of Western Air Defense Force; Col. George F. Ceuleers, Hamilton Base commander, and Col. Byron O'Niel, director of operations for WADF.

"I plan to leave for Washington Monday by private plane with a friend," said McElroy. "I don't yet know which airfield we'll leave from."

2,000 MILES AN HOUR

At a report by Air Force Gen. Thomas White, chief of staff, before a Senate Armed Services Committee last January, it was revealed that the F108 will be capable of cruising at 2,000 miles per hour, will be constructed of stainless steel instead of the conventional aluminum and will carry guided missiles with nuclear warheads.

An Air Force pamphlet describing the F108 states that the plane will be capable of launching an atomic missile 1,000 miles away from its base and be back on the ground within 30 minutes.

Goldfine Receives Suspended Term

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine today received a suspended sentence of a year in jail and a $1,000 fine for contempt of Congress.

The fine as well as the jail term was suspended.

In lieu of paying the fine and serving the jail term, Goldfine, gift-giving Boston industrialist, was placed on probation for two years.

In addition, U.S. Dist. Judge James W. Morris directed that Goldfine, if given the opportunity, answer the 18 questions he refused to answer before the House Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight a year ago.

If the committee should call Goldfine again, Morris said, he must adequately answer the questions which formed the basis of the indictment.

The subcommittee has given no indication it intends to recall Goldfine.

Goldfine gave up last week his fight against the 18-count contempt indictment which grew out of his appearance a year ago before the subcommittee.

Goldfine then talked freely of many things, including his friendship with former presidential aide Sherman Adams, but balked at answering questions concerning the financial affairs of the Boston Port Development Co.,

He contended in effect that that was none of the subcommittee's business. The House group insisted it was pertinent to its probe of federal regulatory agencies.

Camera Rides Into Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) —A tiny camera was fired 1,700 miles over the Atlantic in the nose cone of a Thor missile today and was recovered from the sea two and one-half hours later.

The Air Force announced that a C54 search plane spotted the nose cone in the water off the island of Antigua and directed the recovery ship Lima to the location.

The Lima hoisted the nose cone aboard. The camera rode in an 18-inch data capsule placed in the cone.

The capsule also contained a small tape recorder and other instruments to register the effect of the tremendous heat encountered by the nose cone as it plummeted back through the earth's atmosphere from a height of 300 miles.

It was learned the camera was designed to photograph the separation of the nose cone from the rocket 125 miles above the earth.

A similar experiment was successful last May.

Vista Point Center Plan Moves Ahead

Plans for establishing a Redwood Empire tourist information center at Vista Point in Marin County moved a step forward yesterday with the appointment of a four-man committee to discuss the type and size of building and the financing of it.

The committee was appointed at a meeting of a special committee of the Redwood Empire Assn. Executive board.

The special group met in San Francisco, and appointed Richard Shirley of the Marin Visitors Bureau; Walter Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors; George G. Hoberg of Lake County and F. T. (Gary) Garesche of San Francisco.

Castro was named chairman.

Vista Point, north of the Golden Gate Bridge alongside Highway 101, commands a striking view of the Bay Area, and is government property under lease to the state with the bridge district and the Division of Highways holding an easement.

Erection of an information center would be subject to final approval of the 6th Army, the highway division and the bridge district.

STORES OPEN LATE TONIGHT

Hot bargains on a warm evening . . . that's what merchants in Marin communities claim to be offering as they keep stores open until 9 o'clock tonight for Friday shoppers.

The late store hours will prevail in San Rafael, Corte Madera Center, Novato and with several stores in San Anselmo.

SECOND ANIMAL HURT

Sergeant Injured As Car Kills Horse

An Air Force sergeant last night suffered eye injuries when the car he was driving struck and killed a horse in Novato. The automobile also struck a second horse that had to be destroyed by a veterinarian.

T/Sgt. Phillip Victor Monroy, 28, of headquarters, Western Air Defense Force, at Hamilton Air Force Base, told the California Highway Patrol he was traveling south on South Novato boulevard when "all of a sudden" a horse appeared on the road.

The CHP said the horses were at the outer edge of a lighted intersection and possibly difficult to see.

The horses belonged to Fabian Bobo of 1470 South Novato boulevard. Bobo, owner of Bobo's Garage and a construction company, said it would cost more than $500 to replace the horses. He said they were the pets of his four children.

Monroy was treated at the base hospital, then transferred to Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco, where a spokesman said today it was too early to determine whether the injury to his right eye might impair the sight.

The untethered animals, being led home by Mrs. Anne Hancock of 1345 Yukon way, apparently had gotten out of their pasture.

Bobo said the second horse's leg was broken "too far up" to be set.

Woman Injured By Hay Sues

A Nicasio mother of three, seriously hurt when a bale of hay from a truck fell on her car and pinned her inside the vehicle last January, is suing for more than $100,000 damages in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Heloise Tomasini, 35, is suing truck driver Edward M. Campigli, 19, and owner of the truck Toby Giacomini, both of Pt. Reyes.

On the afternoon of Jan. 26, Mrs. Tomasini was headed east on the Petaluma-Pt. Reyes road when about 40 bales of hay slid off an approaching truck and smashed her car. She said she suffered concussion, scalp wounds, multiple fractures and other serious injuries.

Mrs. Tomasini asks for $100,000 general damages, medical costs, $600 for a housekeeper whom she had to hire, and $350 for damage to her car and loss of the use of her car.

Mrs. Tomasini's daughter Lisa, 5, and two other companions were passengers in the car at the time. They were going home after attending dancing school at Point Reyes Station.

One of the other girls, Maria Elena Gonzales, 4, of Nicasio was also seriously hurt in the crash.

Tire Slashers Hit 6 Cars In San Rafael

Tire slashers are on the loose in San Rafael.

The vandals used a sharp instrument to flatten several tires Wednesday night or yesterday morning, especially around the city hall parking lot.

Police reported that one of their prowl cars, parked next to the police station, received a flat tire, as did two other cars in the city hall lot.

The other victims were San Rafael Planning Commissioner Carl Brown and Police Officer John Kingston, who had his personal car parked on the west side of the lot.

From other parts of the city came similar reports.

John E. Dillman of 25 Redding way got up yesterday morning and noticed the left rear tire of his 1955 sedan slashed. He had parked it at his home about 9 o'clock the night before.

William J. Doggett, supervisor at Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., reported tires on two company cars had been slashed.

Race Tax Bill Expected To Have No Effect Here

A bill signed into law yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown that ends the $65,000 annual allocation of horse race tax money to county and district fairs will "have no great effect on Marin," County Auditor Leon A. deLisle said today.

Under the new legislation county and district fairs must justify annual requests for the funds, with any surplus from betting money returning to the state's general fund.

DeLisle said he thought legislators have been peeved because in the past all some counties had to do was make an application and they would get the funds.

He said this resulted, in many cases, in counties simply storing the money. He said one county accumulated nearly a half million dollars.

Asked what effect the legislation would have on the annual Marin Art and Garden Fair, which has been a recipient of the horse race tax funds, deLisle said:

"It has always justified its use of the funds. The board of supervisors can enter into an agreement with a private group or corporation to put on a fair, and that's what has been done here. The Art and Garden Center has helped us get the funds."

He said the budget of the fair is approved in Sacramento, including the tax money that the fair receives. This year, he said, it amounted to approximately $43,000.

The remainder of the $65,000 goes into a county fund, with state approval. The difference in Marin, he said, is that the county has programmed the funds for acquisition of fairgrounds at the county civic center. Some counties, he said, have not been spending the funds.

Service District Taxes Reduced at Terra Linda

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Service District at a special meeting last night adopted a budget of $39,000 for the 1959-60 fiscal year, and a tax rate of 97.4 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

John P. (Jack) Namle, president of the board, said the tax rate is 2.6 cents lower than for fiscal 1958-59.

The budget covers expenses for recreation, administration and the fire department, with the bulk of money for the fire department, Namle said.

At an adjourned meeting following the budget session, Namle said the board heard a report that fire insurance rates might decrease as much as 40 per cent for some residents in three months.

Two New Jet Pan Am Plans Schedules

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Pan American Airways will inaugurate jet clipper service over the Polar route from the West Coast to London Aug. 26, and across the Pacific to Hawaii and the Orient Sept. 5.

Announcement of the jet schedule was made today by Robert B. Murray Jr., executive vice president of the Pan-Am Pacific-Alaska Division.

The company said the new service will introduce Boeing international clippers with a range of 5,000 miles.

It will be the first trans-Pacific jet service to Hawaii and the Orient, and the first jet service over the Polar route to London, the company said. Existing travel time will be cut almost in half.

A twice-weekly schedule will be in effect on the Polar route between San Francisco, Los Angeles and London. From the California cities to Honolulu and Tokyo, a three a week schedule was planned, with a fourth schedule to be added 10 days later.

ant in the present world context. When you sit down at the conference table it cannot be all one way."

Khrushchev flushed red at this. Looking sternly at Nixon he said:

"Who is giving ultimatum?"

Nixon tried to shift the argument saying that the two men should discuss this touchy issue at another time.

But Kshurchev, obviously irritated, would not stop.

"Since you raised it while people are listening why not now?" he demanded. "We know something about politics too."

Brown Signs Development Agency Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation creating a State Economic Development Agency was signed today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. He said it means new industry and payrolls to the state.

A commissioner to be named by Brown will receive $16,500 a year and serve on the governor's business advisory council.

The new agency was allotted $175,000 in the 1959-60 budget to be used in attracting industry and conducting economic research to help small businesses.

Brown called for the agency in his inaugural address, saying California was one of the few states without such a service. He ranked it among his top 35 measures.

Airmen Get Hard Labor In Car Theft

Two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen yesterday were sentenced to hard labor and pay forfeiture for taking a parked car in San Francisco April 3 for a joy ride.

Only one of them—A/2c Hubert F. Gorlie, 21, of the 78th Organizational Maintenance Squadron—will have to serve his hard labor term in the Hamilton stockade, however, a special court-martial board decreed. The other, A/3c Edson L. Merlau, 19, of the 78th Armaments and Electronics Squadron, will merely have to labor on the base.

Gorlie's labor sentence is for six months; Merlau's, for two. Both were reduced to airman basic and will have to forfeit $70 per month of their pay—Gorlie for six months and Merlau for two months.

The pair broke into a parked car belonging to Gensler-Lee Co., San Francisco diamond dealers, on April 3. They were nabbed by Hamilton air police after the car was reported stolen.

Guests Ride Western Jets

Western Air Lines, first commercial carrier to introduce new fast Lockheed Electra jet airliners to the west, took government officials, civic leaders and press representatives on demonstration flights over San Francisco Bay yesterday.

The guests first attended a special luncheon at the Bohemian Club and heard Terrell C. Drinkwater, WAL president, describe the 400-mile-an-hour planes which will reduce travel times as much as one-third.

On Aug. 1 Western will start daily jet service between San Francisco, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and Los Angeles. Flights will be started to Minneapolis, St. Paul, Salt Lake City and Phoenix within the next few weeks, Drinkwater said.

City Offered Reservoir For Shop Lot

Prospects of an old-fashioned horse trade between the Marin Municipal Water District and the City of Mill Valley loomed today with much-discussed Cascade Reservoir playing the part of main horse.

A water district spokesman said the district needs a small lot for a shop building on marsh lands near the Mill Valley sewer plant. A swap might be arranged, he suggested.

Hitherto negotiations for the lot have centered on possibility of a long term lease to the district at a nominal rental. Now, however, the Mill Valley fire chief's desire that Cascade Reservoir become a permanent safety factor in fire protection gives the district an unexpected bargaining point.

William R. Seeger, general manager for the water district, is to confer with Mill Valley officials as soon as possible. The talks probably will be before the next meeting of the Mill Valley City Council Aug. 5.

Dodson was southbound on Second street and said he was unable to stop when the woman crossed the street. Hospital attaches said Mrs. Grommon suffered bruised knees and a scraped elbow and complained of a pain in her right side. She was examined and sent home.

Woman Awarded $6,000 Damages In Surgery Error

A Novato housewife won $6,000 damages yesterday in Marin Superior Court because a roll of gauze was left inside an incision on her back after an operation three years ago.

A jury heard the case before Judge N. Charles Brusatori and awarded the damages to Mrs. Grace V. Bloom after a one-hour deliberation. She is the wife of Novato chicken rancher Harold A. Bloom of 1853 Indian Valley road. Albert E. Bagshaw represented the Blooms.

The Blooms sued Dr. Ralph J. Weseman of Novato, who performed the operation, and Doris Root, the nurse who assisted. They asked for $24,000 in all.

According to the suit, Mrs. Bloom entered Marin General Hospital and had the operation performed on Aug. 28, 1956. A surgical sponge (roll of gauze) was left inside the incision, and the incision closed. She was released from the hospital Aug. 31.

Mrs. Bloom said the wound became infected, and the gauze was finally removed Oct. 2.

ESTATE TAX APPRAISER SWORN IN

Superior Judge N. Charles Brusatori (right) administers the oath of office to attorney Lee V. Holman, 42, of 245 Throckmorton avenue, Mill Valley, as inheritance tax appraiser for Marin County. Holman replaces Walter F. Freitas of San Rafael, who served 17 years and whose retirement becomes effective at the end of this month. The brief ceremony took place in Brusatori's chambers at the courthouse. (Independent-Journal photo)

Man Accused Of Molesting Small Girls Pleads Guilty

A San Francisco vegetable vendor, accused of luring little girls at Marinwood into his vegetable truck and molesting them last May, switched his plea to guilty today, as four small girls sat in the courthouse ready to testify against him.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court ordered John Garvin Hicks, 62, remanded to the sheriff to be held without bail. Hicks, formerly of San Francisco, is now living in San Mateo where he has a vegetable stand, according to his attorney, Robert D. Miller of South San Francisco.

Hicks had been charged with four counts of lewd and lascivious conduct toward girls, aged 10 and 11, and a count of perjury for not divulging his past record of felonies when he applied for a solicitor's permit in Marin County. Today, he pleaded guilty to one count of lewd and lascivious conduct which carries a penalty of one year to life in state prison.

When Hicks admitted the one count, Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich agreed to dismiss the other charges. Weissich explained that one count is enough to sentence Hicks to a maximum of life in prison. And the plea of guilty precludes the need to put the girls through the ordeal of testifying in open court.

Judge Brusatori appointed Dr. Theo K. Miller of Napa State Hospital and Dr. Joseph Gutstadt of San Rafael to examine Hicks to determine if he is a sexual psychopath. He set Aug. 17 at 10 a.m. as the time for a report from the psychiatrists and for sentencing.

This is the fourth felony conviction for Hicks. In 1938, he was convicted of grand larceny in South Dakota. In 1945 he served a San Quentin term for sex perversion in Los Angeles. Two years later he was ordered back into prison for lewd and lascivious conduct with young girls, and was paroled in 1953.

Hicks is not married.

Rails On Bridge To Be Removed

SACRAMENT (AP)—A $1,979,944 contract for removal of railway tracks and paving on the San Francisco-Oakland Bay Bridge was awarded yesterday to Erickson, Phillips and Weisberg of Concord.

The state Department of Public Works said the tracks will be removed from the west bay spans. The contract also provides for construction of a 58-foot roadway on the lower deck to Yerba Buena Island and an electrical facility.

S.F. Hotel Site Will Be Cleared

SAN FRANCISCO (AP)—Demolition crews will start work Aug. 1 clearing a block for the new 25 million dollar San Francisco Hilton Hotel.

The work will be done by Arons Building Wrecking Corp., West Sacramento.

The hotel site is bounded by Mason, Ellis, O'Farrell, and Taylor streets.

The 18-story hotel will have 1,200 rooms.

HAFB Tennis Champ Hurt In Missouri

Last year's tennis champion at Hamilton Air Force Base, Lt. Stanley C. Hack, 24, was critically injured last night in a highway accident near Kansas City, Mo., a Hamilton spokesman said today.

Hack suffered a broken leg, a broken arm and a collapsed lung in the accident, three-quarters of a mile south of Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base. No details of the accident were available.

Hack was a member of the 475th Radar Evaluation Squadron at Hamilton. He has been participating in an Air Defense Command tennis tournament at the Missouri base while en route to a new assignment at Hill Air Force Base near Ogden, Utah.

Hack is from Sacramento.

Blazing Truck Blocks Road

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Normal traffic resumed on the narrow three-mile Yolo causeway today after a battle against a flaming truck-trailer rig spewing burning grain.

U.S. 40 traffic stacked up five miles west of the scene and three miles east as the flames seared through the asphalt and touched off the underpinnings of the causeway last night.

Highway patrolmen said Norman Garcia of Elk Grove, driver of the grain truck, tried to keep driving on the causeway despite a flat tire because he didn't want to block traffic.

He fled without injury when the fire burst out. The truck was destroyed.

Somebody has been pilfering mail from boxes at 162 Almonte boulevard outside Mill Valley and tearing up the letters, the post office superintendent reported to sheriff's deputies.

Pilot Missing From Home In Marinwood

A Pan American Airlines pilot, who lives in Marinwood, vanished from his home Wednesday night and is still missing, his wife reported today.

Philip Hudson Lucier, 41, of 559 Loganberry drive, is believed driving his blue 1951 Ford station wagon, license number BUT 562.

"I don't know what to think," said Mrs. Mary L. Lucier. "He has never done this before."

Lucier had just finished a flight at 9 a.m. Wednesday and was scheduled to fly again next Tuesday. Mrs. Lucier told sheriff's deputies Lucier began drinking Wednesday night and appeared despondent. He said he was going to the officers club at Hamilton Air Force Base, but there was no indication he arrived there. She said he has frequented small bars in San Francisco.

The Luciers have been married for 15 years and have a 12-year-old son. Lucier is 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighs 155 pounds, has dark brown hair and brown eyes. He was wearing a gray herringbone tweed jacket, gray slacks, white shirt and tie when he disappeared.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Many prices wilted under afternoon selling today and turned the stock market mixed. Trading moved at a moderate rate.

Volume for the day was estimated at three million shares against 3,310,000 yesterday.

A few selected issues ran up smart gains although there were just about as many losers.

Motors, metals, chemicals, oils, drugs and rails were mixed. Some steels and electronics stepped higher.

Chrysler took the steepest dip among motors, losing around a point and a half. Studebaker-Packard also declined. General Motors and America Motors posted modest gains. Ford was unchanged.

Youngstown Sheet and Tube, after the company reported a sharp upturn in first half profit, highlighted the steel group by running up around two.

Among the electronics, Motorola and General Telephone pushed ahead more than a point.

West, Russ In Secret Parley As Big 4 Talks Near Collapse

GENEVA (UPI)—The West took Russia back into secret talks today in a final effort to win a Berlin truce without paying the price of surrender to Soviet demands.

With the Big Four talks hanging on the edge of a final breakdown, U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter assembled the ministers around a secret lunch at his villa to see what hopes remained.

First he consulted for an hour with British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd, France's Maurice Couve de Murville and West German delegate Wilhelm Grewe. Then Grewe left and Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko came to eat and talk.

Although collapse of the talks, now eight weeks old, appeared inevitable, the West still hoped for a change of Soviet mood that might make possible a summit conference in September.

The main hope for a break was pegged on the outcome of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's talks which begin in Moscow today with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. Gromyko cannot make a move without the word from Khrushchev.

Neither side wanted a final break at least until Nixon leaves Moscow. In addition, Lloyd also was reported striving to keep the conference going at least until the British Parliament recesses July 30.

Foreign Aid Cut Again By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today cut an additional $390,195,000 from President Eisenhower's pet project, the foreign aid program.

The committee recommended $3,186,500,000 in new foreign aid money, adding its own cut to that already voted by Congress in the authorization bill which sets ceilings on the program. The combination cut more than 740 million dollars from Eisenhower's original $3,930,000,000 request.

The authorization bill had put a limit of $3,576,695,000 on the year's program.

The foreign aid program is handled in two separate bills. One fixes the over-all scope of the program. The other determines how much money shall be provided.

LESS THAN REQUEST

Ike Signs $3.5 Billion Foreign Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower signed today a $3,556,200,000 foreign aid authorization bill.

The total is $353,200,000 short, or within 10 per cent, of the amount Eisenhower recommended.

But there is every indication that Congress will cut deeper in the forthcoming foreign aid appropriations bill to provide the actual funds for the program through June 30, 1960.

The bill signed today sets maximums and defines policies.

The biggest cut was in authorization for military arms to allies. Congress set the limit at $1,400,000,000 instead of the $1,600,000,000 Eisenhower recommended. Moreover, it directed that for a two-year trial period military foreign aid be treated as part of the U.S. defense budget rather than a separate item.

Congress also authorized only 155 million dollars, instead of the recommended 200 million dollars, in the fund for the President to spend in unforseen contingencies.

Other categories also were reduced, but Congress not only approved the entire 700-million-dollar authorization requested for economic development loans this year in countries with lagging economies, but provided a stepped-up $1,100,000,000 authorization for next year—which had not been requested.

Injured In Fall

Mrs. Lettie Guthrie, 80, of Inverness, was admitted to Ross General Hospital at 10:35 last night suffering from multiple bruises following a fall on the steps of her home. Her condition today was described as "satisfactory" by hospital attendants.

British Shaken By Charge Of Nyasaland Police State

LONDON (AP)—Grave charges that Britain has turned her African protectorate of Nyasaland into a police state shook Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government today.

Laborites shouted for the resignation of Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd and prepared to make the Conservative government's African policy a major issue in the approaching national election—likely to be in October.

The police state accusation came in the report of a four-man commission appointed by the government to make an independent investigation into nationalist outbreaks in Nyasaland in February.

Hundreds of members of the nationalist African National Congress were put into detention camps and more than 50 Africans killed by soldiers and police in suppressing the wave of violence and sabotage in Nyasaland which spread to neighboring Southern and Northern Rhodesia.

HERCULES? — Reg Lewis, Corte Madera body builder, competed in Hollywood today for title of "Mr. Hercules," in a competition in connection with premiere of new movie of that name. Winner is to get a trip to Rome, site of the 1960 Olympic Games, plus a cash award.

Engle Demands Congress Kill 'Partner' Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) called on Congress today to kill "once and for all" the administration's controversial "partnership" plan for California's Trinity River Project.

But Rep. Charles S. Gubster (R-Calif.) insisted that the proposal to let Pacific Gas and Electric Co. develop Trinity energy "is in the public interest."

The two legislators made the statements in testimony prepared for delivery before the House Irrigation and Reclamation Subcommittee, which opened a hearing on a long-pending bill providing for the private utility's participation in the Northern California federal reclamation project.

Engle and other partnership opponents, claiming Congress never will approve the PG&E plan, are campaigning for federal money to build the Trinity power plants.

The House has denied this request, but the Senate has approved $2,415,000 for the federal works.

SOUTHERN CAL BEATS TEXAS IN POPULATION

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The population of southern California now exceeds that of the entire population of Texas.

Researchers of the Security-First National Bank, casting about for a comparison, came up with that one involving the nation's second largest state. The population of southern California's 14 counties is about 9,600,000, the bank reported, and added that if it were a state, it would be the fifth largest on a population basis.

The state's population gain since 1950 has been two and one-half times greater than that of the national gain, the bank's study disclosed.

Exodus From Marinship Apartments Under Way

Daily inspections will be made into next week to determine whether an exodus from three antiquated slip "apartments" in Marinship, Sausalito, is continued to complete evacuation.

This was promised yesterday by Donald A. Duerr, Sausalito city manager, following report by Police Chief Howard Goerndt that two of four living quarters on Ways 1, 2 and 3 of the yard have now been abandoned as result of a Marin Superior Court order against Donlon J. Arques, owner.

The order was effective last Saturday, but these apartments, along with numerous arks and barges used for living quarters against official desires, have so long been a target for hitherto ineffective efforts that Sausalito authorities seem willing to string along for a few more days in hopes that at least the shore building problem will work itself out.

"If the apartments are still occupied after another four or five days," said Duerr, "the city attorney will be notified so he can take such action as he considers appropriate."

Meanwhile, the embattled city attorney, John B. Ehlen has a midnight Saturday deadline coming up against the antique arks of submerged Mono street—over which they more or less float.

Marin Superior Court has ordered three owners to vacate. This order was sustained by the District Court of Appeal early this week. Theodore Rosenak, attorney for Philip and Louise Savage, J. Norman Braune and Alex Georgiadis, said they are in an impossible situation because they've petitioned to be put on sewer lines but the city refuses to let them tie in because the arks are regarded as trespassers on underwater Mono street.

Voluntary Mental Admissions Rise

Total admissions numbered 23, 871, a rise of 3.8 per cent. Voluntary admissions came to 4,279 patients.

HIGH DRAMA IN 'ALL MY SONS'

Nick Monteleone (left) as Joe Keller angrily tries to convince his son, Chris, played by Morrie Batz, that he was justified in passing imperfect aircraft parts that led to the death of U.S. airmen during World War II. This is a climax scene of "All My Sons," being presented tonight and tomorrow at 8:30 o'clock at the Tamalpais Valley Improvement Club by the Tam Valley Players. IF AT FIRST YOU DON'T SUCCEED . . .

Fisherman's persistence paid off yesterday for Juanita Curley, wife of Wilfred J. Curley, 695 Hilary drive, Tiburon.

Wednesday night, while striped bass fishing on Richardson Bay, Mrs. Curley hooked in to "a big one" on a third strike that snapped her pole and took her rod, reel, and line into the briny deep.

Undaunted, Mrs. Curley searched the beach yesterday morning for possible trace of the equipment. She was rewarded with her pole, reel, line, and a 10-pound striper neatly deposited on the sand opposite Hawthorne Terrace.

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today appointed John Carr, director of the state Department of Employment, as the new director of finance.

Carr will succeed Bert W. Levit, who resigned from the highest-paid state post effective Aug. 1.

Carr, 60, a Long Beach department store executive until he assumed his present job in the Brown administration, will move to the Finance Department the first of next month.

In his new job, he will receive $28,875 a year.

GROWING BAY PROBLEM

Pollution Board Seeks Elimination of Debris

The Regional Water Pollution Control Board today called for cooperation in eliminating sources of floating debris in San Francisco Bay, which the board said is "increasing at an unprecedented rate."

The board asked the cooperation of counties, cities and districts "having responsibility for the operation or regulation of recognized refuse disposal operations."

Major sources of the debris, the board said, are:

1. Disposal operations so located, constructed or operated as to permit entry of floatable debris into the bay.

2. Illegally deposited debris along shores of the bay below high tide elevation or where it is deposited in creek beds and carried to the bay by storm runoff.

3. Floatable debris from construction operations and from waterfront structures that are gradually falling apart.

Paralytic Polio Cases Rise By 50 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Paralytic polio cases increased by 50 per cent last week to a 1959 weekly high of 166. They ran more than three times the number listed for the comparable 1958 week.

The Public Health Service today said the states reported a total of 257 polio cases during the week ended July 18.

This compares with a revised total of 178 polio cases for the week ended July 11 this year, 110 of them paralytic.

In the week ended July 19, 1958, there were 52 cases.

San Anselmo Builder Low Bank Job Bidder

A. Von Rotz of San Anselmo has submitted the lowest of six bids at $118,980 for additions and alterations to transform the Purity Store on Sir Francis Drake boulevard in San Anselmo into a branch of the First National Bank of San Rafael.

In making this announcement today William P. Murray, bank president, said a decision on award of the contract will be made sometime next week.

Through the remodeling, the building is to become a bank with two drive-in windows. There will be a new parking area and cars will go in from the street on the south side to emerge on the north.

This will become the eighth office of the San Rafael bank upon occupancy around the end of the year. Other branches are in Corte Madera, Novato, Petaluma, Mill Valley, Belvedere and Kentfield.

$8 Million Bid Low For Span

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Yuba Consolidated Industries, low bidder the day before on the substructure, has submitted the low bid of $8,469,485 to build the superstructure of the new Benicia-Martinez Bridge.

The firm offered the low bid of $5,769,000 to build the underpinnings Wednesday. Both bids were made through Yuba's Judson Pacific-Murphy Division in Emeryville.

The state Toll Bridge Authority will open bids Tuesday on revenue bonds to pay for the mile-long, four-lane bridge.

Bids for the remainder of the construction are to be advertised soon.

Bill Hits Equal Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Commerce Committee has approved a bill that would exempt radio-television newscasts from the equal time rule.

The rule provided that a station giving time to one political candidate on a program must give the same amount of time to all other candidates.

Four Airliners In Trouble Land Safely

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Several airliners managed successful emergency landings at various airports across the country yesterday after developing troubles that could have caused serious accidents.

Two of the incidents were at New York's Idlewild Airport. Another involved a plane with smoking engines at Indianapolis, and the other was a plane with damaged landing gear at Denver.

LANDING GEAR TROUBLE

Landing gears seemed to present the most frequent difficulties.

An American airliner Boeing 707 Jetliner, with landing gear trouble, made an emergency landing at Tucson, Ariz., Wednesday night. Other Boeing Jetliners had been involved in landing gear mishaps at Idlewild Saturday night and also the previous Saturday night.

It was Idlewild's third mishap in two days yesterday when a four-engine TWA Super Constellation with 51 persons aboard came in with one engine out of operation.

EMERGENCY LANDING

Earlier in the day, an Air Force cargo plane made an emergency landing after the pilot reported possible fire and smoke. There was no fire.

In Indianapolis, another TWA plane landed safely with two engines smoking from an oil leak. In Denver, a chartered plane of Miami Airlines was badly damaged when a portion of the landing gear gave way in landing at Lowry Air Force Base.

Miller Sees Effort To Override Veto

Congress probably will attempt to override President Eisenhower's veto of the housing bill, Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) believes.

Miller said in a statement from Washington today that such an attempt should be successful in the Senate. "I do not think we will quite make it in the House, but we may come a lot closer than is now believed possible," he said.

HITS MESSAGE

He termed the President's veto message "shockingly misleading and inaccurate" on several points and expressed surprise that many think the bill has to do only with public housing, "acctually only a small part of the bill."

Miller went on:

"It is very much concerned with private housing, FHA insurance, urban renewal (San Rafael, Santa Rosa, Eureka, Petaluma now are very interested in this), college housing, housing for the elderly, and so on."

Miller said that, "sections of this bill which are desperately needed by our North Coast home building, real estate and lumber industries are likely to be deferred till next year."

EFFECTS VISIBLE

Builders consulted in the 1st District have told him, Miller continued, that effects of the veto on the market are already apparent and as time goes on this will grow increasingly serious "because the housing bill affects every segment of the construction industry.

He declared: "The prosperity of the 1st District is largely dependent on our real estate, construction and lumber industries. I believe that in terms of its impact upon the economic health of the North Coast, the housing bill is the most important single piece of legislation before this Congress."

Senate hearings on the veto message opened yesterday and will continue into early August when the House will decide what it is going to do. Miller said the hearings are necessary "because of the wide variance between the contents of the President's message and the factual basis upon which Congress relied in formulating the bill. . . . Congressional feeling on this matter is extremely high (over) a dreadful and calamitous mistake."

Miller denied that the bill would be inflationary and said it calls for outlay next year of only 24 million dollars in a 77-billion-dollar budget and 90 billion dollars actual expenditure.

Hub Chamber Names 3 To Road Group

A. N. Nipper, Sidney Braverman and Eugene Ostaggi yesterday were named by the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce as a highway and streets committee to sit in on future discussions on the proposed road linking Highway 101 with Olema.

The road, construction of which has been approved by the state, will originate at the junction of Highways 17 and 101 and pass through San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

First meeting of the San Anselmo committee is scheduled for Aug. 4 at 4 p.m., in the chambers of the Marin County Board of Supervisors. Meeting with them will be committees from the chambers of commerce of other cities involved.

At their weekly luncheon meeting yesterday, the San Anselmo chamber also laid tentative plans for the next San Anselmo Bargain Days, scheduled for Oct. 1, 2 and 3.

Federal Program Creating Chaos In Highway Numbers

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—When is Highway 40 also Highway 80? Or Highway 30, Highway 8 as well? Or 66 also 40?

Right now, under the federal government's interstate highway system in which cross-country routes are given special numbers in addition to their regular designations.

Only roads built to federal standards can receive the special designation. In this case, Interstate Highways 80, 8 or 40. In general, the standard in California means roads of four or more lanes with controlled access.

This could add even more confusion since parts of U.S. 40, for instance, don't meen the standards. So Highway 40 isn't always also Highway 80.

Then there's Utah, where Interstate Highway 80 is also Highway 30, rather than 40. And the interstate route picks up other numbers as it winds across the nation almost directly east to New York City.

Think you're confused? Pity R. J. Israel, the man in the State Division of Highways given the job of putting up the multiple-designation signs.

Israel, assistant state traffic engineer, has been experimenting. The first step was to erect dual-numbered signs on U.S. 40 west of Sacramento.

In general shape, the interstate signs look about the same as the regular U.S. markers, but later they'll be given special colors. Shaped as a shield, they'll have white borders and numbers, with a red upper shield and a blue bottom.

State officials aren't very happy about the duplication. In fact, the American Asso. of Highway Officials adopted the new plan over California opposition.

And it's not just the northern part of the state that's suffering road sign confusion. Down by San Diego U.S. Highway 80 (not U.S. Interstate 80) will still be Highway 80 but also will be Interstate 8.

CHANCE FOR REVENGE

District Attorneys Laying For Perry Mason Author

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—A legal trap is being laid for crime fiction writer Erle Stanley Gardner when he appears to make the principal address at the convention of the National District Attorney's Association July 30-Aug. 1.

The nation's district attorneys, after watching helplessly while Gardner's creation, Perry Mason, beats Dist. Atty. A. Hamilton Burger every Saturday night on television, have decided to get revenge.

When Gardner arrives for the convention, he will be arrested on a charge of "allowing Perry Mason to represent innocent clients only, and not allowing A. Hamilton Burger to ever win a single case."

Gardner will be tried before a jury of 12 long-suffering district attorneys, and prosecuted by a battery of lawyers who have won cases of national interest. The judge has not been selected.

His defense will be handled by Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson of Los Angeles, who is the real life counterpart of the never-victorious Burger, so there is some doubt that Gardner will receive an enthusiastic defense.

Chief witness for the prosecution will be Bill Talman, who plays Burger on television and will fly to Milwaukee especially to seal Gardner's doom.

J. Clair Favrot of Baton Rouge, La., president of the association, calls the Gardner series an "outlandish picture. There just aren't that many innocent clients." The prosecutors have promised, however, to "give Gardner a fair trial before we hang him."

Once the hazing is over, he will deliver a keynote address on "Crime and the Family." Favrot described him as "an outstanding figure among laymen interested in good law enforcement on a nationwide basis."

Dredge Job At Belvedere Protested

The Army Corps of Engineers office in San Francisco has received 11 protests against proposed dredging operations on the west side of Belvedere Island where Belvedere Properties Co. has announced plans for a waterfront homesite development.

District engineer Col. John S. Harnett said the protests will be studied to determine whether they concern navigational problems which fall within the engineers' jurisdiction.

The application to the engineers involved only the proposed dredging operation and not the home construction program.

Colonel Harnett indicated it would be some time before a decision will be reached on the protests.

SAN RAFAEL MOTORISTS:
Allstate lowers rates on auto insurance effective immediately
You benefit directly—as always—from Allstate's big-volume, low-overhead, quality-for-less business principle
And you still get Allstate's top-quality protection, service and value
Allstate has always believed in the simple proposition that it is possible to offer top-quality insurance at lower rates than most other companies charge.
Now we are happy to bring a rate reduction to most California motorists. This means you may now make immediate savings by switching to Allstate auto insurance.
As you'd expect, how much you pay depends on where you live and how your car is used. But for most car owners like those Allstate already insures, savings range up to 35% compared with rates of most other companies. Yet your money can't buy better protection.
Compare and you'll see why Allstate value is now greater than ever.
Cost comparison with the ten leading auto insurance companies in California:
(Costs in effect since July 8, 1959)
Costs of many other companies: $102.20—$121.90
ALLSTATE: $88.00
YOU SAVE: $14.20—$33.90
THESE COSTS are currently in effect for a policy covering Bodily Injury & Property Damage, $10,000/$40,000/$10,000 limits; $100 Deductible Collision; and Comprehensive insurance. Late model 2-or-4-door sedan such as a 1959 Ford Fairlane (8 cyl.), pleasure use, about 135 miles weekly, no male drivers in family under age 25, and no more than 1 or 2 accidents in the past 2 years. You may save even more by switching to Allstate.
SEARS KIND OF VALUE

Allstate cuts red tape to pay claims fast . . . often right "on the spot."
Allstate was founded by Sears, and has won over 5,000,000 policyholders by its modern merchandising methods and by offering the Sears kind of better values—fast, dependable service—and courtesy. Selling costs are low. Savings are passed on to policyholders in the form of low rates.
There's no Home Office red tape because Allstate claims people have the authority to settle most claims themselves.
Also, with Allstate you can pay as you drive. Allstate's easy payment plan lets you pay 40% down, with 6 months to pay the balance, and there's only a nominal service charge of 50¢ per payment.
LOW COST AUTO FINANCING
Allstate's auto finance bank plan helps save you money two ways: you get low bank rates from a cooperating bank, plus the protection of low-cost Allstate Auto insurance. You may save $50 . . . $100 . . . $150, or even more, financing your next new or used car if you talk to your Allstate Agent first. He'll handle the details.

French Launch Crucial Blow At Moslem Rebel Stronghold

ALGIERS (AP) — The French army is waging a crucial offensive of the four and one-half-year-old Algerian war.

All available reserves have been thrown into the massive, forest-covered Grande Kabylie Mountains east of Algiers, the strongest bastion of the Moslem nationalist rebellion against French rule in Algeria.

French troops began the assault Wednesday, striking simultaneously from the ground, air and sea. Gen. Maurice Challe, supreme commander in Algeria, is commanding the operation personally.

So far there has been no word on how the operation is going. But staff officers say the action will continue for many weeks, if not months.

The French general staff believes the future of the Algerian war depends largely on the results of the Kabylie offensive.

The attack comes less than two months before the fall session of the United Nations, which is likely to discuss the Algerian problem. Army sources said the French will make a major effort to smash or considerably reduce rebel military resistance before the debate starts.

An estimated 6,000 armed nationalists are entrenched in the Grande Kabylie zone, a rugged range starting less than 50 miles east of Algiers and continuing for about 150 miles parallel to the coast.

They form Rebel Zone 3, commanded by Col. Mohanou el Hadj, who took over last April after the death of guerrilla chief Ait Hamouda.

Past French efforts to smash resistance in the area failed. Rebels killed by the French were quickly replaced by conscripts from the impoverished villages clinging to the mountainsides.

The Kabyles are reputed to be more warlike than any other Algerian tribe. Most rebel chiefs come from the area. The French believe that smashing or seriously reducing rebel strength in that area would have a strong impact on the rebellion.

The French attempted a major offensive against Kabylie last fall. But the action touched only part of the area and apparently without spectacular success.

This time, the French opened with a three-prong attack. Nearly 1,000 paratroopers dropped into the 5,000-foot-high Akfadou area, in the heart of the mountains. Marines landed at Cape Sigli and moved inland. Foreign Legion units also landed.

The plan was to move eastward toward the best defended area for a thorough sweep.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

It Could Easily Be In France— But It's Right Here In Marin

It could be in Saone et Loire or any other French town, but it isn't. You'll find La Petite Auberge right in San Rafael a block from the bus station, and if you can't it's your own fault because a lot of folks from out of town don't have a bit of trouble.

Look for a quaint little red brick structure where the bricks weren't even set level until the roof line was reached —and that's it.

Atmospheric piece de resistance is the outdoor patio covered by a wisteria vine which could be 25 or four score years old—no way of telling without digging into its history. Here gather nightly seekers of fine food and wine, menu'd in French style by Paul de Vaux and Pierre Flobert.

Any night of the week except Monday when the place is closed you'll find them in numbers. Weekends you'll do well to reserve ahead.

Last Tuesday only convinced me again that here is a spot catching on so fast it might set a success record for its size hard to beat. If the rustic scenery pleases your aesthetic tastes the food lends material support in the palate and mid regions.

During a particularly satisfying stage in our set-to that also included soup, pigeon aux petits poix, rum baba and suitable vintages my wife viewed her dreamy-eyed mate with a stubborn set to her jaw.

"Look," said she. "I'll darn your socks, wash your shirts and cook your meals, but this I will not serve you for breakfast."

"Why not?" I argued. "It's absolutely delicious."

"I don't care. Half a cantaloupe filled with French tawny port? Absolutely not!"

Okay, okay. For dinner then, sometime, maybe?

THE CAPTAIN'S ROOM is the name chosen by Fred Kern for his new restaurant and bar soon to open on the former site of Joe's Village Patio in Corte Madera.

It popped into Fred's mind when he was at the Alcohol Beverage Control Board office arranging for his license. The clerk asked for a name and without too much forethought out came "The Captain's Room." So designated, it will so remain.

The term implies something on the nautical side and, that, in effect, is what the Captain's Room will be. Extensive remodeling will cancel out the bar at the level of Don Hick's service station and place it below in a corner of the dining room. The old bar quarters will then revert to gas station use.

Adjoining property is being graded for parking space, and entrance to both bar and dining room will be from Tamalpais avenue and the parking lot.

Captain's chairs and other nautical trappings will dress up the premises in sail-ho style. Cuisine may take a similar turn and plans look good for a very attractive place.

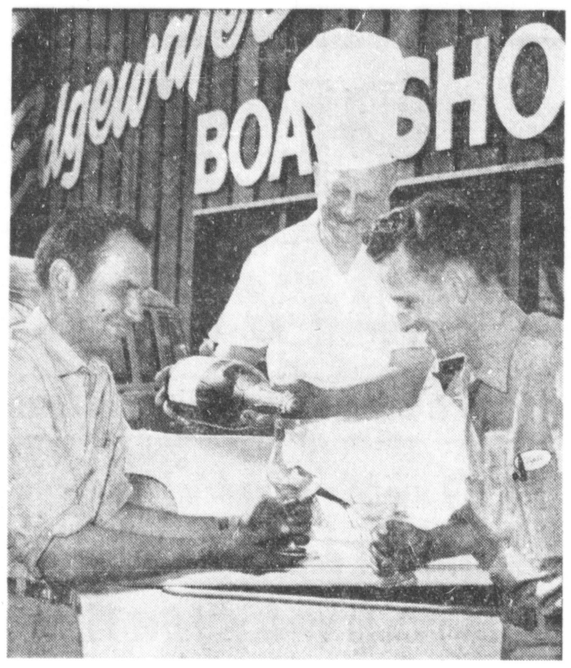
Opening is hoped for sometime in August, depending upon dispatch in construction.

SMORGASBORD: Jimmie Louie, who formerly purveyed fine Chinese and American food at Joes' Village Patio, will take over dining facilities of Travelers Inn in San Rafael. No date set for opening—should be in August . . . One of my favorites in the restaurant field, Ann Baney, is back in that field. She's cocktail hostess at Bob's of Marin, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, 7 p.m. to 2 a.m. . . . If the staff at Brands Ranch Wagon looks overfed and overweight, they probably are. Comes from having all the what and when they want to eat, on the house.

LEST I HAVE sung the praises of Rubini's in Fairfax too softly, permit me to remind you that all is not beefsteaks and chops that glitters on the menu. Friday diners-out in particular should be pleased to know that seafoods are well represented in this part of the county. Swordfish steak, crab Newburg, broiled lobster tails, lobster steak Rubini (this is an epi for epicures), jumbo prawns (they're cooked here like nowhere else) and others.

The list is soon to be supplemented by something new and exotic, but I'll wait until the recipe is all set before I tell you about it.

While on the subject, mention should certainly be made of the culinary talents of Rubini's hostess, Corky Jones. We sampled some of her cooking last week and discovered for ourselves what it seems others have known about right along —she's good.



NO, NO, IT ISN'T DONE THAT WAY! You tie a ribbon on the bottle, swing it against the hull and break it—not pop the cork and drink it! Clyde Kilian and Lawrence Ziegler of Sausalito have the procedure all wrong for launching their newly rebuilt Edgewater Boat Shop after it burned down to the pilings. Maybe it's the fault of the fellow in the center doing the pouring — Maurice Guridi of Pierre's French restaurant across the street. What a waste of good champagne! (Ken Molino photo)

Assessments By Counties Up 5 Per Cent

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The state Board of Equalization has approved the assessment rolls of the state's counties, totaling $23,733,286,367 for land, improvements, and personal property, after exemptions.

The state-wide increase in assessed value was $1,205,060,380, or 5.34 per cent. Exemptions totaled $1,459,538,658, an increase of $46,540,012, or 3.29 per cent.

The assessment roll submitted for Marin County showed a total of $192,985,183 in assessed value, after $15,394,445 in exemptions. The assessed value after exemptions was an increase of $9,244,460, or 5.03 per cent from a year ago.

The breakdown for the county showed assessments for land at $69,590,480; improvements, $119,868,530 and personal property $18,920,618.

Women Inmates Show Big Gain

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The number of women in California prisons increased 18 per cent during the fiscal year that ended June 30, the state Department of Corrections said today.

The total prison population at the end of June was 19,188 inmates, a gain of 7.2 per cent from the previous year. Women constituted 793 of the total, a rise from 671 in June 1958.

GRAPE GROWER TELLS OF WAR WITH BIRDS

FRESNO (AP)—Grape growers of the southern San Joaquin Valley are being plagued by birds—thousands of them.

Leonard LeBlanc of the Clovis area told a Fresno Chamber of Commerce symposium he has a full-time employee shooting birds through the daylight hours and still is suffering greater losses to birds than ever before. He said others are taking the same measures.

The grape crop is perhaps the cleanest and highest quality on record, he added.

Fair Plans Day For Garden Clubs

SACRAMENTO — "Say It With Flowers" will describe a lavish arrangement of floral and foliage compositions at the annual Garden Clubs' Day at the California State Fair.

As a new special event the floral arrangements will express "proverbs in flowers" on Sept. 10, the ninth day of the fair which runs Sept. 2 to 13.

Members of affiliated garden clubs and their guests will gather in Governor's Hall at 10 a.m. to hear various state chairmen and to meet district directors and club officials at a luncheon to follow.

Mrs. E. G. Barnes, 3952 Brule court, Sacramento, has charge of reservations for the lunch. Deadline for reservations is Sept. 6.

MARIN MOVIE ROUNDUP

Leprechauns Coming To Rafael Screen

By LESLIE DARD

Here's what your movie entertainment money will get you this weekend in Marin County:

RAFAEL THEATER

The leprechauns will take over the Rafael screen starting Sunday with the opening of "Darby O'Gill and the Little People," a frequently delightful Irish fantasy made by Walt Disney.

The cast is excellent: Albert Sharpe is Darby, lazy, aging caretaker of a lord's estate; Janet Munro is Katie, his lovely, spitfire daughter; Sean Connery is a Dublin lad imported to replace Darby; Kieron Moore is the village bully, and Jimmy O'Dea, for many years as star of the Irish stage, is Brian Conner, king of the leprechauns.

Much of the fun stems from the battle of wits between Darby and King Brian for, as anyone knows, if you capture a leprechaun, he must grant you three wishes — and Darby and the king have dueled many times.

Although this film was made in Hollywood, you'd swear Disney sent a whole crew to the Emerald Isle.

SEQUOIA AND NOVATO THEATERS

In the spring of 1863, Union cavalrymen made an audacious raid into the heart of Rebel territory, severing the lines carrying supplies to Vicksburg and thus materially shortening the Civil War.

It is this story which is told in "The Horse Soldiers" (color), starring John Wayne and William Holden. The film opens Sunday at both theaters.

Wayne portrays Col. Marlowe and Holden is his surgeon sent along to minister to the wounded.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"The Sound and the Fury" (color, CinemaScope focuses on a Southern mansion, home of a decaying family headed by Yul Brynner and peopled by an idiot (Jack Warden), an alcoholic (John Beal), a hypochondriac (Francoise Rosay), a troubled young lady (Joanne Woodward) and eventually the young lady's long absent mother (Margaret Leighton).

What happens to these people, taken from the pages of one of William Faulkner's novels, makes for a generally mature and vivid film marked by first-rate acting.

The co-feature is "Up Periscope," starring James Garner and Edmund O'Brien. It's a war action film involving the seizure of a vital Japanese code by Garner.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"South Pacific," a color epic, has been held over.

Directed by Joshua Logan, it is a lavishly made, engaging show which retains all the joy, sorrow and comedy of the Broadway version.

LARK THEATER

"My Uncle," Oscar-winner as the best foreign film of the past 12 months, has been held over again.

It stars Jacques Tati, the clown of "Mr. Hulot's Holiday," and his satire is keener than ever.

FAIRFAX THEATER

William Holden won an Oscar for his performance as Sefton in "Stalag 17," the comedy-drama now at this theater.

It's actually a very funny film, since a good bit of its story deals with the efforts of captured Air Force men to amuse themselves in a German prison camp.

The men realize there is a stool pigeon among them. Suspicion points to Holden, a promoter type. He hasn't endeared himself to the others and when the Germans get rough with a captured officer, the men beat up Holden.

It would spoil your enjoyment to reveal any more of the tense ending. Estimate: A superior film.

The co-feature is "A place in the Sun," starring Monty Clift and Elizabeth Taylor in the Theodore Dreiser story (An American Tragedy).

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

"Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," opening Sunday was one of five nominees for an Oscar as the best film of the year (it's in color) and its stars, Liz Taylor and Paul Newman, were in the running for best acting awards.

Based on Tennessee Williams' prize winning play, the story is full of vigor and lusty frankness.

Burl Ives plays Big Daddy, a gusty old tyrant near death. Newman plays his younger (and favorite) son, numbing himself with whisky and rejecting his wife in the belief that she has been unfaithful. Miss Taylor is cast as the wife, anxious to bear a child so that she may share in Big Daddy's estate.

Obviously, this is a film for adults.

'HORSE SOLDIERS' AT NOVATO—Artist recreates one of the spectacular moments in "The Horse Soldiers," the John Wayne-William Holden film due Sunday at the Novato Theater.

COMMAND PERFORMANCE—By order of the King Brian, monarch of the Leprechauns, Darby O'Gill plays a lively Irish tune in Walt Disney's "Darby O'Gill and the Little People," opening Sunday at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael. Weekday matinees have been arranged Monday through Friday.

Aid Bill Due Brown Veto

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown says he'll veto a bill to stiffen penalties for fraud and change payment methods under the state's aid-to-needy-children program.

The governor announced yesterday that he will pocket veto the measure by Assemblyman S.C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante).

Brown said he agreed with a provision permitting in-kind rather than cash payments to ANC mothers. It would provide such items as rent, groceries and utilities in lieu of cash.

However, he objected to raising from two to six months the period that a county may withhold payment for failure to report the facts of eligibility correctly.

Giants Send Antonelli Vs. Cubs Tonight

Johnny Antonelli, king of the San Francisco mound corps, takes the hill tonight against the Chicago Cubs as the Giants attempt to consolidate their position at the head of the National League standings.

Antonelli, with a record of 14-5, was whipped in his last outing when a couple of his pitches went over the fence for a 3-2 Los Angeles victory. Johnny claimed the balls weren't hit over—but were carried over by the high wind.

The crack southpaw will be facing the same breezes today as he hooks up in a mound duel with Dave Hillman (5-7) of the Cubs.

"We've been getting the finest pitching since I've been managing this club," said Manager Bill Rigney after yesterday's 5-1 win for a two-game sweep over the St. Louis Cardinals.

"It also looks as though our boys are going to break out of their batting slump a bit," he said as he noted that the Giants clubbed out 11 safeties yesterday. Rigney gave Antonelli credit for improving Jack Sanford's mound work yesterday.

"Johnny taught both Sanford and Mike McCormick how to throw a changeup," said Rigney, "and that's the difference."

CARDS WORN OUT

Manager Solly Hemus of the Cards said:

"San Francisco has been wearing us out all year."

San Francisco has won 11 and lost only three to St. Louis so far this year. In the two games against the Cards this week McCormick and Sanford each pitched eight and two-thirds innings of shutout ball before allowing a run.

Four of the five Giants runs yesterday were unearned. They got two in the first inning when Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda scored on Ken Boyer's error on a hard smash by Daryl Spencer.

FINAL RALLIES

One more came across in the seventh on two infield hits and an error; and two crossed the plate in the eighth on singles by Bob Schmidt, Eddie Bressoud, Jackie Brandt and Jim Davenport, plus an error by pitcher Lindy McDaniel. Wilmer Mizell was the losing hurler.

Rigney said he "probably" would start little Stu Miller tomorrow against the Cubs, using Sam Jones on Sunday.

Giant Jottings: Gino Cimoli, Cardinal outfielder, and a San Francisco boy, says: "We just can't beat the Giants. We make foolish plays against them that we don't make against anyone else." . . . Giant pitchers have allowed only six runs in the four games of their home stand . . . the last five Giant pitchers have gone the distance . . . Outfielder Willie Mays has a stiff neck and was taken out of the game for the final inning yesterday, but he will be back in action tonight.

Pastrano, Johnson Clash Tonight In 10-Round TV Bout

LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Willie Pastrano, who never has been knocked off his feet, takes on Alonzo Johnson tonight in a heavyweight 10-rounder which is a must for both fighters.

The National Boxing Assn. ranks Johnson seventh. The NBA has Pastrano unranked but Ring magazine rates him eighth.

The nimble Pastrano needs to win to remain a contender. Johnson has won 12 in a row and needs the fight to continue his fistic rise.

Pastrano originally was scheduled to meet Alex Miteff, but Miteff was ailing.

Johnson, whose home is in Braddock, Pa., has won 17 of 18 fights. Pastrano, of Miami, has a 48-7-5 record.

Braves, Bums Lose Key Men; Turning Point In N.L. Race?

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

If there's to be a turning point in the tight fight for the National League pennant, it may be at hand—not in the won-lost records or batting averages, but in the injury lists.

For while right-hander Jack Sanford proved himself sound again by pitching first-place San Francisco to a 5-1 victory over St. Louis yesterday, Milwaukee's third place Braves found they'll have to do without slugging Ed Mathews indefinitely. And second-place Los Angeles lost Gil Hodges for at least a week.

Hodges, the man with the big bat in the Dodgers' comeback, pulled a leg muscle after his 19th home run had touched off a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Mathews, the N.L. home run leader with 29, was kept out of the lineup because of a bruised hip, suffered Wednesday, as the Braves slipped 4½ games behind with a 6-2 defeat by Cincinnati. It was the only other game scheduled in the N.L.

In the American, Minnie Minoso's grand-slam homer triggered a seven-run sixth inning that gave Cleveland an 8-5 victory over New York. Kansas City rapped Baltimore 9-5 and regained sixth place from Washington, beaten 11-2 by Detroit.

Hodges broke up a scoreless tie with a two-run homer in the fourth, then was injured sliding in the sixth. The big first baseman is batting .293.

Wally Moon also homered for the Dodgers, his seventh, and forced in another run with a bases loaded walk in a two-run seventh that nailed it for Larry Sherry (1-2). The young righthander singled home the clincher in the seventh for his first major league victory, but needed Don Drysdale's saving relief job after Ernie Banks singled home two runs in the eighth. Moe Drabowsky (4-8) was the loser.

Willie Jones' grand-slam homer beat the Braves in the eighth after a two-out error by second baseman Bobby Avila.

Loser Joey Jay (3-7) had shut out the Reds on four hits for 7⅔ innings before singles by Frank Robinson and Jerry Lynch and the error set up Jones' eighth homer. Brooks Lawrence (5-9) was the winner in relief, pairing with starter Bob Purkey to check the Braves on three hits.

SHOOTING STARTS TOMORROW

'Fair' Deer Season Forecast In Marin

California's coastal deer season opens Saturday at dawn with prospects ranging from poor to excellent and fire danger high in all areas.

Shooting opens a half-hour before sunrise. The limit is two bucks, forked horns or better, in all areas.

Generally, the Fish and Game Department predicts only a fair season unless the weather gets cooler and wetter.

Public lands will offer poorer prospects than a year ago, but hunting on private lands should be good.

The deer are in good to excellent condition, generally sleek and prime. The ranges are dry and the weather unusually warm.

Most of the prime areas are on private or gun club land, with trespass permission a must for the unattached hunter.

Such is the case in Marin County as all hunting areas are privately owned.

Game Warden Al Giddings predicted a "fair" season for Marin and said he expects approximately 600 deer to be killed this season—a slight increase over last year. The Marin record kill is 1054 bucks in 1954, according to Giddings.

Giddings said the western Marin area starting at Nicasio should provide the best hunting, adding the deer "look in good condition now, but there'll be a shortage of browse later in the year."

This is a problem that has effected deer in northern Marin around Novato, the game warden said. There was a slight die-off of deer in that area last fall, he explained, because of the shortage of browse. "We found eight dead deer in one day," Giddings added.

Giddings reminded local hunters to tag their deer immediately and have them validated.

He also pointed out that hunters traveling through the Tamalpais Game Refuge must have their weapons unloaded and encased.

CHIEF WARNS HUNTERS OF FIRE HAZARD

Marin County Fire Chief Charles F. Reilley today reminded hunters of the high fire hazard and urged them to use extreme caution during the deer season which starts tomorrow.

"The area is explosively dry because of the little rainfall and recent high temperatures," Reilley stated, "and it only takes a spark to touch off a blaze."

The chief added: "In the past our local hunters have gained a fine reputation for using caution and I hope they keep up the record. Also, I hope they'll warn other hunters of the fire hazard."

Rams Lose Waller For This Season

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Halfback Ron Waller will not play with the Los Angeles Rams this season.

Waller notified the Rams' office yesterday that he will remain out of football this year, hoping to heal shoulder and knee injuries that plagued him last year. Waller, former Maryland star, was all-pro in his freshman year in 1955.

Big Beefy 49er Freshmen Start Practice Tomorrow

When the San Francisco 49ers list a 235-pound football player as a "smaller hopeful" one gets an idea of the beef available at their rookie camp that opens in Moraga tomorrow.

No less than eight of the ex-collegians top the scales at 240 or more and two more of that general poundage will report after the All-Star Game in Chicago.

Which proves the 49ers seek bulwarks for their forward walls, offense and defense, for the National Football League campaign.

Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf tagged the following neophytes for head coach Red Hickey:

Monte Clark, 6-6, 260, Southern California; Henry Schmidt, 6-4, 260, Trinity; George Shirkey, 6-4, 250, Austin; Ted Stahura, 6-0, 250, Pittsburgh State; Hogan Wharton, 6-2, 245, Houston; Don Rogers, 6-2, 245, South Carolina; Bill Kortuz, 6-2, 255, Dayton; and Wally Bavaro, 6-4, 240, Holy Cross.

After the All-Stars play, Dan James, 6-2, and 245 from Ohio State, and Frank Geremia, 6-3, 245, Notre Dame, join the fun at St. Mary's College where the 49ers train.

Listed as the "smaller hopefuls" were Jack Bolton, 6-3, 235 from Puget Sound; Bob Carter, 6-3, 230, Denver; and Vel Heckman, 6-0, 230, Florida.

Trades that sent away veteran lineman Bob Toneff and Lou Palatella show hope for line talent from the rookies. Some figure as many as 12 first-year men will stick.

"Our defenses gave up 5.4 yards last year every time the other team ran the ball, the worst showing in the league," the new head coach commented.

Thirty rookies and 15 veterans, including quarterbacks Y. A. Tittle and John Brodie, report tomorrow for physical exams and get down to serious work on Sunday. Eighteen more veterans and five rookies from the All-Star game check in later.

San Francisco's defensive line last year was Ed Henke, Leo Nomellini, Bill Herchman and Toneff. Frank Morze, the 280-pound center, may be switched to one of the defensive jobs and Charlie Krueger, a 250-pounder, will be the top candidate for the job vacated by Toneff. Krueger, of Texas A&M, proved a training camp sensation last year but suffered a broken arm that kept him out of the regular schedule.

VIRUS FATAL TO COACH JIM TATUM

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (UPI) — Jim Tatum, who built football powerhouses at Maryland and was hired by the University of North Carolina to revive his alma mater's skidding football program, died here last night.

Doctors at North Carolina Memorial Hospital here did not give the exact cause of the death of the 45-year-old South Carolina native, but described it as an "overwhelming" virus infection complicated by uremic poisoning.

Tatum's wife, Edna, suffered a milder version of the same ailment and was quarantined at home with their three children. University officials said there was no sign of the illness among the children, Rebecca, 14, James Jr., 13, and Edna Reid, 7.

Tatum, who had been in Montreal with his family as guests of Coach Douglas Walker of the Montreal Alouettes, had returned home last week following the sudden death in the same hospital here of his 54-year-old sister, Mrs. Agnes Tatum Brown of Laurinburg, N.C.

HOSPITALIZED SUNDAY

He was stricken shortly after his return and was admitted to the hospital Sunday for diagnostic studies.

Shortly before 11 p.m. the colorful and popular coach died in his private room at the end of a dimly-lighted corridor on the sixth floor of the hospital.

Always the center of controversy, Tatum returned to his alma mater here just four years ago. He wanted to rebuild the school into a national football power.

He came from the University of Maryland, where he had built a football dynasty in nine years. His teams there played in three bowl games. In 1953 his team was named national champion and Tatum was voted "Coach of the Year."

United States railroad payrolls totaled almost five billion dollars in 1958.

Ford Defends Coveted Yacht Trophy In Bay Duel Tomorrow

By ALFRED MATSON

Tomorrow at 12 noon two yachts will cross the starting line off the St. Francis Yacht Club and engage in a 14-mile battle for the coveted San Francisco Perpetual Challenge Trophy, considered the highest award in Pacific waters.

The race will pit two of the top sailors of the Bay Area, John Ford, in the role of defender for the Sausalito Y.C., and Jake Wosser, the San Francisco Y.C.'s challenger. The race will be in boats of the IC class. Ford will tiller the Norena, ably aided by his veteran crew of Willard Gilson, "Heinie" Bigall, Commodore Fred Crawford and Rowland Whitaker. Wosser will skipper his own boat, Rutsan, and will look to Frank Duhme, Ritchie Owen, Roy Ashley and John Rumsey to aid him in unseating the champion of the past four years.

A large fleet of spectator boats will follow the race, for the shoreside viewers the contestants' numbers are Norena, 75, and Rutsan, 79 and are so indicated on their mainsails and spinnakers.

The perpetual challenge trophy, a time-worn silver mug of Victorian design, was initially the object of a race back in 1895 between the El Sueno of the Encinal Y.C. and the Queen, the challenger of the SFYC. The defending club emerged the winner in that race and again the following year, but in the years to come the trophy found many and widely separated homes.

In 1907 the yatchsmen of southern California made their first bid, but were defeated. Undaunted, during the next 40 years, 11 more such quests were equally as fruitless; in 1949 their efforts were finally rewarded when the Hanahuli of the Los Angeles Y.C. defeated the "Dream" of the SFYC In the next four years as many challengers went south. The first three were defeated, but the fourth was not to be denied. Dennis Jordan, now commodore of the St. Francis Y.C. was the hero.

NEXT WEEK has been designated "Mercury Week," may-be not by the President or even Governor but it still is, to the Mercury class racers of the far west. There will be four days of racing—Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, with a double feature on Thursday.

All contests will be sailed in the Richardson Bay-Racoon Strait area and are sponsored jointly by the San Francisco, Sausalito and Corinthian clubs.

MULTIHULLS VIE TOMORROW

A dozen of the nation's fastest multihull sail boats will participate in the Pacific Coast Multihull Championship Regetta tomorrow on Richardson Bay and Sunday off the San Francisco Marina starting at 11 a.m. each day. Typical of the speedy craft will be the 20-foot tri Maran Caper (above), piloted by owner-builder Fred Jukich of Mill Valley.

BOWDRY FIGHT

Big Money Ahead For Sixto If...

Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo has appeared in San Francisco rings five times as a pro, but his match against highly-regarded Jesse Bowdry at the Civic Auditorium, Thursday, July 30, will be his first main event in this city.

The 22-year-old California state light heavyweight champion, who lost only one in 23 bouts, will be on the road to bigger money matches if he can get over the hard-hitting St. Louis fighter.

"We can get a lot of work for Sixto," said Matchmaker Bennie Ford of the San Francisco Boxing Club. "The light heavyweight division is rich in talent and Rodriguez can make some big money by staying right here at home."

Rodriguez had his first pro fight in the old San Francisco Gardens in June, 1956, stopping Ted Juarez in three rounds. This was shortly after he won the Golden Gloves middleweight title and lost in the finals of the National Tournament at Boston.

In subsequent local appearances, Kid Sixto won decisions over Billy Ricks, Tommy Villa, Joe Neal and Ted Martin.

Bowdry, recent winner over Tony Anthony in a nationally televised bout, arrives in San Francisco tomorrow for his first appearance on the west coast.

He is the fourth-ranked light heavyweight contender, according to Ring Magazine. Only Yvon Durelle, Harold Johnson and Erich Schoppner are rated ahead of him for Archie Moore's 175-pound crown.

His most recent success was a decisive triumph over Tony Anthony last month in a nationally-televised bout.

The 20-year-old midwesterner had 20 kayo wins to his credit.

Rodriguez is unranked nationally.

Assistant matchmaker Mario Spampinato has paired Willie Anderson, Bowdry's stablemate, in a six round semi-final match with Johnny Payne, San Francisco. They are middleweights.

In other supporting bouts, all four-rounders, Bill Pate, Oakland meets Fred Roots, Stockton, middleweights; Luke Souza, San Luis Obispo, faces Joe Fano, San Francisco, middleweights, and Julio Lau, San Francisco, mixes with Joe Vargas, Stockston, featherweights. Another four will be added.

Crucial Tilt In S.R. Little League

Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop, boasting a 6-1 win-loss record, meets Cerutti Brothers (5-2) tonight to determine the second half championship of the San Rafael American Little League. KTIM will broadcast the crucial game at 6 o'clock.

T and B defeated the Kiwanis, 8-5, Wednesday while Cerutti demained in contention with a 13-9 win over the Elks. The Cerutti team won the first half championship with a 6-2 record.

Smoke But No Fire

STERLING, Ill. (AP) — Where there's smoke there is fire didn't prove out for Sterling firemen who chased a smoking truck down the street. The truck had blown a head gasket and the engine was burning oil.

BIG UPSET IN DRAKE LEAGUE

Cox and Co. quintet made its first victory of the season a big one last night by knocking off the previously-undefeated Quality Liquors team, 40-35 in the Drake Summer Basketball League.

Bill Gallagher scored 15 points and Ron Good added 10 to pace the big upset. Joe McGrath tanked 14 for Quality.

In other games the Giacomini cagers downed Pinky's Pizza, 42-36 and Billings and Hutchison remained undefeated with a 42-32 decision over Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop.

High scorer of the night was Phil Vukicevich of Billings-Hutchison with 16 markers.

Playoffs Tomorrow In Fairfax League

Adams and Watt, winner of the second half of the Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow Little League, will meet the Medicinmen, winners of the first half, at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Fairfax City Park Field to determine the champion of the minor National League.

The victor of this game will then meet the winner of the Fairfax minor American League the following Saturday.

I-J Scribes Connolly, Hanley Hash Over Antonelli Flareup

By JOHN J. CONNOLLY

The Johnny Antonelli "brannigan" could bring about many changes in press relations between players and newsmen.

What Antonelli had to say about the "wind" didn't rate an inch of copy in any fishwrapper. But because he happened to be going after his 15th victory of the year, and because he has had a couple of other brushes with newsmen, the Giant southpaw winds up apologizing—and with his tongue in cheek.

There are many prima donnas in baseball and it so happens that Antonelli is one of them. He's young, tall, dark, and handsome and likes to strut.

Undoubtedly he popped off without thinking. And the aftermath of his folly is likely to bring about a new deal in press relations.

The late John J. McGraw of the Giants had one press conference daily. After that you couldn't talk to him, enter the clubhouse, or discuss anything with him until the next day.

For years in Coast League baseball, the managers of both teams stopped in the press room after the game to answer questions and the managers spoke for their players.

It worked out pretty good and, until the Giants invaded minor league territories, no baseball reporter ever had the audacity to question either winning or losing pitcher AFTER a contest.

BUT TODAY the same guy who started the whole rumpus —Antonelli—was the first to get into a beef with a "minor league reporter."

Antonelli, when he came to S. F., thought nobody but a New York reporter meant a thing. He found out soon, and the press gang in S. F. forgave and forgot the insult he was alleged to have made.

Now we find Antonelli is in the midst of a flare of temperament.

Antonelli, and all the rest of the so-called New Yorkers transplanted in S. F., should be told of that long before they came west the gang out here were okay guys.

San Francisco and the far west sent more good ball players to the big leagues than Antonelli can mention.

And San Francisco sent up better southpaw pitchers than Antonelli.

BUT SOONER than rave about Antonelli being a stuck-up kid, the press ought to forget him completely. What he said about San Francisco and the wind in the heat of argument was what he really, down deep, thought. And if that is what he thinks, then it is my firm belief he should be given a good cooling off, press-wise, fan-wise, and public-wise.

Apologies are hard to give and show the traits of sportsmanship. But this is Antonelli's second offense and the law doesn't always smile on a guy after he has made two mistakes.

ANTONELLI'S FRIENDS and many of the Giant brass were really surprised at the Babe Pinelli story about cry-baby ball players. In fact when when I met Walter Mails he chided me for defending Pinelli.

And then along comes Antonelli and his display of temper to prove how right Pinelli was.

Sad Sam Jones did the same thing, only worse and more of it at Los Angeles when he was "robbed" of a no-hitter.

But sooner or later the big leaguers pioneering major league baseball in the west should be told that the Indians left the west many years ago. In fact it is no cinch that the big leaguers have created any improvement of the breed.

So if Antonelli and the other cry-baby Giants feel S. F. is a poor place to work for top wages, they should be given the train, bus, or plane schedules and take off.

By JACK HANLEY

Much ado about Johnny Antonelli's comments after he lost that ninth inning 3-2 decision to the Dodgers might have given the impression that Johnny is a sorehead—and a popoff sorehead, at that.

After a restful night's sleep, Johnny undoubtedly was a little startled to read what he had said. He did not deny saying it, but wished he could recall the harsh remarks — or, at least, wished that the dressing room reporters had tempered his comments.

As honest and meticulous reporters they quoted Antonelli verbatim—except one of his comments about Seals Stadium. One writer said Antonelli called it an "unmentionable" place, explaining "only John did not say 'unmentionable.'"

Now, we have a pretty good idea of the word Johnny used although we were not present at the time, being busy writing the spot story of that game while the dressing room interview was in progress.

It is a word that virtually all ball players use time and again in describing displeasure of anything not precisely to their liking.

The writer who used the word "unmentionable" as a substitute for the one Antonelli employed left a wide area of doubt as to just what kind of language the gentlemanly southpaw uses when angry. There was even a greater gap left by other writers who just used blanks.

Because Antonelli's verbal blast about Seals Stadium winds has been quoted and requoted with some ear-burning and cursing prefixes supposedly used by him, we thought the record should be set straight.

We never heard Antonelli curse. Neither have his teammates. We mention this only to clarify the record and not to indulge in any discussion of right or wrong morals.

THE EXTREMELY sensitive San Francisco press felt so righteous in its umbrage at Antonelli's remarks that even editorial writers took a couple of potshots at the southpaw pitcher. One editorial writer, obviously with no knowledge whatsoever of how emotionally low a pitcher feels after losing a four-hitter, chastised Johnny severely—even suggesting that Horace Stoneham send him to a windless ball park. How silly can you get?

Antonelli may not be a suave diplomat in defeat. The pitcher who is an "I-don't-care-guy" is not worth his salt. They're all soreheads — but only temporary popoff soreheads—when they lose four-hitters by one run.

Dutch Ruether during spring training this year was reminiscing about some of his pitching duels, when a writer interrupted him to ask how he felt after losing a 1-0 decision and he said:

"You don't want to talk to anyone—not even your wife. In fact, you'd like to kick her."

Larrupin' Leo grossed an 81 in the 18-hole medal handicap test and with a 15 handicap netted 66 to gain a three-stroke victory in the Championship Flight.

San Anselmo fireman Al Colombo, playing in the foursome directly behind Clausen, staged a dramatic chase and threatened to overhaul Leo before fading on the final holes. Colombo finished with a net 69.

Two low handicappers—Bobby Brossier and Milt Moreley—tied for third at 71 net, Brossier with six handicap strokes Morely with four.

74 BY JAKOBSEN

Best actual score of the day was turned in by young Tom Jakobsen of San Anselmo, star of the University of Oregon's links team. He carded a 74. Other creditable gross cards were Morley and Byron Eggleston with 75s, Howard Mead with a 76, Brossier, T. Dixon and Larry Callan with 77s, Vern Gilstrap with 78 and H. Lawrence with 79.

Mead, of Equitable Insurance Co., won the Mayor's Flight with a net 60, followed by Bob Russell of Corte Madera with a 69.

The Hub City Flight was captured by little Frank Sampietro of the Marin Golf Club with his 61. Myron Spencer of San Rafael was second, two strokes back.

San Anselmo Police Officer John Orr and real estate salesman John Greisen tied for the Red Hill Flight title at 58. Orr shot a 111 and got 53 handicap strokes. Greisen had a 39 handicap to help his 97 gross.

BRUCE TOP GUEST

George Bruce of Fairfax walked off with Guest Flight honors with 106-37—69 while there was an interesting tie for second between Callan, of San Rafael, who fired a nifty 77, and Jesse Carlton of Sausalito, who grossed 126. The former had a six handicap and the latter 55 to net 71.

Chairman John Bell reported this tournament the best in the history of the popular event.

HERE'S WHEN A VOLKSWAGEN MAKES SENSE

WHEN YOU BUY IT, you pay only $2055. A Volkswagen Panel Truck gives more payload (1830 lbs.) and more capacity (170 cu. ft.) than trucks costing $300 to $700 more. You save right at the start!

WHEN YOU LOAD IT, you load through wide, double side doors and a wide rear door. This means faster, smoother deliveries even on crowded, traffic-heavy streets. Doors on both sides are optional . . . so are split seats.

WHEN YOU DRIVE IT, you get the handling ease and maneuverability of an automobile. A Volkswagen turns sharper, climbs easily, delivers all the speed you need with the famous VW air-cooled rear engine.

WHEN YOU PARK IT, you park in places that usual trucks can't tackle. (What's more important to a delivery vehicle?) A Volkswagen Panel Truck is 3 feet shorter than standard automobiles.

WHEN YOU FUEL IT, you save money. A Volkswagen uses regular gas. It delivers twice the miles per gallon of usual ½-ton trucks. A Volkswagen makes even small deliveries economical.

WHEN YOU SERVICE IT, you'll find fast, expert service and genuine VW spare parts in every one of the 50 states. Come in and see the Volkswagen Panel Truck today. Nothing else like it.

Missing Society Girl Found Unharmed, Tells Of Kidnap

Says Two Armed Men Abducted Her At Airport

MANAGES A SMILE — Jacqueline Gay Hart, 21, Short Hills, N. J., socialite, tries to smile as she tells police in Chicago of her abduction Wednesday from a Newark, N. J., parking lot. She was found wandering in a Chicago park today. The left side of her face is bruised. (AP Wirephoto)

CHICAGO (UPI)—New Jersey society girl Jacqueline Gay Hart, 21, was found hysterical and incoherent, but apparently unharmed, early today on a downtown street, more than 48 hours after she disappeared from the Newark, N.J., airport.

She said she had been kidnaped from the brightly-lighted airport parking lot by two men who bound her, held her on an automobile floor at gunpoint and bragged "we're going to collect lots of money from your parents."

No ramson demand was received by the family, according to the girl's mother, Mrs. Laura Hart of Short Hills, N.J.

Deputy chief of Chicago detectives Howard Pierson said he had not discounted the possibility the beautiful blonde bride-to-be had had a recurrence of amnesia which affected her memory after an automobile accident two years ago.

The Chicago FBI Chief Richard A. Auerbach assigned agents to the case.

Police said when she became aware of their skepticism, Miss Hart offered to take a lie detector test to back up her story. There was no immediate decision as to whether it would be given her.

The girl's father, Ralph A. Hart, executive vice president of the Colgate-Palmolive Co., left Newark airport at 8:19 a.m. aboard a Capital Airlines plane that was due in Chicago at 11 a.m. Hart was accompanied by Miss Hart's fiance, Stanley Noyes Gaines, 25.

"Daddy, I'm scared," Miss Hart told her father by telephone. "Come and get me."

Shortly after 6 a.m. she roused enough to pose for pictures and to talk briefly to newsmen. Her hair was combed, and she smiled wanly for photographers, but a tear crept down her cheek occasionally.

"I feel fine," she said. "I'd rather not talk about it right now."

She said she was not molested in any way, but she had suffered bruises of the arms. She had a small red mark on the left side of her forehead and bruises on her arms were visible.

Miss Hart insisted she got no description of the men who she said abducted her, nor had she any idea what their car looked like.

Fact-Finders Probing Steel Strike For Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Squads of government fact-finders concentrated today on steel strike data to provide President Eisenhower with the most exhaustive survey of its kind ever made.

As the strike moved into its 10th day, periodic reports were being sent to the White House by federal experts as soon as they were completed.

$100 MILLION LOST

The half-million striking steelworkers already have lost nearly 100 million dollars in pay. About 10 million will be added to the wage loss each day the strike continues.

With about 90 per cent of the nation's steelmaking at a standstill, daily production losses were estimated at nearly 43 million dollars. Losses also were mounting in allied fields where an estimated 45,500 workers have been furloughed.

MONDAY MEETING

Federal mediators have scheduled a meeting Monday in New York, the first joint session since the strike began.

What are the prospects for settlement? Not very bright, according to Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

"I still see no early or easy settlement," Finnegan told reporters. The fact that both sides will again sit down together does not imply any change in the position of either, he said.

But he added: "We feel we now have a better orientation on the differences between the two sides."

Teamster Lawyer Didn't Offer Bribe, Crum Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bartley C. Crum says he did not mean to imply in sworn testimony that Edward Bennett Williams, a Teamsters Union attorney, had offered him a bribe.

Crum, a New York lawyer, filed a statement Thursday with the Senate Labor-Management Committee saying his relations with Williams had been on the highest professional level.

In testimony to the committee July 13, Crum said Williams told him the Teamsters would pay the fees of Godfrey P. Schmidt as a court-appointed monitor for the union if Crum did not testify to the committee.

But in his statement Thursday Crum said he wanted the record to show that no inference should be drawn from his testimony about a conversation with Williams that the payment of Schmidt's fees hinged on Crum's not testifying.

Crum said there was no foundation whatsoever for an inference that Williams in effect offered a bribe.

Crum has represented Schmidt in Schmidt's efforts to collect $28,000 in fees from the union for his monitor services. Schmidt recently resigned as one of the three Teamsters monitors.

Williams told the committee July 13 that Crum's statements about him were completely false. Thursday Williams told a reporter Crum's testimony "was false and this is his way of conceding it, as far as I am concerned."

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), committee chairman, said Crum's new statement emphasizes the necessity for the Justice Department "to pursue the matter with a view of determining who committed perjury and to prosecute the guilty and vindicate the innocent."

SMOKE SIGNAL INVITE

Indians Hold Pow-Wow Atop New Skyscraper

NEW YORK (AP) — It took a canny eye indeed to interpret the smoke signals rising from the 40-story teepee in the city's financial district.

But the redskin construction workers and the paleface press agents got the word.

A party of braves sent up the signals yesterday after bolting the last beam in place atop the steel structure of a new building.

They said they wanted to invite some tribesmen, working a block away, for a celebration.

Publicity pow-wow? By no means, protested the Indians. And a group of press agents, who had shown up for no clear reason, heartily agreed.

One of the braves cranked a riveter's forge on top of the new structure and sulphur was thrown on the coals.

The smoke was beautiful, but a brisk wind broke up the clouds and mixed them into larger billows from a nearby power plant.

Nonetheless, and to no one's astonishment, the other Indians started arriving immediately and there was friendly drinking of toasts all around.

Working on tall buildings is old stuff for many of Manhattan's Mohawks. They're good at it because, they claim, they don't suffer from the usual white man's fear of high places.

Youth Admits Burglary In Terra Linda

A 16-year-old San Rafael boy confessed yesterday he stole $32.50 in cash and $281 in checks from a Terra Linda doctor's office Tuesday night.

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer assigned to the case Inspector William Bradley, Identification Chief Earl Cummesky, and Deputy Arthur Leal. They traced the youth through fingerprints on glass louvers.

The youth told officers he went to the office of Dr. Ralph W. Jacobs at 416 Hickory lane between 10 and 11 p.m. Tuesday. After he had removed three of four louvers, he heard someone approach and he left. He later returned to finish the job, taking out the fourth louver and creeping inside.

The boy said he had been to the office with another person about a year ago and remembered where the money was kept.

He told officers he destroyed the checks and spent most of the cash on his car. He works as box boy at a local market.

The young thief told Inspector Bradley he carefully wiped his fingerprints off the cabinet inside the office and thought he had wiped the prints off the glass louvers also.

Zone Change For Land In Novato Asked

William and Irene Nave of Novato have petitioned the county planning commission for a change from limited agricultural to retail commercial zoning of a small parcel of land near Center road and South Novato boulevard in Novato.

A planning staff spokesman said the change would "fill out" a section that naturally lies within such a zoned area. The parcel is located to the rear of two parcels zoned commercial that front on Center and on South Novato boulevard.

The petition will be given a public hearing at 2 p.m. Aug. 3 at 1711 Grand avenue, San Rafael.

Subdividing Up, State Reports

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Division of Real Estate announced recently that subdivision filings are 38 per cent above the volume filed last year.

The record year for subdivisions was 1955, when 3,411 tracts were filed. The department estimates that about 3,000 new tracts will be started this year.

Truck Safety Measure Signed

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed bills requiring safety devices on truck brakes and requiring diesel engines to be manned with a fireman as well as an engineer.

The brake bill requires that a safety device approved by the Highway Patrol be installed on trucks equipped with air brakes. The device should bring the truck to a controlled stop in case of air pressure failure.

The diesel engine bill extends the present so-called "full crew law" to cover diesels as well as steam engines.

AT A RECENT rehearsal for the Northgate Fashion Luncheon to be held July 29 at the Marin Art and Garden Center sponsored by Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., and the Humane Society, the youngsters who attended with their mothers had great fun making friends with a Golden Retriever pup . . . but once the women finished rehearsing, guess who got the pup? Pictured, left to right, are waitresses for the affair, Mesdames W. James Dawson, George Fernbacher and S. K. Herzog Jr.

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS of most volunteers is how to crowd more hours into every week. Maybe that was why Mesdames Myron Du Bain, Henry Hillebrand III and Walter Meinberger, left to right, were so intrigued with the Lambretti scooter used by a co-worker. The three women, who devote many hours to Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., will model at the second Northgate Luncheon. Tickets for the popular summer series are by reservation only.

NO DOUBT, IN ANOTHER 10 years things will be different. Scott and Fore Dawson, left to right above, weren't the least interested when their mother, Mrs. W. James Dawson and other attractive young women practiced for the Northgate luncheon. As everyone "ohed and ahed," the boys quietly sneaked out for an impromptu luncheon under the trees.

Marin Women

Nautical Activity Planned By Scouts Marin Yacht Club

The Girl Scouts are sponsoring a nautical activity program at the Marin Yacht Club. Mrs. Robert O'Connell is the director, assisted by Mesdames Joseph Nunes, Charles Lavaroni, Robert Laufer, and John Curtin.

Two professional consultants have been used—Mrs. Charles Geller and Lieut. Mahon. Mrs. Geller took the girls on an exploration trip along the beach. Lieut. Mahon, U. S. Coast Guard, visited and spoke on the rules and regulations of small craft.

Girls are learning to row boats, how to read tide and weather charts, make knot belts, and perfect their swimming strokes. The two week class has the following girls enrolled: Shelley Anton, Diane Ferrier, Jackie Newman, Janet Rigsbee, Kerry Warnock, all of Kentfield; Elizabeth Brennan, Ignacio; Gail Coulter, Susan Empio, Linda Sparrow, Novato; Dorothy Fleming, Linda Graver, Cynthia Hurley, Mill Valley; Susan Gabbs, Jeanne Garner, Joan Garner, Carolyn Zeiss, Ross, and Nancy Mann, Marie Rundberg, Madelon Walsh, San Rafael.

Reed P-T Club Has Contributed More Than $20,000 On Projects

With pardonable pride the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club is announcing that over the past six years it has raised and spent more than $20,000 on school and community projects. Included in this impressive figure are such items as contributions to KQED, the Bay Area Educational TV channel; petty cash to each teacher for use for miscellaneous classroom needs and a sizeable contribution of over $10,000 for outdoor planning including landscaping and equipment.

Outdoor planning, which has been the club's major emphasis for the past several years has been pointed toward creating atttractive and useful settings for the schools. Under the direction of a committee, outdoor classrooms have been constructed at the Reed School, gardens planted, and the entrance made more attractive through use of planters. Future plans call for black-top and turf on the playground.

During the past year a rock retaining wall has been built at the Tiburon School and at the Belvedere School a large play area was paved, a windbreak built, and a charming mural added to the wall at the kindergarten play yard. This area is now known as "The Mural Room."

One of the most rewarding activities of this committee was the establishment of a tree nursery behind the Reed School. Over a year ago, 2,000 six-inch seedlings were planted. Today they are nearly four feet high and are valued conservatively at $4,000.

When construction at the Bel Aire School is completed, the committee will proceed with plans which have been drawn up by a landscape architect. Meanwhile fathers have been contributing a great deal of time in building planting boxes and walls. Many of the trees from the nursery will be used at this school.

MAJOR PROJECT

During the past year the Club has taken on another major project — books and libraries. This includes acquisition, processing, disposition, plus the stimulation of reading for both children and adults. The Club even entered the publishing field briefly.

Early in the year the Club set a goal of $1,100 to be raised for school libraries. This was easily met from the proceeds of the annual Valentine Dance, and a library committee was appointed to unify the efforts of the several schools in establishing libraries. Selection of the books was left entirely to the school administration.

BOOK FAIR

In November the Fourth Annual Book Fair was held and, as usual, was tremendously successful. Profits of $750 were allocated to the four District schools. It is of interest to note that $3,200 worth of books were sold to the children and adults who attended the Fair. As an additional stimulus to reading, contests were held in prose, poetry and art.

In conjunction with the Belvedere Nursery school, the Club held a Book Drive with special plea for National Geographic magazines. These were bound in pamphlet form by subject for the libraries. In addition, 300 books suitable for the school libraries were received; 100 were sent to Redwood High School library and many more to the County library.

2,000 BOOKS

With the profits from the previous Book Fairs and a donation from the school district, $4,685 has been made available for books. Through the efforts of the committee nearly 2,000 books are ready to be circulated and several hundred more are still to be processed.

As a result, a full time professional librarian is to join the Reed District staff next year and libraries will be operating in all four District schools.

A brief entry into the publishing field resulted in the printing of "Shark Point—High Point," history of the Tiburon Peninsula written by the Reed School eighth graders. The project was started in 1953 when an eighth grade language assignment resulted in such interesting material that the class mimeographed, bound in book form, and sold 200 copies. A later class re-edited the volume and sold more copies. This year the third edition was underwritten by the Club and printed professionally and beautifully in time to keynote the Book Fair. An enlarged historical map of the area was also published and sold.

But the $20,000 has gone for other things over these past years. Included are stage equipment, audiometer, and radio-phonographs for classrooms, informational material for tax and bond elections, school assemblies, summer recreation programs, youth group sponsorship, and improvement of teachers' rooms. On a county level, the group contributed to the formation of a Marin County child guidance clinic, special class for orthopedically handicapped children, the Junior Museum, and the Marin County P-TA Scholarship Fund.

FUND RAISING

But all contributions have not been monetary. The Club has sponsored productions of the San Francisco Players' Guild, classes in Red Cross swimming in cooperation with the Southern Marin Recreation Center, hobby shows, spring carnivals (fun raising as well as fund raising) and welcoming luncheons and room mother service for the teachers. The Club has participated in the Marin County Educational Conference and the County Recreation Conference and has sponsored a polio clinic and a well baby clinic.

In addition, at general membership meetings, such speakers have been presented as Mrs. Kathleen Norris, noted California author, and Miss Helen Heffernan, chief of the Bureau of Elementary Education of the State of California.

The Club is also one of the five member organizations of the Village Salvage Shop from which it received over $1,200 during the past 12 months.

The earliest predecessor of the present club was the Tiburon Mothers' Club which was founded in 1925. In 1950 this group joined with the Belvedere Mothers' Club (founded 1930) to become the Reed Mothers' Club. In 1957 the group was incorporated as the Reed District Parents Club, and during the past year the name was officially changed to the Reed District Parent Teacher Club. During its 34 years the Club has continued to devote its efforts to promoting the welfare of the children of the district.

ST. SEBASTIAN'S

Virginia Molinari Weds Louis Rossi

In a recent nuptial mass at high noon at St. Sebastian's Church in Greenbrae, Virginia Molinari, daughter of Mrs. Roy Traverso of San Anselmo and the late Joseph B. Molinari of San Francisco, became the bride of Louis Rossi of Ross.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Rossi of Ross.

The Rev. Thomas O'Kane, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Church in San Francisco, was the officiating minister.

When the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Paul Molinari of San Francisco and San Anselmo, she wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with portrait neckline with delicate Alencon lace applique and seed pearls at the neckline and sleeves. The full princess line skirt extended into a chapel sweep train. Her coronet of wax blossoms and seed pearls caught the fingertip length silk illusion veil. She carried a mother-of-pearl missal centered with white orchids.

Sandra Maxwell of Larkspur as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Nancy Richards and Dione Chenoweth of San Jose and Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority sisters of the bride wore identical gowns of shell pink silk organza designed with scoop necklines, short sleeves and full skirts. They wore bow-trimmed bandeaux of pink silk and carried white missals centered with pink roses and forget-me-nots.

Stephen Schwarz of Los G tos was best man. Ushers i cluded Stephen Granville o Kentfield, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Ray Luce of Terra Linda.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Traverso wore a dress of sand silk chiffon with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose an ashes of roses silk taffeta dress covered with silver grey lace.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Traverso home on Brookside drive.

The bride was graduated from St. Rose Academy in San Francisco, Sir Francis Drake High School and San Jose State College. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Bugna of San Anselmo are her maternal grandparents.

The bridegroom, who has one sister, Mrs. Stephen Granville of Kentfield, is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and Stanford University. He is employed as an electrical engineer in San Francisco. John Bevilacqua of St. Helena and Mrs. Louis Rossi of San Francisco are his grandparents.

Use Rich Creams To Repair Damage Of Summer Sun

Hot summer winds and sun can play havoc with your complexion. If this is your problem, beauty experts recommend that you forego washing your face with soap and water for a few days.

Instead, cleanse the face and neck with rich creams. Use cream lavishly, letting it "set" for a few minutes so that it soaks into the pores. Then wipe it off thoroughly with a Kleenex tissue.

Use plenty of tissues so that only clean, soft material touches your skin. This will help avoid unsightly skin blemishes.

Date Advice

Dates should be rolled in flour before they are cut. Then the slices will not stick together, nor will they cling to the scissors. The flour used should be a part of that called for in the recipe.

Table Server Cartons Aid Chin 'Wipe-Ups'

Those backyard watermelon feasts you give this summer can be a no-work occasion for you, too. Simply set out a sharp knife with which to slice the icy melons and an open box of paper napkins to use as chin and hand wipers.

The handy dispenser boxes of Kleenex table napkins that divide into two Table Server cartons are especially convenient for this purpose.

CAROL CLARK, BOB DEROSA ENGAGED

Engagement of Carol Ann Clark and Robert De Rosa was announced recently at a family dinner party given by her foster parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Geister of San Rafael. No wedding plans have been made by the young couple.

Bob, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank DeRosa of San Rafael, is a graduate of Marin Catholic High School and is entering his second year at College of Marin. He is the brother of Jerry and Dede DeRosa.

Little Extra Care Will Prolong Life Of An Orchid

You can save that special orchid corsage for at least one more day with just a little extra care.

First, unwind the florist tape from the stems. Then place the stems in a glass of water and store in the refrigerator — not the freezer compartment, however. Too cold.

When you're ready to wear them again, blot the water from the orchid stems with a Kleenex tissue and enjoy their beauty again on your dress, coat, your wrist or in your hair.

LITTLE ROUNDUP

Girl Scouts At Sugarpine Tour Mother Lode Country

The Alternate Patrols of the Roundup of the Girl Scouts of the U. S. are camping at San Francisco's Camp Sugarpine, Calaveras County, California. The following is a letter from Maureen O'Connell of Marin County Girl Scouts, patrol scribe:

Hi Marinites!

Just a line to tell you all about the Little Roundup being held at Camp Sugarpine in the Sierra, north of Calaveras Big Trees State Park. Tuesday afternoon we arrived here to begin two weeks of camping with Girl Scouts from several different councils in California. There are 33 girls in camp divided into four patrols, the Deviled Eggs from Del Rio Council, Las Seis Extranjeras (Six Strangers) from Monterey Council, the Dogies from San Francisco, North San Mateo, and Sierra-Cascade Councils and of course the Little Fleas of the Golden Hind from Marin and Central San Mateo Councils.

Our patrol is the largest. It includes Sheila Basile, San Rafael; Pat Johnson, San Anselmo; Mary Langbehn, San Rafael, and Maureen O'Connell, San Rafael—all from Marin County, and Marion Bill, Phyllis Dykes, Joyce Mathwig, Val Ratto, Bunny Sanchez, and Stephanie Smith from Central San Mateo County. Mrs. Eugene De Brecht of Novato is the adult advisor for the patrol and nurse for the encampment.

We have been kept busy planning and carrying out several activities. Thursday night we hiked down to Calaveras Big Tree State Park for a nature hike and picnic dinner. Friday morning we left bright and early on a tour of the Mother Lodge country. We visited Murphys, Columbia, Sonora, and Angels Camp. Then we spent Saturday and Sunday welcoming visitors and showing them the different units. We are now preparing for a four day backpack trip in this area. More Little Roundup news in my next letter.

Letters From Home Are So Important

By DOROTHY Y. WHIPPLE, M.D.

Have you a youngster off in camp this summer?

Maybe it's his first experience away from home. He will most certainly want to hear how things are doing at home. He will need word from home more in the beginning of camp than toward the end when he is in the swing of camp life.

Begin to write to him at once and write to him often.

If your youngster is below 10, make very sure he is able to read what you write. Children have difficulty reading the handwriting of many adults. It is not a bad idea to print out your letters. It takes a bit longer — but then it's better to send many short letters than only a few long ones.

A few don'ts:

NO ORDERS

Don't give him a lot of instructions. Don't remind him to brush his teeth or say his prayers. The adults in charge of the camp will see to these details. Your child will not appreciate being nagged by you long distance. Don't nag him about writing to you. If there is anything wrong you will hear immediately from the camp. On the other hand, if he does write, always mention his letter when you write to him.

Tell him you miss him. No one likes to slip out of an established place and not leave a hole, but don't make him feel you are sorrowful and lonely.

Tell him little things that happen. How you forgot to stop the milk and now the milk is crowding out everything else in the refrigerator and you guess you will have to give Daddy junket for supper. "I'll bet he won't eat it up the way you do," you should add.

Talk about how neat the house is without small boys to mess it up. And you might say, "You know I looked everywhere yesterday for my scissors. I looked in your room and in the toy chest and everywhere — and where do you think I found them."

Maybe you could write him a story about some episode of his childhood that he will remember: "Once upon a time there was a little boy who had an itch when he went to bed for his nap. He scratched and he scratch and couldn't go to sleep. Finally his mommy came and put some salve on his itch. She left the tube of salve on the table by his bed. The little boy itched some more. After a while he got some more salve to soothe his bites. His hands were gooey. He rubbed them together and then he rubbed them on the wall. What a mess that little boy made!"

Your stories need not be masterpieces of literary skill to fascinate your child.

PICTURES HELP

With your stories and family episodes, draw a few pictures. You don't have to be a great artist. A few straight lines and a circle for a head are enough, just something that adds contrast and interest to a whole page of writing.

If you are really ambitious you can cut out a picture or two from a magazine and paste into your story for illustration.

Letters of this sort are the kind children away from home love to get.

Woman Artist Has Designed Paper Aprons

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—A woman artist's invention should eliminate those apron strings children frequently get tied to.

Matter of fact, Louise Pershing plans to do away with aprons as we women have known them.

The painter, a resident of New Hope, Pa., has produced a paper apron, to join the parade of disposables from tissues to towels.

"I've been giving a lot of thought to aprons," said the dark-haired Miss Pershing during a recent visit to New York. "When you have a small kitchen and a servantless home, you have to. And who can afford servants these days? I wanted to make the aprons pretty enough for the guests who offer to help the hostess."

Her thoughts, coupled with her skill as an artist, produced the disposables in three gaily-printed motifs — bandana, strawberry and ivy leaf. They are made with contoured bib and held in place with a tie-around belt.

The artist signs her paintings —and her aprons—as Louise Pershing. But in private life she is Mrs. Datus Berlin, the wife of a New York retail executive and mother of three boys — "another good reason for aprons," she laughed.

She said the idea for the disposables was a natural; getting them into production was another thing.

SWAN HAIRDO IS NEW STYLE FROM PARIS

PARIS (AP)—The Swan Hairdo, with wings of hair swept forward on the cheeks and a pure-browed look, is the season's new style from the Paris hairdressers' syndicate.

Coppery reds and silvery blondes are the two colors heavily favored by the French coiffeurs in styles shown Wednesday night in advance of next week's showing of fall and winter fashions.

The swan style sweeps a mass of hair up in a backward slant that looks almost like a high chignon. But short ends are brushed down on the nape in what used to be called a duck tail.

Now, naturally, it's a swan tail.

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — Crowds packed London fashion houses bidding to compete with the great style shows of France and Italy.

Shows were by John Cavanagh, Lachasse, Michael Sherard and Norman Hartnell, one of the Queen's dressmakers. They matched some of the trends emerging from the shows being held in Florence and in Rome last week. The pace-setting shows in Paris start next week.

The over-all impression of the British collection was a long, lean look for autumn and winter. This was produced by longer suit jackets, and in some cases, longer skirts for dresses and suits. Inches were also added by high, narrow hats and high collars.

Fur continued to be featured on suits, topcoats and even dresses.

Cavanagh showed an elegant coat trimmed and lined with pastel mink.

Last year's wide belts were cut down by several inches. Cocktail dresses by Amies, Stiebel and Creed were more covered up.

Slightly padded shoulders—but not the squared military types of early post-war years—were back at Lachasse. His jackets were longer, too.

Many hat designers seemed to get their inspiration from central Asia. Headgear worn by Tadjiks, Uzbeks, and Kalmucks were copied.

In after-dark dresses, high fronts and low backs were in fashion. Brown, black, violet, and green were the most emphasized colors.

VFW Auxiliary Dinner, Auction Planned Aug. 4

Plans were made at the recent meeting of the Auxiliary of Muir Woods Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, for a potluck dinner followed by a silent auction at the next meeting on Aug. 4 in the Mill Valley Odd Fellows Hall.

During the meeting conducted by president Mrs. Donald Comstock, senior vice president Mrs. Herbert Huffman gave a report on the department convention she and Mrs. A. J. Rometti attended in San Jose as delegates.

It was announced that Mrs. Peter Silveira has been appointed 16th District historian and 18th District installing captain.

Next event for the group was a social meeting held in the home of Mrs. Rometti.

Mrs. Ella Smith, who donates time once a week to the U.S.O. in San Francisco, reported that the organization served refreshments to thousands when the fleet came in last week.

This Lady Has Answers To Good Health

Mrs. Nell Sutcliff, well-known Nutritionist, will be in our store each day July 27th through August 1st. You are cordially invited to visit us and learn about new nutritional discoveries.

LEG CRAMPS?
Uncomfortable leg cramps can be the result of calcium deficiency, and dietary authorities recommend phosporous-free calcium to control this condition. New scientific evidence shows that calcium and phosporous should not be combined in one tablet, because phosphorous interferes with the body's absorption of calcium. Ask Mrs. Sutcliff to tell you about DYNA-CAL—the phosphorous-free calcium product—with vitamins C and D, and a special ingredient that helps to put calcium into the blood stream quicker—bringing prompt relief to cramping, calcium-starved muscles.

• POOR DIGESTION — "DYSPEPSIA" — "HEARTBURN"
Ask Mrs. Sutcliff about digestive enzymes—how they can help you stop uncomfortable symptoms of indigestion—cramps, bloating and flatulence. The DYNA-ZYME Digestive Food Supplement aids in the digestion of not one, but all three kinds of food —fat, protein, and carbohydrates.

• "REGULARITY" WITHOUT LAXATIVES
Science has discovered a new, non-laxative treatment for "dry" constipation. Not a cathartic—not a "bulk" laxative—HYDREX is an organic substance in tablet form which keeps hard, dry fecal matter soft for easy passage by permeating it with the moisture it should normally have. Non-habit forming HYDREX does not force bowel movement. It allows normal evacuation by simple, non-laxative, "moistage" action. Mrs. Sutcliff will explain.

• NON-DRUG RELIEF FROM NERVOUS TENSION
Nervous tension—anxiety—worry—sleeplessness. There's hardly one of us who doesn't occasionally feel the stress of living in this fast-moving modern day and age. Mrs. Sutcliff can tell you about a natural, harmless, non-toxic and non-habit forming herbal calmative and relaxant which brings relief from taut nerves during the day and insomnia at night. Ask her about LULL.

"INTESTINAL CONDITIONING"
In our modern-day living, there are many threats to the normal functioning of the intestinal tract. As a natural "intestinal conditioner," protopectin acts in 7 different ways to aid in the normal functioning of the gastrointestinal tract. Ask Mrs. Sutcliff for full information about CITRI-MEAT.

NEW LIFE IN OLD BLOOD—FAST
A group of scientists at Johns Hopkins University have made the amazing discovery that a single, natural food substance—sorbitol —found in fruit, when taken with vitamin B-12 and iron, greatly increases the absorption of these nutrients—gets them into the blood stream almost as quickly as "shots" by hypodermic needle. This newly discovered "absorption enhancement factor" makes it possible to use less iron which, in large doses, often causes irritation, nausea, "after-taste," and constipation. Mrs. Sutcliff will tell you more about sorbitol and HEMO-TONIC.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Let's Go Slow, Take Close Look at Youth Camp Idea

Ideal physical facilities won't necessarily make a successful youth camp.

That is, $120,000 worth of beautiful buildings on a beautiful site adjacent to Kent Lake will not necessarily solve any of Marin's youth problems.

It's how the camp is operated that makes the difference; not where it is located or how expensive are its buildings.

Some years ago the county of Marin operated an informal kind of labor camp at the former county park at Stinson Beach. County prisoners were sent out there to perform useful work under the supervision of the county park superintendent.

For some years the arrangement worked well

The park site didn't offer the world's most delightful climate in the off season and the old World War II temporary barracks buildings weren't exactly "The Ritz" in the way of accommodations.

Still the work camp did some good for the prisoners, for the most part.

The physical facilities, or lack of them, didn't have much to do with the success of the undertaking.

Now the county supervisors are pondering a $120,000 construction project that would put a camp for young wards of juvenile court up on the shores of Kent Lake.

That, obviously, is a good idea. But before the county parts with $120,000 of taxpayers' money, let's ponder the question of who is to run the camp and what assurances have we that it will be properly run.

We taxpayers handed out a considerable sum not-so-many years ago to modernize and expand the juvenile hall out in Lucas Valley.

We don't know whether the increase in the number of escapes and "incidents" out there resulted from the improved facilities or whether they were caused by other factors.

But we know we would like to see the record improved there.

And before the county goes ahead with a youth camp, we would like assurances that it will be properly run. Maybe it would be better to start a pilot camp on a test basis with much less lavish physical facilities so as to see if county employees can make a success of it, before we go "whole hog."

PENKNIFE OPERATION SAVES LIFE

Surgery by penknife in a Trenton, N. J. restaurant saved the life of a choking diner recently.

Two doctors at a nearby table noticed a man slump to the floor and begin to turn blue.

One of the doctors, a throat specialist, realized the victim was choking because his windpipe was blocked. He knew that death was imminent if emergency measures were not quickly taken.

Using a penknife and kitchen cutlery, sterilized in whisky, he cut an incision in the victim's windpipe and removed the food causing the obstruction.

Immediately the man's color began to return and he took a deep breath. Meanwhile, instruments rushed from a nearby hospital enabled the doctors to complete the operation.

Drastic measures are often necessary when life is at stake. Christ warned us to be even more daring when our eternal destiny is involved. Remember his words in the Sermon on the Mount:

"If thy right hand scandalize thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is expedient for thee that one of thy members should perish rather than that thy whole body go into hell." (Matthew 5:30)

Help me to make any sacrifice, O Lord, rather than lose You.

Looking For Inexpensive Hobby? Try Becoming Career Passenger

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are looking for a new and inexpensive hobby, why not become a career passenger?

A career passenger is a person who enjoys motoring but doesn't know how to drive a motor car — and doesn't intend to learn. He just goes along for the ride.

America has been a nation on wheels for so long now that any able-bodied person who admits he can't drive an auto is looked upon with pity, as if he suffered an affliction of some kind.

Years ago, when I first confessed in print my inability to steer a four-wheeled vehicle, I received a postcard from a reader saying:

"You abuse the right of a college graduate to be ignorant. God must have been asleep when you were born."

Actually, however, there are still millions of us career passengers, and both pity and contempt are wasted on us. We don't intend to learn to drive, because we are happy in our ignorance. We feel we get more sheer pleasure out of motoring than anyone.

The driver is tense and anxious. But traffic jams do not disturb the career passenger. He merely pulls out a newspaper or a copy of Tolstoi's "War and Peace," and reads serenely until the jam is broken. Motoring gives him no ulcers.

To be a career passenger sounds easy. But there is an art to it — as there is to any profession or hobby. Here are a few general rules to follow to become a real pro:

1. Never sit in the back seat. If you get the reputation of being a back seat driver, your career is ruined.

2. FIGHT DOWN any temptation to be helpful. If the driver hands you a road map, hold it upside down and ask cheerfully, "where to?" The driver will shake his head, take back the map and find his own way. Then if he takes the wrong road it is his responsibility.

3. Give praise, but give it judiciously — the praise a driver hungers for from his wife but rarely gets. If you can't honestly praise his driving, praise the performance of the car.

4. Don't offer to pay part of the gas or oil costs. You have done enough for the driver by listening to him and praising him.

5. IF HIS CAR breaks down, don't offer to help. Get out and hitchhike another ride.

6. Don't express appreciation for the ride.

It is the driver who should be grateful. You are perhaps the one person in the world he can feel superior to — at least while he is behind the wheel — and therefore you are filling a vital need in his life.

MacArthur Places Facts Before Public

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Mr. Henry MacArthur's column, "No Good Reason Why Public Should Pay for Railroad Featherbedding," appearing in the San Rafael Independent-Journal July 13, is a very thoughtful and logical exposition of the potential cost to the public of Senate Bill 944, passed by the California Legislature and now awaiting action by Governor Brown.

Clarification of the fact that this bill seeks to require the continuation of a featherbedding practice by law is much needed and most helpful. Certainly, as Mr. MacArthur points out, "featherbedding reaches right down into the pockets of every person in the state, and in fact, the nation."

I am personally very grateful to you and Mr. MacArthur for your public service in bringing these facts before the public, which should not have to pay for the kind of featherbedding S.B. 944 seeks to require by law.

Nixon Has Prepared Himself For Meeting Khrushchev's Arguments

WASHINGTON — There is a tendency to view Vice President Nixon's trip to the Soviet Union as either baldly political or purely an act of diplomacy — depending on where you stand. It seems to me it is neither.

The reason I say neither is that its purposes are non-political, as far as Mr. Nixon's quest for the Republican Presidential nomination is concerned, yet some of its consequences may well be very political. Whether he handles himself well or poorly, the effects can hurt or help him.

THE PURPOSES of the trip which Mr. Eisenhower initiated, are these:

To repay formally the visit which the Soviet First Deputy Prime Minister, Frol R. Kozlov, made to the U. S. to open the Soviet exhibition in New York.

To attract the maximum attendance of Soviet citizens to the American exhibition which the Vice President will open in Moscow.

To send an American representative of sufficient stature so that he will be reasonably entitled to something comparable to the television, radio,and press courtesy which we extended to Mr. Mikoyan and Mr. Kozlov — as a means of expounding American views to the Russian people.

To encourage a frank exchange of views between Premier Khrushchev and one who is President Eisenhower's most trusted right arm and who is at the center of U. S. policy formulation, as Mr. Nixon is.

THESE PURPOSES make the trip eminently useful. I am sure that the President did not weigh whether it would be good for Mr. Nixon, personally or politically, to go. He certainly intends to take a completely neutral, hands-off attitude toward the 1960 Republican nomination; no other course would be in character. But he is not going to refrain from continuing to use his Vice President significantly for fear it will look as though he were favoring him.

Mr. Nixon has prepared himself in characteristically Nixonian style. He has read a new sheaf of books. He and Mrs. Nixon have energetically acquired a beginning facility in conversational Russian. He has briefed himself on everything from outer space to the latest at Geneva. He has analyzed everything which Messrs. Khrushchev, Mikoyan, Kozlov, Gromyko, and others have been saying about America and American policy in order to be ready. He is taking talented companions with him, including the President's brother. Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of John Hopkins University, and Adm. Hyman Rickover, father of the atomic submarine and no mean conversationalist himself. He has gone over with Mr. Eisenhower and Secretary of State Herter a wide range of subjects he would be glad to discuss candidly with Mr. Khrushchev if the Soviet Premier is so minded.

Obivously Mr. Nixon wants to fulfill this mission successfully not only because it is important for the nation but also because he knows that doing well will enhance his political prestige here at home. My own conviction is that in 1960 the Presidency will go to the nominee with whom the voters best feel they can entrust the conduct of foreign policy.

MR. NIXON will have no trouble answering Mr. K's sly or wishful — I don't know which — argument to Averell Harriman that while the leaders of both parties support the President on defending West Berlin, the "workers do not."

Evidently to Mr. Khrushchev the 15 million members of the combined AFL-CIO are not "workers" because the AFL-CIO on Feb. 20 this year explicitly endorsed the government's stand on Berlin.

Evidently to Mr. Khrushchev the Socialists in 38 different countries are not "workers" because the Sixth Congress of the Socialist International, meeting in Hamburg last week, adopted a resolution calling on "all free people" to support West Berlin.

Mr. Nixon will not be one to hold back the facts.

Is Bridge Board A Rubber Stamp?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial suggesting new members of the Golden Gate Bridge Board was, in my opinion, very timely.

It is my understanding that a good newspaper constantly regards itself as attorney for its readers. I am glad to have you represent me. My commuting to San Francisco does not conform to the exact pattern laid down by the new rules of the Bridge Board. Consequently, I am paying cash tolls. The alleged commuter deduction has, in fact, become an increase for me.

Your suggestion that the Supervisors should appoint different representatives on the Bridge Board causes me to wonder, however, if this is the solution.

Recently I was told by an official of one of the political parties of Marin County (I would give you his name privately) that the general manager in fact makes the decisions. This gentleman went on to say that the general manager is "a political power and he will cut you to pieces if you criticize him." When we blame the Bridge Board, are we in fact only attacking rubber stamps rather than men with real authority?

Dull Statistical Reports May Help Supervisors Drop Off To Sleep

THE DIFFERENCES between estimated business and actual business in county departments for the fiscal year of 1958-59 were revealed to the Marin County Board of Supervisors this week by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen.

Jensen used a fancier and what might be called more "modern governmental" method of explaining what the report was all about.

"I am summarizing," he told the board, "those instances in which there were significant deviations between forecasts and actual performance for the fiscal year 1958-59 as a whole, as shown by the cumulative figures . . ."

The supervisors showed interest in only one of the sections of the report — that on the municipal court, which showed a downward trend for the last four months of the fiscal year in filings, as compared with the previous year.

A couple of the board members wondered aloud whether the planned third department of the court would be necessary.

HERE IS SOME material from Jensen's report and some comments:

Filings in the Superior Court were "substantially as predicted except probate filings" that were 14 per cent lower than forecast; criminal filings were 13 per cent higher, and juvenile filings were 13 per cent higher.

"Volume of work (in the auditor-controller office) in practically all activities was higher than anticipated, except for the inventory control program which got off to a slow start due to the necessary use of staff in other activities.

Activity in the health department exceeded the forecast, and in the probation department the "number of adult investigations . . . ran to 370, or 29 per cent more than forecast . . ."

AND SO GOES the report. No doubt much of the information will be of some value to the board of supervisors, but board members might wonder just how valuable.

Like a lot of reports that obtain statistics, it's pretty dull. And by the time one gets to the end of the report, which contains the information that the county library bought more books than planned and its total circulation increased 10 per cent, one wonders whether a board member, safely tucked in bed with volumes of other county reports to catch up on before catching up on sleep, might just nod off.

Jensen's administrative department, which turns out a pretty fair stack of written reports for the board each week, is not mentioned in the report. That department, no doubt, did not experience "significent deviations between forecasts and actual performance . . ."

But Jensen presumably is only following the orders of the board.

Perhaps the reading of these reports is stimulating, just like a nightcap before nodding off. And just maybe the only comment necessary is that the board (or at least a couple of members) registered interest only in the municipal court filings.

One would think that Jensen might have a little "administrative hearbreak" when reports are so lightly accepted.

LATIN AMERICAN UNREST—II

Caribbean Nations Blame Uprisings All On Castro

(EDITORS NOTE: Following is the second of three foreign news commentaries which deal with current unrest in the Caribbean.)

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Editor

JUST AS CUBA'S Fidel Castro served to dramatize the revolutionary spirit existing in the Caribbean, so it has become the fashion of Caribbean nations where unrest breaks out to blame it all on Castro.

Castro is the avowed enemy of the dictatorships of the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua, both of which have been the scenes of abortive uprising attempts within the last few months.

But unrest in Latin America is as many-colored as the rainbow and has as many different causes.

In some instances the hand of Moscow is apparent. The Soviet Union is making a strong bid to infiltrate Latin American economies and local communist parties, both above and below ground, are working hard to extend their influence to the government level. In the Caribbean area this applies particularly to Cuba and Guatemala.

BUT THE SEEDS of unrest lie also in these statistics:

Half of the inhabitants of Latin America are illiterate. Though two out of three make their living from the land, only five per cent of the land is cultivated. Farm productivity per man hour is less than one fifth that of the U.S.

Average food consumption is about one fifth less than in the U.S., and in some countries, one per cent of the population control 20 per cent of the wealth.

The 1950 census for Honduras, showed that only about 30 per cent of the population had shoes.

In April of this year, some 80 men made an invasion attempt on the coast of Panama. Their leader reportedly was Dr. Roberto Arias, former Panamanian ambassador to Britain and the case received initial attention because Arias' wife, famed British Ballerina dame Margot Fonteyn, was clapped into jail by the Panamanians.

Later, the Panamanian government quoted some of the captured invaders as saying they had set sail from Cuba.

The "invasion" later was dismissed as a quarrel among Panama's traditionally ruling families, and Cuba largely was absolved.

In mid-June a 112-man airborne force attempted an uprising in Nicaragua. President Luis Somoza promptly accused Castro of masterminding a "cold-blooded" plan to upset the Nicaraguan government. His brother, Army Chief of Staff Gen. Anastasio Somoza said he was braced for "communist" attacks in the future.

This month, a second attempt in the last six months was made against the government of Honduras. This, too, was dismissed as a strictly Honduran affair, led by former Army Chief of Staff Col. Armando Velasquez Cerrato. July marked the fifth such attempt by Velasquez Cerrato in four years.

BUT WHATEVER the cause whether uprisings are born from within or without, the Caribbean is seething with unrest as it has not for more than 20 years.

Next month, in Santiago, Chile, foreign ministers of 21 American states will meet to study the broad problems of "unrest in the Caribbean."

It will be the most important meeting of the OAS in its 11 years, and its problems the most delicate.

Aside from unrest brought on by poverty and economic imbalances, there will be both old and new jealousies. Cuba and Venezuela will be arrayed against the Dominican Republic, and, to a lesser extent, against Nicaragua. And, sitting at the same table, will be such as Costa Rica, Guatemala Honduras with burning memories of their own vest-pocket border wars.

(Tomorrow: The Dominican Republic and Haiti.)

Sutton School Nears Completion On Schedule

Novato's new $304,818 Lu Sutton School, under construction since Jan. 12, is expected to be finished by July 31—on schedule.

The rambling school building, on 10 acres off Center road near Crescent court, includes 12 classrooms, a kindergarten, a library, one special session classroom, and a separate building for administration offices.

It will be the only school in the Novato Unified School District without a multi-use room, but master plans for the site call for eventual construction of that addition.

The plant has been erected by Reynolds Construction Co. of Santa Rosa at a construction cost of $12.30 per square foot, $1.32 below the maximum allowable by the state, according to Eugene DeBrecht, district business manager.

Supt. William J. J. Smith has estimated the school will have an enrollment of 425 students this fall, a near-capacity number for the kindergarten-through-sixth grade school.

The school will be open to children residing in the area roughly bounded by Novato boulevard, Wilson avenue, and Indian Valley road, but excluding portions of Indian Valley road.

Local Fairs Must Justify Requests For State Funds

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday signed legislation which requiries local fairs to justify their annual request for state funds.

The bill, by Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles), eliminates the present automatic $65,000 appropriation from the state fair fund.

Under the measure, $65,000 is the maximum that may be allocated, and each local fair must justify its annual request to the state Department of Finance.

The governor said he would ask the department to "analyze carefully the requirements of each fair to assure that allocations will meet their real needs."

He said the new method of paying allocations would show a net gain to the general fund of $10,400,000 this fiscal year, mostly from accumulated funds and at least $2,300,000 a year in the future.

NEWS VIEWS

By LEON C. SMITH

It seems strange that the people who should respect the out-of-doors most are the ones who go about destroying it. It's hard to figure out why Americans who are ordinarily law-abiding citizens steal or destroy highway and park signs. Like sewing buttons on a balloon, it doesn't make sense . . . yet every year it costs us millions of dollars for the vandalism of sportsmen and tourists. Water tanks in national forests are shot up, monuments are chipped and trees are carved by folk who just don't stop to think. Now that we're right in the middle of the touring season, we might all remember that such destruction adds to taxes and may endanger lives. There certainly must be better ways to leave our mark on the world.

A local cynic says that housework may tire a woman out, but it takes a shopping spree to leave her well spent. Sure, but think of her morale. QUIZ FOR ADVERTISERS

Q. What is the most effective and economical way to present a selling message to 25,000 Marin families? CHECK ONE.

1. POSTAL CARD . . . 2. LETTER . . . 3. ADVERTISING FOLDER . . . 4. AN I-J ADVERTISEMENT . . .

A. An I-J Advertisement, by a tremendous margin.

ANALYSIS

Postal Card. We used to call it a "penny postal." That's when you could buy them at any post office for one cent each. Today a government postal costs 3c—$750 for postage alone to send a short message to 25,000 names. Engravings, printing, addressing, compiling or buying a mailing list, delivery to the postoffice, other expenses, could easily double (or triple) that figure, depending on how elaborate you make your 3c mailing card.

A Letter. This costs even more—$1,000 for postage alone if you send it first-class. Individually typed letters would, of course, be prohibitive in cost; the expense of a form letter would include costs of the paper, mimeographing or printing, filling in names if desired, envelopes, addressing, enclosing, handling expense, in addition to postage. Ten cents per name would be a low estimate. That's $2,500.

Advertising Folder. Your message, adequately presented in type and pictures, could hardly cost less than a letter — say, $2,500 — and could run to almost any amount, depending on size, colors used, etc.

An I-J Advertisement. For $750—the cost of 25,000 Postal Cards—you can present your selling message in the Independent-Journal more than 37 times, in a space (2 columns by 10 inches) larger than a postcard! No expense for mailing list, addressing, printing . . . not even for engravings, if you use the I-J's free mat service.

Or you could run TWO full page ads in the I-J for $750, giving your message tremendous impact and selling power . . . and still have nearly $100 left in your advertising kitty.

You could even have an EXTRA COLOR in one of your page ads, and still keep within your $750 budget.

CONCLUSION: To cover Marin, with your message delivered on the doorsteps of 5 out of 7 homes (an estimated audience of close to 100,000), ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY I-J!

Why Don't School Officials Oust Juvenile Delinquents?

Why are some officials so soft with hoodlum kids? I went to Washington recently. I listened to officials roast our schools. They were upset because many schools still kick out the worst of the bad kids. The officials didn't like it.

"What difference does it make," one of them asked me, "that a teen-ager lies and steals? Or sometimes hits pupils? Or even teachers? He's still a child. His teachers should be patient. I say no school ever should drop a student, no matter what he does."

Does his idea bother you? It does me. Our schools are supposed to see that the kids who want to learn have a chance to learn. One really bad high school boy can stop the education of all his classmates. Don't the good pupils have some rights? And the teachers? Should they be punching bags?

I've shared responsibility for discipline in many schools. I've learned that schools can help most of the bad kids. They should spot them early and make psychological studies. They should set up special classes, with the right sort of teachers. They should guide and discipline them. Then nearly all of them improve.

But there comes a time when the rights of the good students matter more, time when a boy who either will not or cannot improve must be removed. The welfare of the good youngsters requires it. That's my theory, and I act upon it.

Do you agree with me? Or with the officials I quoted? Is it ever right to remove a bad boy from school? Please write me in care of this newspaper. I'd be interested in learning what you think.

ALMANAC

Today is Friday, July 24, the 205th day of the year, with 160 more days to follow in 1959.

The moon is approaching its last quarter.

The evening stars are Jupiter, Saturn, Venus, and Mars.

On this date in history:

In 1679, New Hampshire became a royal colony of the British crown.

In 1783, Simon Bolivar, often called the liberator of South America, was born.

In 1847, Brigham Young and his Mormon followers arrived at Great Salt Lake valley, Utah.

In 1866, Tennessee became the first seceding state to be readmitted into the Union following the end of the Civil War.

In 1898, Amelia Earhart, pioneer American aviatrix, was born.

In 1937, the state of Alabama granted freedom to five Negro defendants in the famous Scottsboro assault case.

In 1948, Henry Wallace was nominated for President by the Progressive Party.

A thought for today: Mormon Brigham Young said about Utah: "This is the place."

WASHINGTON (UPI) — The number of Americans on public welfare rolls dropped more sharply in May than in any month since October 1950, a Social Security Administration report showed today.

They face death in the gas chamber or life imprisonment.

The jury which convicted them starts deliberations today to determine the couple's punishment.

Merriam, 36, had testified that Mrs. Brogdon, 33, showed him how to strangle the boys. Mrs. Brogdon denied it.

Marines Conquer Peak

MT. WHITNEY (AP)—"Mission accomplished" was the word sent out by the Marines when they reached the top of this second highest peak in United States yesterday after an unprecedented march from Death Valley.

Lt. Col. Henry J. Woessner led his four companies to the crest shortly after 2 p.m. one day ahead of schedule. The Stars and Stripes and colors of the 1st Division were hoisted above the 14,496-foot peak as the 200 men of the division's 1st Reconnaissance Battalion finished the march.

Thor Blasts Off

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (UPI) —An Air Force Thor thundered skyward today packing a small movie camera capable of taking pictures 300 miles above the earth.

X-Ray Pioneer Stricken

CHICAGO (AP)—Dr. Emil F. Grubbe, 84, pioneer in the use of X-ray to fight cancer, was reported in good condition today after undergoing his 92nd operation for cancer, caused by his overexposure to the rays.

The cancer was induced by X-ray burns he suffered in 1895 while he was experimenting.

Garbage Strike Ends

NORWICK, Conn. (AP)—The city's garbage men and street cleaners are back at work after a three-week strike.

HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Because the role and costume were too small, Brigitte Bardot's younger sister has turned down what would have been her first American film role.

Unionists To Prison

HENDERSON, N. C. (AP)—Eight members of the Textile Workers Union drew long prison sentences yesterday after their conviction for conspiring to dynamite a struck cotton mill.

The eight included Boyd Payton, 51, Carolinas director of the union who led the long and often violent strike at the Harriet-Henderson cotton mills here.

Wheat Quota Approved

WASHINGTON (UPI)—The nation's wheat farmers voted by a better than four to one margin to continue rigid government control over their 1960 crop, returns showed today.

Agency Executive Heads Sausalito Citizens Council

Robert E. McCabe, executive in the San Francisco office of the Housing and Home Finance Agency, has been elected president of the Sausalito Citizens Council, succeeding M. Justin Herman.

Mrs. Miriam Brecka was named vice president.

Re-elected were Fred Sumner, treasurer; Miss Laura Ross, recording secretary, and Carl Spring, corresponding secretary.

In addition to the officers, directors are Herman, Byron Mayo, H. Bowen Wands and Mrs. Kelso Norman.

The council decided to hold regular meetings on the second Tuesday of each month at 8 p.m. at the home of the president. In the past, meetings have been on call.

Zone Change Sought For Junk Yard

A woman who, county planning personnel say, has permitted a junk yard to operate on property north of Novato, has petitioned for a change of zoning, from limited agricultural to heavy industrial.

A planning staff spokesman said the petition has been filed in an effort to "legalize a violation."

The junk yard is located west of Highway 101 on property owned by Dorothy M. Hammermann. Rather than move the operation, a planner said, she has decided to seek a zoning change.

A public hearing on her petition will be heard at 2 p. m., Aug. 3 by the county planning commission at 1711 Grand avenue, San Rafael.

Godfrey Will Appear At Horse Show

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Radio-television star, Arthur Godfrey, who underwent a lung cancer operation April 30, will make his first public appearance at the Eastern States Exposition horse show in September, Edgar S. De Meyer, general chairman of the show, said yesterday.

Godfrey appeared at last year's show and, De Meyer said, was invited to return for the 1959 show long before it was known he was suffering from cancer.

Godfrey is recuperating at his Leesburg, Va., farm.

State Experts See Big 1960 For Business

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Economists for the state government predict 1960 will be a better year for business than 1959.

In a forecast of economic conditions for the future, the state Department of Finance said:

"The basic economic pattern to be assumed in 1960-61 is one involving a high level of operations without the excesses inherent in boom times, but also without the labor scarcities which have accompanied other recent periods of prosperity."

The department report added:

"Although general price levels may be slightly higher than those of the current year, serious inflation is not likely to be a factor."

The national outlook, the economic report said, is for gross production to be "somewhat above the half-trillion-dollar milestone" compared with 475 billion dollars this year.

AF Families In Need Rely On This Society

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

An airman from Hamilton Air Force Base, father of two small children, was in need of financial assistance when his premature baby had to stay on in the hospital for two months after birth.

Another airman, stationed at a remote site, was burned out of house and belongings except for what he and his wife were wearing. They needed help to replace essential personal and household items destroyed by the fire.

Both of these families received the necessary monetary help from the Air Force Aid Society, whose main support consists of voluntary contributions primarily from Air Force personnel.

The annual campaign for funds for the society begins at Hamilton on Monday and will continue through Aug. 7. General project officer for the campaign is Lt. Col. James M. Hollingsworth.

No government funds are received or used by the Air Force Aid Society, which began to operate as the official emergency relief organization of the Air Force in 1946. Emergency financial assistance to Air Force personnel and their dependents is provided through approximately 250 aid society sections throughout the world.

Individuals, military or civilian, may become members in the society by donating at least $1. Various annual and permanent memberships are available, according to different amounts of contribution. A donation may also be made as a memorial. No contribution, however, insures that the donor will receive aid. Each emergency is judged by itself.

The monies of the society are carried in a general fund, from which emergency assistance is given, and an educational fund. This latter is a memorial to the late Gen. Henry A. Arnold, and is used to assist children of Air Force personnel to get a college education or vocational training.

To prevent duplication of services which other agencies are prepared to give and to conserve resources, all possible use is made of established national, state, and local relief agencies responsible for similar services.

Aid is given in interest-free loans or outright grants, depending on the circumstances of each case.

From all requests at Hamilton last year, 149 persons received financial help from the society. Contributions at the base last year totaled about $4,700. Loans and grants were made for more than three times this amount, $14,800. More than $8,000 has been used in assistance during the first seven months of this year.

PROMOTED — John F. Schmidt, 65 Madrone avenue, San Anselmo, has been promoted to assistant cashier and assistant secretary in the bond and investment department of American Trust Co., San Francisco, it was announced by Harris C. Kirk of Ross, chairman and chief executive officer. Schmidt, a graduate of the University of San Francisco, has been with the bank since 1937.

High School Language Enrollments Mounting

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—High school students are parleyvous-ing more French, Spanish, Latin, and German these days.

The Department of Education reports enrollments in foreign language courses in the four years of high schools nearly have doubled during the period from 1951-52 to 1958-59.

Actually, the increased participation in foreign language courses is a very mild one, as total enrollments in high schools have increased considerably during that period.

The department reported 111,724 high school students were studying Spanish, French, Latin, and German in 1951-52, and this number increased to 210,806 by 1958-59. This represented an increase of 89 per cent. However, over-all enrollments for grades 9 through 12 increased 75 per cent.

The net increase in students taking foreign languages increased from 29 per cent in 1951-52 to 31 per cent in 1958-59.

Spanish by far is the most popular foreign language in California, although interest in other languages is increasing more rapidly. Enrollment figures for 1951-52 showed 78,333 students studying Spanish, 12,194 in French classes, 18,949 in Latin, and 2,248 studying German.

By 1958-59, the Spanish students had increased to 132,589, an increase of 69 per cent. However, students enrolled in German had increased to 9,004, a gain of more than 300 per cent; students in French had increased to 34,655, a gain of 102 per cent, and enrollments in Latin had jumped to 34,558, a gain of 88 per cent.

The department said 14 high schools provided classes in Russian last year, five had classes in Italian and one high school Chinese.

Trading Stamp Bills Are Signed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Two bills requiring state regulation, licensing, and bonding of trading stamp companies were signed yesterday by Gov. Brown.

The legislation by Assemblyman Gordon Winton (D-Merced) and Sen. Luther Gibson (D-Vallejo), effective July 1, 1960, also requires companies to redeem stamps for cash if book holders ask for it.

Unlicensed companies are prohibited from doing stamp business and all companies must put up bonds guaranteeing they will redeem their stamps. Any merchant proposing to discontinue use of stamps will have to post warning notice.

Marin Teacher Back From Job In Germany

A Marin high school teacher is back in his Mill Valley home after a year's tour of duty with Army dependent schools in Germany, and his elementary school teacher daughter is awaiting travel orders for a similar tour.

Charles A. Doll of 195 Buena Vista avenue returned from Karlsruhe last week with his wife and daughter, Susan.

Ready to depart for assignment somewhere in Germany is another daughter, Marilyn, who taught this year at Reed School in Belvedere.

Doll, industrial arts instructor at Sir Francis Drake High School since 1951, taught mechanical drawing and general shop at a new junior-senior high school in Karlsruhe, headquarters for Army dependent schools in Germany. He also served as junior class adviser.

One of 13 high schools for children of U.S. Army personnel stationed in Germany, the Karlsruhe school had an enrollment of 225, smaller than most because of its newness.

Doll's students gave him few problems. He said he found them more sedentary, friendlier and easier to discipline than students here.

One reason, he suggested, was their awareness that a student could earn an uncomplimentary mark for his father's record and, in an extreme case, cause the whole family to be shipped home.

Also, said Doll, the youngsters in Army families are more confined and generally do not have cars. He said the Army operates "excellent" youth programs on its German bases.

Karlsruhe is only 30 minutes from Switzerland and two hours from France. Taking advantage of this proximity, the Dolls went on many weekend and vacation motor tours.

Doll, who was on leave of absence from Tamalpais Union High School District, will resume his teaching job at Drake High next fall. Before going to Drake, he taught seven years at Tamalpais High School.

Budget Session Slated By Council In Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Town Council will continue its review of the 1959-60 town budget at an adjourned meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

The preliminary budget, prepared by town manager Arthur H. Brandow, totals $344,916. Brandow has recommended no increase in last year's tax rate of $1.48 per $100 assessed valuation.

Several minor holdover items from the council's July 6 meeting also will be taken up at the Monday session.

GREETINGS TO THE BOSS — Col. George F. Ceuleers (right) greets Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy on the secretary's arrival yesterday afternoon at Hamilton Air Force Base. Behind them are Asst. Defense Secretary James H. Douglas and Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Parker, commander of Western Air Defense Force. McElroy was vacationing on the Russian River today while his assistant went to Los Angeles to discuss new supersonic planes. (Independent-Journal photo)

LANDS AT HAMILTON

Defense Chief Enjoying Rest On Russian River

Defense Secretary Neil H. McElroy today was having "a bit of fun" on the Russian River, as his assistant, James H. Douglas, flew to Los Angeles to discuss planes that will fly three times the speed of sound.

The secretary and Douglas arrived yesterday at about 4 p.m. at Hamilton Air Force Base aboard one of the Air Force's fastest jet airliners, the VC137, the military version of the Boeing 707, after a two-hour 15-minute flight from Denver.

McElroy said he was here "mostly to have a bit of fun for a few days, but that Douglas "has a few things in mind he intends to talk over with North American Aviation in Los Angeles."

He said Douglas would discuss with North American the F108 Rapier, a two-man all-weather interceptor that will be a "Mach 3" plane, capable of flying up to three times the speed of sound.

North American disclosed this week that it is working on the highly secret F108 and the B70 Valkyrie bomber. The interceptor is expected to be ready for use in the early 1960s, and the bomber—of nearly equal speed—about 18 months later.

The two officials have been visiting Air Force bases in the Middle West, and seeing military chiefs "to let the unit commanders and their staff tell us their problems," the secretary said.

This is the first time the secretary of defense has been accompanied by all of the chiefs of staff on such conferences. "This new plane (the NC137) has made it possible to get around about twice as fast as was possible before," he explained.

Asked if he thought the national defense system was adequate, McElroy answered: "Yes. I have complete confidence in that—except for incoming missiles.

NO. 1 DEFENSE

"But," he added hastily, "the other fellow has no real capability in that line at the present time. And our number one defense is still the ability to retaliate."

McElroy was greeted by Maj. Gen. Hugh A. Parker, commander of Western Air Defense Force; Col. George F. Ceuleers, Hamilton Base commander, and Col. Byron O'Niel, director of operations for WADF.

"I plan to leave for Washington Monday by private plane with a friend," said McElroy. "I don't yet know which airfield we'll leave from."

2,000 MILES AN HOUR

At a report by Air Force Gen. Thomas White, chief of staff, before a Senate Armed Services Committee last January, it was revealed that the F108 will be capable of cruising at 2,000 miles per hour, will be constructed of stainless steel instead of the conventional aluminum and will carry guided missiles with nuclear warheads.

An Air Force pamphlet describing the F108 states that the plane will be capable of launching an atomic missile 1,000 miles away from its base and be back on the ground within 30 minutes.

Camera Rides Into Space

CAPE CANAVERAL, Fla. (AP) — A tiny camera was fired 1,700 miles over the Atlantic in the nose cone of a Thor missile today and was recovered from the sea two and one-half hours later.

The Air Force announced that a C54 search plane spotted the nose cone in the water off the island of Antigua and directed the recovery ship Lima to the location.

The Lima hoisted the nose cone aboard. The camera rode in an 18-inch data capsule placed in the cone.

The capsule also contained a small tape recorder and other instruments to register the effect of the tremendous heat encountered by the nose cone as it plummeted back through the earth's atmosphere from a height of 300 miles.

It was learned the camera was designed to photograph the separation of the nose cone from the rocket 125 miles above the earth.

A similar experiment was successful last May.

Vista Point Center Plan Moves Ahead

Plans for establishing a Redwood Empire tourist information center at Vista Point in Marin County moved a step forward yesterday with the appointment of a four-man committee to discuss the type and size of building and the financing of it.

The committee was appointed at a meeting of a special committee of the Redwood Empire Assn. Executive board.

The special group met in San Francisco, and appointed Richard Shirley of the Marin Visitors Bureau; Walter Castro, chairman of the Marin County Board of Supervisors; George G. Hoberg of Lake County and F. T. (Gary) Garesche of San Francisco.

Castro was named chairman.

Vista Point, north of the Golden Gate Bridge alongside Highway 101, commands a striking view of the Bay Area, and is government property under lease to the state with the bridge district and the Division of Highways holding an easement.

Erection of an information center would be subject to final approval of the 6th Army, the highway division and the bridge district.

Nixon, Khrushchev Exchange Bitter Barbs In Public Debate

Russ Get Anti-War Warning

MOSCOW (AP) — Vice President Richard M. Nixon told an audience of Russians and American here tonight "no nation in the world is strong enough to issue an ultimatum to another without running the risk of self-destruction."

In a speech at ceremonies opening the U.S. exhibition here, Nixon said the United States wants "not peace by ultimatum but peace by negotiation."

EXPLAINS EXHIBIT

Nixon's speech was a point-by-point catalogue of how Americans live and an explanation to the Russians of the things they would see in the fair.

He dealt with questions raised in the Soviet press about unemployment, strikes and racial discrimination in the United States and argued that the United States, as the world's largest capitalist country, has come closest to the Marxist idea of prosperity for all in a classless society.

POPULAR GOVERNMENT

Nixon told his audience the United States has true popular government, that Soviet radio broadcasts can be heard daily without American jamming and that the United States is not attempting to force its form of government on anyone else.

"We cannot and should not gloss over the fact that we have some great differences," he said. "We must consistently strive to see those differences discussed and settled at the conference table and not on the battlefield.

"Our leaders must exercise the greatest restraint, patience and understanding in their actions and their statements. They must do nothing that might provoke a war that no one wants."

One or another country may have better weapons at a particular time, Nixon continued, but that is no advantage because "the nation which starts war today will destroy itself."

Hot Words Fly During Tour Of U.S. Exhibit

MOSCOW (AP) — U. S. Vice President Richard M. Nixon told Soviet Premier Nikita Khrushchev face to face today, in a rough and tumble public debate, it would "be a great blow to peace" if the Geneva conference were allowed to fail.

Nixon traded barbed comments with the Soviet leader while escorting him through the American exhibition in Moscow's Sokolniki Park.

At one point, Khrushchev accused Nixon indignantly of threatening him. Nixon denied this, but said:

"I don't believe the cause of peace is helped by your reiterating the point you just made—that you have more strength than we have, because that is a threat, too."

While 200 newsmen, photographers and cameramen eavesdropped the two men engaged in a running foreign policy debate while they looked over the exhibits of dolls, swimsuits and automobiles.

Part of the unscheduled fireworks was recorded while they toured a color television studio. Cameras ground away as they argued.

Nixon promised Khrushchev this portion of the debate would be shown on an American television network uncensored, with simultaneous English translation of the Soviet leader's remarks.

Khrushchev, in answer to a request by Nixon, agreed to allow video tape to be shown on Soviet television. The two men shook hands on the deal.

As they stood on the threshold of a model kitchen in an American home, Nixon and Khrushchev started talking about the relative merits of washing machines and wound up in a sometimes bitter exchange.

"Let us not beat around the bush," Khrushchev said. "The main thing is that we want to put an end to bases on foreign lands. This is the main thing.

"I repeat until that happens we will speak different political languages. The one that is for putting an end to bases on foreign lands is for peace. The one who is against this is for war."

After the spirited exchange at the exhibition grounds, Nixon was Khrushchev's guest at a luncheon in the Kremlin.

Nixon and Khrushchev had met in the Kremlin earlier this morning for the first time since Nixon's arrival yesterday.

Nixon stood toe-to-toe with Khrushchev batting back his arguments one by one. At the end Nixon apologized for being "a poor host at the exposition and allowing a ceremonial visit to turn into hot foreign policy discussions.

"My main point is that in today's world," Nixon said, "it is immaterial which of these two great countries at a particular moment has an advantage. Any advantage in the next war is illusory."

Khrushchev apologized for speaking so frankly to Nixon. But Nixon, recalling some of his political campaigns, told their interpreter:

"Tell him I have been insulted by experts."

Klementi Voroshilov and Deputy Premiers Anastas Mikoyan and Frol Kozlov stood at Khrushchev's elbow during the visit to the exhibition.

When the debate got really rough, Nixon said bluntly: "I trust the premier has understood all the implications. What I mean is that the moment we place either one of these powerful nations through the ultimatum in a position where they have no choice but accept dictation or fight, then you are playing with the most destructive power in the world.

"And this is very import-

Goldfine Receives Suspended Term

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bernard Goldfine today received a suspended sentence of a year in jail and a $1,000 fine for contempt of Congress.

The fine as well as the jail term was suspended.

In lieu of paying the fine and serving the jail term, Goldfine, gift-giving Boston industrialist, was placed on probation for two years.

In addition, U.S. Dist. Judge James W. Morris directed that Goldfine, if given the opportunity, answer the 18 questions he refused to answer before the House Subcommittee on Legislative Oversight a year ago.

If the committee should call Goldfine again, Morris said, he must adequately answer the questions which formed the basis of the indictment.

The subcommittee has given no indication it intends to recall Goldfine.

Goldfine gave up last week his fight against the 18-count contempt indictment which grew out of his appearance a year ago before the subcommittee.

Goldfine then talked freely of many things, including his friendship with former presidential aide Sherman Adams, but balked at answering questions concerning the financial affairs of the Boston Port Development Co.

He contended in effect that that was none of the subcommittee's business. The House group insisted it was pertinent to its probe of federal regulatory agencies.

STORES OPEN LATE TONIGHT

Hot bargains on a warm evening . . . that's what merchants in Marin communities claim to be offering as they keep stores open until 9 o'clock tonight for Friday shoppers.

The late store hours will prevail in San Rafael, Corte Madera Center, Novato and with several stores in San Anselmo.

Woman Injured By Hay Sues

A Nicasio mother of three, seriously hurt when a bale of hay from a truck fell on her car and pinned her inside the vehicle last January, is suing for more than $100,000 damages in Marin Superior Court.

Mrs. Heloise Tomasini, 35, is suing truck driver Edward M. Campigli, 19, and owner of the truck Toby Giacomini, both of Pt. Reyes.

On the afternoon of Jan. 26, Mrs. Tomasini was headed east on the Petaluma-Pt. Reyes road when about 40 bales of hay slid off an approaching truck and smashed her car. She said she suffered concussion, scalp wounds, multiple fractures and other serious injuries.

Mrs. Tomasini asks for $100,000 general damages, medical costs, $600 for a housekeeper whom she had to hire, and $350 for damage to her car and loss of the use of her car.

Mrs. Tomasini's daughter Lisa, 5, and two other companions were passengers in the car at the time. They were going home after attending dancing school at Point Reyes Station.

One of the other girls, Maria Elena Gonzales, 4, of Nicasio was also seriously hurt in the crash.

Tire Slashers Hit 6 Cars In San Rafael

Tire slashers are on the loose in San Rafael.

The vandals used a sharp instrument to flatten several tires Wednesday night or yesterday morning, especially around the city hall parking lot.

Police reported that one of their prowl cars, parked next to the police station, received a flat tire, as did two other cars in the city hall lot.

The other victims were San Rafael Planning Commissioner Carl Brown and Police Officer John Kingston, who had his personal car parked on the west side of the lot.

From other parts of the city came similar reports.

John E. Dillman of 25 Redding way got up yesterday morning and noticed the left rear tire of his 1955 sedan slashed. He had parked it at his home about 9 o'clock the night before.

William J. Doggett, supervisor at Pacific Telephone and Telegraph Co., reported tires on two company cars had been slashed.

SECOND ANIMAL HURT

Sergeant Injured As Car Kills Horse

An Air Force sergeant last night suffered eye injuries when the car he was driving struck and killed a horse in Novato. The automobile also struck a second horse that had to be destroyed by a veterinarian.

T/Sgt. Phillip Victor Monroy, 28, of headquarters, Western Air Defense Force, at Hamilton Air Force Base, told the California Highway Patrol he was traveling south on South Novato boulevard when "all of a sudden" a horse appeared on the road.

The CHP said the horses were at the outer edge of a lighted intersection and possibly difficult to see.

The horses belonged to Fabian Bobo of 1470 South Novato boulevard. Bobo, owner of Bobo's Garage and a construction company, said it would cost more than $500 to replace the horses. He said they were the pets of his four children.

Monroy was treated at the base hospital, then transferred to Letterman Army Hospital in San Francisco, where a spokesman said today it was too early to determine whether the injury to his right eye might impair the sight.

The untethered animals, being led home by Mrs. Anne Hancock of 1345 Yukon way, apparently had gotten out of their pasture.

Bobo said the second horse's leg was broken "too far up" to be set.

Race Tax Bill Expected To Have No Effect Here

A bill signed into law yesterday by Gov. Edmund G. Brown that ends the $65,000 annual allocation of horse race tax money to county and district fairs will "have no great effect on Marin," County Auditor Leon A. deLisle said today.

Under the new legislation county and district fairs must justify annual requests for the funds, with any surplus from betting money returning to the state's general fund.

DeLisle said he thought legislators have been peeved because in the past all some counties had to do was make an application and they would get the funds.

He said this resulted, in many cases, in counties simply storing the money. He said one county accumulated nearly a half million dollars.

Asked what effect the legislation would have on the annual Marin Art and Garden Fair, which has been a recipient of the horse race tax funds, deLisle said:

"It has always justified its use of the funds. The board of supervisors can enter into an agreement with a private group or corporation to put on a fair, and that's what has been done here. The Art and Garden Center has helped us get the funds."

He said the budget of the fair is approved in Sacramento, including the tax money that the fair receives. This year, he said, it amounted to approximately $43,000.

The remainder of the $65,000 goes into a county fund, with state approval. The difference in Marin, he said, is that the county has programmed the funds for acquisition of fairgrounds at the county civic center. Some counties, he said, have not been spending the funds.

Service District Taxes Reduced at Terra Linda

Directors of the Terra Linda Community Service District at a special meeting last night adopted a budget of $39,000 for the 1959-60 fiscal year, and a tax rate of 97.4 cents per $100 of assessed valuation.

John P. (Jack) Namle, president of the board, said the tax rate is 2.6 cents lower than for fiscal 1958-59.

The budget covers expenses for recreation, administration and the fire department, with the bulk of money for the fire department, Namle said.

At an adjourned meeting following the budget session, Namle said the board heard a report that fire insurance rates might decrease as much as 40 per cent for some residents in three months.

Two New Jet Pan Am Plans Schedules

SAN FRANCISCO (UPI)—Pan American Airways will inaugurate jet clipper service over the Polar route from the West Coast to London Aug. 26, and across the Pacific to Hawaii and the Orient Sept. 5.

Announcement of the jet schedule was made today by Robert B. Murray Jr., executive vice president of the Pan-Am Pacific-Alaska Division.

The company said the new service will introduce Boeing international clippers with a range of 5,000 miles.

It will be the first trans-Pacific jet service to Hawaii and the Orient, and the first jet service over the Polar route to London, the company said. Existing travel time will be cut almost in half.

A twice-weekly schedule will be in effect on the Polar route between San Francisco, Los Angeles and London. From the California cities to Honolulu and Tokyo, a three a week schedule was planned, with a fourth schedule to be added 10 days later.

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state may issue permits to sell liquor in restaurants near California's colleges and universities, Gov. Edmund G. Brown decided today.

McKegney gave personal reasons for his action.

Khrushchev flushed red at this. Looking sternly at Nixon he said:

"Who is giving ultimatum?"

Nixon tried to shift the argument saying that the two men should discuss this touchy issue at another time.

But Kshurchev, obviously irritated, would not stop.

"Since you raised it while people are listening why not now?" he demanded. "We know something about politics too."

Brown Signs Development Agency Bill

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Legislation creating a State Economic Development Agency was signed today by Gov. Edmund G. Brown. He said it means new industry and payrolls to the state.

A commissioner to be named by Brown will receive $16,500 a year and serve on the governor's business advisory council.

The new agency was allotted $175,000 in the 1959-60 budget to be used in attracting industry and conducting economic research to help small businesses.

Brown called for the agency in his inaugural address, saying California was one of the few states without such a service. He ranked it among his top 35 measures.

Airmen Get Hard Labor In Car Theft

Two Hamilton Air Force Base airmen yesterday were sentenced to hard labor and pay forfeiture for taking a parked car in San Francisco April 3 for a joy ride.

Only one of them—A/2c Hubert F. Gorlie, 21, of the 78th Organizational Maintenance Squadron—will have to serve his hard labor term in the Hamilton stockade, however, a special court-martial board decreed. The other, A/3c Edson L. Merlau, 19, of the 78th Armaments and Electronics Squadron, will merely have to labor on the base.

Gorlie's labor sentence is for six months; Merlau's, for two. Both were reduced to airman basic and will have to forfeit $70 per month of their pay—Gorlie for six months and Merlau for two months.

The pair broke into a parked car belonging to Gensler-Lee Co., San Francisco diamond dealers, on April 3. They were nabbed by Hamilton air police after the car was reported stolen.

Guests Ride Western Jets

Western Air Lines, first commercial carrier to introduce new fast Lockheed Electra jet airliners to the west, took government officials, civic leaders and press representatives on demonstration flights over San Francisco Bay yesterday.

The guests first attended a special luncheon at the Bohemian Club and heard Terrell C. Drinkwater, WAL president, describe the 400-mile-an-hour planes which will reduce travel times as much as one-third.

On Aug. 1 Western will start daily jet service between San Francisco, Seattle, Tacoma, Portland and Los Angeles. Flights will be started to Minneapolis, St. Paul, Salt Lake City and Phoenix within the next few weeks, Drinkwater said.

City Offered Reservoir For Shop Lot

Prospects of an old-fashioned horse trade between the Marin Municipal Water District and the City of Mill Valley loomed today with much-discussed Cascade Reservoir playing the part of main horse.

A water district spokesman said the district needs a small lot for a shop building on marsh lands near the Mill Valley sewer plant. A swap might be arranged, he suggested.

Hitherto negotiations for the lot have centered on possibility of a long term lease to the district at a nominal rental. Now, however, the Mill Valley fire chief's desire that Cascade Reservoir become a permanent safety factor in fire protection gives the district an unexpected bargaining point.

William R. Seeger, general manager for the water district, is to confer with Mill Valley officials as soon as possible. The talks probably will be before the next meeting of the Mill Valley City Council Aug. 5.

Dodson was southbound on Second street and said he was unable to stop when the woman crossed the street. Hospital attaches said Mrs. Grommon suffered bruised knees and a scraped elbow and complained of a pain in her right side. She was examined and sent home.

Woman Awarded $6,000 Damages In Surgery Error

A Novato housewife won $6,000 damages yesterday in Marin Superior Court because a roll of gauze was left inside an incision on her back after an operation three years ago.

A jury heard the case before Judge N. Charles Brusatori and awarded the damages to Mrs. Grace V. Bloom after a one-hour deliberation. She is the wife of Novato chicken rancher Harold A. Bloom of 1853 Indian Valley road. Albert E. Bagshaw represented the Blooms.

The Blooms sued Dr. Ralph J. Weseman of Novato, who performed the operation, and Doris Root, the nurse who assisted. They asked for $24,000 in all.

According to the suit, Mrs. Bloom entered Marin General Hospital and had the operation performed on Aug. 28, 1956. A surgical sponge (roll of gauze) was left inside the incision, and the incision closed. She was released from the hospital Aug. 31.

Mrs. Bloom said the wound became infected, and the gauze was finally removed Oct. 2.

ESTATE TAX APPRAISER SWORN IN

Man Accused Of Molesting Small Girls Pleads Guilty

A San Francisco vegetable vendor, accused of luring little girls at Marinwood into his vegetable truck and molesting them last May, switched his plea to guilty today, as four small girls sat in the courthouse ready to testify against him.

Judge N. Charles Brusatori of Marin Superior Court ordered John Garvin Hicks, 62, remanded to the sheriff to be held without bail. Hicks, formerly of San Francisco, is now living in San Mateo where he has a vegetable stand, according to his attorney, Robert D. Miller of South San Francisco.

Hicks had been charged with four counts of lewd and lascivious conduct toward girls, aged 10 and 11, and a count of perjury for not divulging his past record of felonies when he applied for a solicitor's permit in Marin County. Today, he pleaded guilty to one count of lewd and lascivious conduct which carries a penalty of one year to life in state prison.

When Hicks admitted the one count, Dist. Atty. W. O. Weissich agreed to dismiss the other charges. Weissich explained that one count is enough to sentence Hicks to a maximum of life in prison. And the plea of guilty precludes the need to put the girls through the ordeal of testifying in open court.

Judge Brusatori appointed Dr. Theo K. Miller of Napa State Hospital and Dr. Joseph Gutstadt of San Rafael to examine Hicks to determine if he is a sexual psychopath. He set Aug. 17 at 10 a.m. as the time for a report from the psychiatrists and for sentencing.

This is the fourth felony conviction for Hicks. In 1938, he was convicted of grand larceny in South Dakota. In 1945 he served a San Quentin term for sex perversion in Los Angeles. Two years later he was ordered back into prison for lewd and lascivious conduct with young girls, and was paroled in 1953.

Hicks is not married.

HAFB Tennis Champ Hurt In Missouri

Last year's tennis champion at Hamilton Air Force Base, Lt. Stanley C. Hack, 24, was critically injured last night in a highway accident near Kansas City, Mo., a Hamilton spokesman said today.

Hack suffered a broken leg, a broken arm and a collapsed lung in the accident, three-quarters of a mile south of Richards-Gebaur Air Force Base. No details of the accident were available.

Hack was a member of the 475th Radar Evaluation Squadron at Hamilton. He has been participating in an Air Defense Command tennis tournament at the Missouri base while en route to a new assignment at Hill Air Force Base near Ogden, Utah.

Hack is from Sacramento.

Blazing Truck Blocks Road

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Normal traffic resumed on the narrow three-mile Yolo causeway today after a battle against a flaming truck-trailer rig spewing burning grain.

U.S. 40 traffic stacked up five miles west of the scene and three miles east as the flames seared through the asphalt and touched off the underpinnings of the causeway last night.

Highway patrolmen said Norman Garcia of Elk Grove, driver of the grain truck, tried to keep driving on the causeway despite a flat tire because he didn't want to block traffic.

He fled without injury when the fire burst out. The truck was destroyed.

Postal Official Reports Pilfering Of Mail

Somebody has been pilfering mail from boxes at 162 Almonte boulevard outside Mill Valley and tearing up the letters, the post office superintendent reported to sheriff's deputies.

D. E. Urquhart, postal official, said some torn letters were found at the Almonte bus stop. The victims are residents of an apartment house at 162 Almonte.

Pilot Missing From Home In Marinwood

A Pan American Airlines pilot, who lives in Marinwood, vanished from his home Wednesday night and is still missing, his wife reported today.

Philip Hudson Lucier, 41, of 559 Loganberry drive, is believed driving his blue 1951 Ford station wagon, license number BUT 562.

"I don't know what to think," said Mrs. Mary L. Lucier. "He has never done this before."

Lucier had just finished a flight at 9 a.m. Wednesday and was scheduled to fly again next Tuesday. Mrs. Lucier told sheriff's deputies Lucier began drinking Wednesday night and appeared despondent. He said he was going to the officers club at Hamilton Air Force Base, but there was no indication he arrived there. She said he has frequented small bars in San Francisco.

The Luciers have been married for 15 years and have a 12-year-old son. Lucier is 5 feet 9 inches tall, weighs 155 pounds, has dark brown hair and brown eyes. He was wearing a gray herringbone tweed jacket, gray slacks, white shirt and tie when he disappeared.

STOCKS TODAY

NEW YORK (AP) — Many prices wilted under afternoon selling today and turned the stock market mixed. Trading moved at a moderate rate.

Volume for the day was estimated at three million shares against 3,310,000 yesterday.

A few selected issues ran up smart gains although there were just about as many losers.

Motors, metals, chemicals, oils, drugs and rails were mixed. Some steels and electronics stepped higher.

Chrysler took the steepest dip among motors, losing around a point and a half. Studebaker-Packard also declined. General Motors and America Motors posted modest gains. Ford was unchanged.

Youngstown Sheet and Tube, after the company reported a sharp upturn in first half profit, highlighted the steel group by running up around two.

Among the electronics, Motorola and General Telephone pushed ahead more than a point.

West, Russ In Secret Parley As Big 4 Talks Near Collapse

GENEVA (UPI)—The West took Russia back into secret talks today in a final effort to win a Berlin truce without paying the price of surrender to Soviet demands.

With the Big Four talks hanging on the edge of a final breakdown, U. S. Secretary of State Christian A. Herter assembled the ministers around a secret lunch at his villa to see what hopes remained.

First he consulted for an hour with British Foreign Minister Selwyn Lloyd, France's Maurice Couve de Murville and West German delegate Wilhelm Grewe. Then Grewe left and Russian Foreign Minister Andrei Gromyko came to eat and talk.

Although collapse of the talks, now eight weeks old, appeared inevitable, the West still hoped for a change of Soviet mood that might make possible a summit conference in September.

The main hope for a break was pegged on the outcome of Vice President Richard M. Nixon's talks which begin in Moscow today with Soviet Premier Nikita S. Khrushchev. Gromyko cannot make a move without the word from Khrushchev.

Neither side wanted a final break at least until Nixon leaves Moscow. In addition, Lloyd also was reported striving to keep the conference going at least until the British Parliament recesses July 30.

HERCULES? — Reg Lewis, Corte Madera body builder, competed in Hollywood today for title of "Mr. Hercules," in a competition in connection with premiere of new movie of that name. Winner is to get a trip to Rome, site of the 1960 Olympic Games, plus a cash award.

Engle Demands Congress Kill 'Partner' Plan

WASHINGTON (UPI) — Sen. Clair Engle (D-Calif.) called on Congress today to kill "once and for all" the administration's controversial "partnership" plan for California's Trinity River Project.

But Rep. Charles S. Gubster (R-Calif.) insisted that the proposal to let Pacific Gas and Electric Co. develop Trinity energy "is in the public interest."

The two legislators made the statements in testimony prepared for delivery before the House Irrigation and Reclamation Subcommittee, which opened a hearing on a long-pending bill providing for the private utility's participation in the Northern California federal reclamation project.

Engle and other partnership opponents, claiming Congress never will approve the PG&E plan, are campaigning for federal money to build the Trinity power plants.

The House has denied this request, but the Senate has approved $2,415,000 for the federal works.

SOUTHERN CAL BEATS TEXAS IN POPULATION

LOS ANGELES (UPI)—The population of southern California now exceeds that of the entire population of Texas.

Researchers of the Security-First National Bank, casting about for a comparison, came up with that one involving the nation's second largest state. The population of southern California's 14 counties is about 9,600,000, the bank reported, and added that if it were a state, it would be the fifth largest on a population basis.

The state's population gain since 1950 has been two and one-half times greater than that of the national gain, the bank's study disclosed.

Exodus From Marinship Apartments Under Way

Daily inspections will be made into next week to determine whether an exodus from three antiquated slip "apartments" in Marinship, Sausalito, is continued to complete evacuation.

This was promised yesterday by Donald A. Duerr, Sausalito city manager, following report by Police Chief Howard Goerndt that two of four living quarters on Ways 1, 2 and 3 of the yard have now been abandoned as result of a Marin Superior Court order against Donlon J. Arques, owner.

The order was effective last Saturday, but these apartments, along with numerous arks and barges used for living quarters against official desires, have so long been a target for hitherto ineffective efforts that Sausalito authorities seem willing to string along for a few more days in hopes that at least the shore building problem will work itself out.

"If the apartments are still occupied after another four or five days," said Duerr, "the city attorney will be notified so he can take such action as he considers appropriate."

Meanwhile, the embattled city attorney, John B. Ehlen has a midnight Saturday deadline coming up against the antique arks of submerged Mono street—over which they more or less float.

Marin Superior Court has ordered three owners to vacate. This order was sustained by the District Court of Appeal early this week. Theodore Rosenak, attorney for Philip and Louise Savage, J. Norman Braune and Alex Georgiadis, said they are in an impossible situation because they've petitioned to be put on sewer lines but the city refuses to let them tie in because the arks are regarded as trespassers on underwater Mono street.

Voluntary Mental Admissions Rise

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Voluntary admissions to the state's hospitals for the mentally ill rose 20 per cent during the fiscal year that ended June 30, the state Department of Mental Hygiene said today.

Total admissions numbered 23, 871, a rise of 3.8 per cent. Voluntary admissions came to 4,279 patients.

Foreign Aid Cut Again By House Group

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Appropriations Committee today cut an additional $390,195,000 from President Eisenhower's pet project, the foreign aid program.

The committee recommended $3,186,500,000 in new foreign aid money, adding its own cut to that already voted by Congress in the authorization bill which sets ceilings on the program. The combination cut more than 740 million dollars from Eisenhower's original $3,930,000,000 request.

The authorization bill had put a limit of $3,576,695,000 on the year's program.

The foreign aid program is handled in two separate bills. One fixes the over-all scope of the program. The other determines how much money shall be provided.

LESS THAN REQUEST

Ike Signs $3.5 Billion Foreign Aid Measure

WASHINGTON (AP) — President Eisenhower signed today a $3,556,200,000 foreign aid authorization bill.

The total is $353,200,000 short, or within 10 per cent, of the amount Eisenhower recommended.

But there is every indication that Congress will cut deeper in the forthcoming foreign aid appropriations bill to provide the actual funds for the program through June 30, 1960.

The bill signed today sets maximums and defines policies.

The biggest cut was in authorization for military arms to allies. Congress set the limit at $1,400,000,000 instead of the $1,600,000,000 Eisenhower recommended. Moreover, it directed that for a two-year trial period military foreign aid be treated as part of the U.S. defense budget rather than a separate item.

Congress also authorized only 155 million dollars, instead of the recommended 200 million dollars, in the fund for the President to spend in unforseen contingencies.

Other categories also were reduced, but Congress not only approved the entire 700-million-dollar authorization requested for economic development loans this year in countries with lagging economies, but provided a stepped-up $1,100,000,000 authorization for next year—which had not been requested.

British Shaken By Charge Of Nyasaland Police State

LONDON (AP)—Grave charges that Britain has turned her African protectorate of Nyasaland into a police state shook Prime Minister Harold Macmillan's government today.

Laborites shouted for the resignation of Colonial Secretary Alan Lennox-Boyd and prepared to make the Conservative government's African policy a major issue in the approaching national election—likely to be in October.

The police state accusation came in the report of a four-man commission appointed by the government to make an independent investigation into nationalist outbreaks in Nyasaland in February.

Hundreds of members of the nationalist African National Congress were put into detention camps and more than 50 Africans killed by soldiers and police in suppressing the wave of violence and sabotage in Nyasaland which spread to neighboring Southern and Northern Rhodesia.

HIGH DRAMA IN 'ALL MY SONS'

Fisherman's persistence paid off yesterday for Juanita Curley, wife of Wilfred J. Curley, 695 Hilary drive, Tiburon.

Wednesday night, while striped bass fishing on Richardson Bay, Mrs. Curley hooked in to "a big one" on a third strike that snapped her pole and took her rod, reel, and line into the briny deep.

Undaunted, Mrs. Curley searched the beach yesterday morning for possible trace of the equipment. She was rewarded with her pole, reel, line, and a 10-pound striper neatly deposited on the sand opposite Hawthorne Terrace.

Brown Names New State Finance Chief

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown today appointed John Carr, director of the state Department of Employment, as the new director of finance.

Carr will succeed Bert W. Levit, who resigned from the highest-paid state post effective Aug. 1.

Carr, 60, a Long Beach department store executive until he assumed his present job in the Brown administration, will move to the Finance Department the first of next month.

In his new job, he will receive $28,875 a year.

GROWING BAY PROBLEM

Pollution Board Seeks Elimination of Debris

The Regional Water Pollution Control Board today called for cooperation in eliminating sources of floating debris in San Francisco Bay, which the board said is "increasing at an unprecedented rate."

The board asked the cooperation of counties, cities and districts "having responsibility for the operation or regulation of recognized refuse disposal operations."

Major sources of the debris, the board said, are:

1. Disposal operations so located, constructed or operated as to permit entry of floatable debris into the bay.

2. Illegally deposited debris along shores of the bay below high tide elevation or where it is deposited in creek beds and carried to the bay by storm runoff.

3. Floatable debris from construction operations and from waterfront structures that are gradually falling apart.

Paralytic Polio Cases Rise By 50 Per Cent

WASHINGTON (AP) — Paralytic polio cases increased by 50 per cent last week to a 1959 weekly high of 166. They ran more than three times the number listed for the comparable 1958 week.

The Public Health Service today said the states reported a total of 257 polio cases during the week ended July 18.

This compares with a revised total of 178 polio cases for the week ended July 11 this year, 110 of them paralytic.

In the week ended July 19, 1958, there were 52 cases.

San Anselmo Builder Low Bank Job Bidder

A. Von Rotz of San Anselmo has submitted the lowest of six bids at $118,980 for additions and alterations to transform the Purity Store on Sir Francis Drake boulevard in San Anselmo into a branch of the First National Bank of San Rafael.

In making this announcement today William P. Murray, bank president, said a decision on award of the contract will be made sometime next week.

Through the remodeling, the building is to become a bank with two drive-in windows. There will be a new parking area and cars will go in from the street on the south side to emerge on the north.

This will become the eighth office of the San Rafael bank upon occupancy around the end of the year. Other branches are in Corte Madera, Novato, Petaluma, Mill Valley, Belvedere and Kentfield.

$8 Million Bid Low For Span

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Yuba Consolidated Industries, low bidder the day before on the substructure, has submitted the low bid of $8,469,485 to build the superstructure of the new Benicia-Martinez Bridge.

The firm offered the low bid of $5,769,000 to build the underpinnings Wednesday. Both bids were made through Yuba's Judson Pacific-Murphy Division in Emeryville.

The state Toll Bridge Authority will open bids Tuesday on revenue bonds to pay for the mile-long, four-lane bridge.

Bids for the remainder of the construction are to be advertised soon.

Bill Hits Equal Time

WASHINGTON (AP) — The House Commerce Committee has approved a bill that would exempt radio-television newscasts from the equal time rule.

The rule provided that a station giving time to one political candidate on a program must give the same amount of time to all other candidates.

Federal Program Creating Chaos In Highway Numbers

SACRAMENTO, (AP)—When is Highway 40 also Highway 80? Or Highway 30, Highway 8 as well? Or 66 also 40?

Right now, under the federal government's interstate highway system in which cross-country routes are given special numbers in addition to their regular designations.

Only roads built to federal standards can receive the special designation. In this case, Interstate Highways 80, 8 or 40. In general, the standard in California means roads of four or more lanes with controlled access.

This could add even more confusion since parts of U.S. 40, for instance, don't meen the standards. So Highway 40 isn't always also Highway 80.

Then there's Utah, where Interstate Highway 80 is also Highway 30, rather than 40. And the interstate route picks up other numbers as it winds across the nation almost directly east to New York City.

Think you're confused? Pity R. J. Israel, the man in the State Division of Highways given the job of putting up the multiple-designation signs.

Israel, assistant state traffic engineer, has been experimenting. The first step was to erect dual-numbered signs on U.S. 40 west of Sacramento.

In general shape, the interstate signs look about the same as the regular U.S. markers, but later they'll be given special colors. Shaped as a shield, they'll have white borders and numbers, with a red upper shield and a blue bottom.

State officials aren't very happy about the duplication. In fact, the American Asso. of Highway Officials adopted the new plan over California opposition.

And it's not just the northern part of the state that's suffering road sign confusion. Down by San Diego U.S. Highway 80 (not U.S. Interstate 80) will still be Highway 80 but also will be Interstate 8.

CHANCE FOR REVENGE

District Attorneys Laying For Perry Mason Author

MILWAUKEE (UPI)—A legal trap is being laid for crime fiction writer Erle Stanley Gardner when he appears to make the principal address at the convention of the National District Attorney's Association July 30-Aug. 1.

The nation's district attorneys, after watching helplessly while Gardner's creation, Perry Mason, beats Dist. Atty. A. Hamilton Burger every Saturday night on television, have decided to get revenge.

When Gardner arrives for the convention, he will be arrested on a charge of "allowing Perry Mason to represent innocent clients only, and not allowing A. Hamilton Burger to ever win a single case."

Gardner will be tried before a jury of 12 long-suffering district attorneys, and prosecuted by a battery of lawyers who have won cases of national interest. The judge has not been selected.

His defense will be handled by Dist. Atty. William B. McKesson of Los Angeles, who is the real life counterpart of the never-victorious Burger, so there is some doubt that Gardner will receive an enthusiastic defense.

Chief witness for the prosecution will be Bill Talman, who plays Burger on television and will fly to Milwaukee especially to seal Gardner's doom.

J. Clair Favrot of Baton Rouge, La., president of the association, calls the Gardner series an "outlandish picture. There just aren't that many innocent clients." The prosecutors have promised, however, to "give Gardner a fair trial before we hang him."

Once the hazing is over, he will deliver a keynote address on "Crime and the Family." Favrot described him as "an outstanding figure among laymen interested in good law enforcement on a nationwide basis."

Dredge Job At Belvedere Protested

The Army Corps of Engineers office in San Francisco has received 11 protests against proposed dredging operations on the west side of Belvedere Island where Belvedere Properties Co. has announced plans for a waterfront homesite development.

District engineer Col. John S. Harnett said the protests will be studied to determine whether they concern navigational problems which fall within the engineers' jurisdiction.

The application to the engineers involved only the proposed dredging operation and not the home construction program.

Colonel Harnett indicated it would be some time before a decision will be reached on the protests.

Four Airliners In Trouble Land Safely

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

Several airliners managed successful emergency landings at various airports across the country yesterday after developing troubles that could have caused serious accidents.

Two of the incidents were at New York's Idlewild Airport. Another involved a plane with smoking engines at Indianapolis, and the other was a plane with damaged landing gear at Denver.

LANDING GEAR TROUBLE

Landing gears seemed to present the most frequent difficulties.

An American airliner Boeing 707 Jetliner, with landing gear trouble, made an emergency landing at Tucson, Ariz., Wednesday night. Other Boeing Jetliners had been involved in landing gear mishaps at Idlewild Saturday night and also the previous Saturday night.

It was Idlewild's third mishap in two days yesterday when a four-engine TWA Super Constellation with 51 persons aboard came in with one engine out of operation.

EMERGENCY LANDING

Earlier in the day, an Air Force cargo plane made an emergency landing after the pilot reported possible fire and smoke. There was no fire.

In Indianapolis, another TWA plane landed safely with two engines smoking from an oil leak. In Denver, a chartered plane of Miami Airlines was badly damaged when a portion of the landing gear gave way in landing at Lowry Air Force Base.

Miller Sees Effort To Override Veto

Congress probably will attempt to override President Eisenhower's veto of the housing bill, Rep. Clement W. Miller (D-Corte Madera) believes.

Miller said in a statement from Washington today that such an attempt should be successful in the Senate. "I do not think we will quite make it in the House, but we may come a lot closer than is now believed possible," he said.

HITS MESSAGE

He termed the President's veto message "shockingly misleading and inaccurate" on several points and expressed surprise that many think the bill has to do only with public housing, "acctually only a small part of the bill."

Miller went on:

"It is very much concerned with private housing, FHA insurance, urban renewal (San Rafael, Santa Rosa, Eureka, Petaluma now are very interested in this), college housing, housing for the elderly, and so on."

Miller said that, "sections of this bill which are desperately needed by our North Coast home building, real estate and lumber industries are likely to be deferred till next year."

EFFECTS VISIBLE

Builders consulted in the 1st District have told him, Miller continued, that effects of the veto on the market are already apparent and as time goes on this will grow increasingly serious "because the housing bill affects every segment of the construction industry.

He declared: "The prosperity of the 1st District is largely dependent on our real estate, construction and lumber industries. I believe that in terms of its impact upon the economic health of the North Coast, the housing bill is the most important single piece of legislation before this Congress."

Senate hearings on the veto message opened yesterday and will continue into early August when the House will decide what it is going to do. Miller said the hearings are necessary "because of the wide variance between the contents of the President's message and the factual basis upon which Congress relied in formulating the bill. . . . Congressional feeling on this matter is extremely high (over) a dreadful and calamitous mistake."

Miller denied that the bill would be inflationary and said it calls for outlay next year of only 24 million dollars in a 77-billion-dollar budget and 90 billion dollars actual expenditure.

Hub Chamber Names 3 To Road Group

A. N. Nipper, Sidney Braverman and Eugene Ostaggi yesterday were named by the San Anselmo Chamber of Commerce as a highway and streets committee to sit in on future discussions on the proposed road linking Highway 101 with Olema.

The road, construction of which has been approved by the state, will originate at the junction of Highways 17 and 101 and pass through San Rafael, San Anselmo and Fairfax.

First meeting of the San Anselmo committee is scheduled for Aug. 4 at 4 p.m., in the chambers of the Marin County Board of Supervisors. Meeting with them will be committees from the chambers of commerce of other cities involved.

At their weekly luncheon meeting yesterday, the San Anselmo chamber also laid tentative plans for the next San Anselmo Bargain Days, scheduled for Oct. 1, 2 and 3.

SAN RAFAEL MOTORISTS:
Allstate lowers rates on auto insurance effective immediately
You benefit directly—as always—from Allstate's big-volume, low-overhead, quality-for-less business principle
And you still get Allstate's top-quality protection, service and value

Allstate has always believed in the simple proposition that it is possible to offer top-quality insurance at lower rates than most other companies charge.

Now we are happy to bring a rate reduction to most California motorists. This means you may now make immediate savings by switching to Allstate auto insurance.

As you'd expect, how much you pay depends on where you live and how your car is used. But for most car owners like those Allstate already insures, savings range up to 35% compared with rates of most other companies. Yet your money can't buy better protection.

Compare and you'll see why Allstate value is now greater than ever.

Cost comparison with the ten leading auto insurance companies in California:
(Costs in effect since July 8, 1959)

Costs of many other companies:	$102.20—$121.90
ALLSTATE:	$88.00
YOU SAVE:	$14.20—$33.90

THESE COSTS are currently in effect for a policy covering Bodily Injury & Property Damage, $10,000/$40,000/$10,000 limits; $100 Deductible Collision; and Comprehensive insurance. Late model 2-or-4-door sedan such as a 1959 Ford Fairlane (8 cyl.), pleasure use, about 135 miles weekly, no male drivers in family under age 25, and no more than 1 or 2 accidents in the past 2 years. You may save even more by switching to Allstate.

SEARS KIND OF VALUE

Allstate cuts red tape to pay claims fast . . . often right "on the spot."

Allstate was founded by Sears, and has won over 5,000,000 policyholders by its modern merchandising methods and by offering the Sears kind of better values—fast, dependable service—and courtesy. Selling costs are low. Savings are passed on to policyholders in the form of low rates.

There's no Home Office red tape because Allstate claims people have the authority to settle most claims themselves.

Also, with Allstate you can pay as you drive. Allstate's easy payment plan lets you pay 40% down, with 6 months to pay the balance, and there's only a nominal service charge of 50¢ per payment.

LOW COST AUTO FINANCING

Allstate's auto finance bank plan helps save you money two ways: you get low bank rates from a cooperating bank, plus the protection of low-cost Allstate Auto insurance. You may save $50 . . . $100 . . . $150, or even more, financing your next new or used car if you talk to your Allstate Agent first. He'll handle the details.

GET ALL THE FACTS SOON

Simply see an Agent at the Allstate Booth in Sears. Or at a nearby Allstate Insurance Center. Or if you prefer, call us on the phone and an Agent will make an appointment to visit your home.

French Launch Crucial Blow At Moslem Rebel Stronghold

ALGIERS (AP) — The French army is waging a crucial offensive of the four and one-half-year-old Algerian war.

All available reserves have been thrown into the massive, forest-covered Grande Kabylie Mountains east of Algiers, the strongest bastion of the Moslem nationalist rebellion against French rule in Algeria.

French troops began the assault Wednesday, striking simultaneously from the ground, air and sea. Gen. Maurice Challe, supreme commander in Algeria, is commanding the operation personally.

So far there has been no word on how the operation is going. But staff officers say the action will continue for many weeks, if not months.

The French general staff believes the future of the Algerian war depends largely on the results of the Kabylie offensive.

The attack comes less than two months before the fall session of the United Nations, which is likely to discuss the Algerian problem. Army sources said the French will make a major effort to smash or considerably reduce rebel military resistance before the debate starts.

An estimated 6,000 armed nationalists are entrenched in the Grande Kabylie zone, a rugged range starting less than 50 miles east of Algiers and continuing for about 150 miles parallel to the coast.

They form Rebel Zone 3, commanded by Col. Mohanou el Hadj, who took over last April after the death of guerrilla chief Ait Hamouda.

Past French efforts to smash resistance in the area failed. Rebels killed by the French were quickly replaced by conscripts from the impoverished villages clinging to the mountainsides.

The Kabyles are reputed to be more warlike than any other Algerian tribe. Most rebel chiefs come from the area. The French believe that smashing or seriously reducing rebel strength in that area would have a strong impact on the rebellion.

The French attempted a major offensive against Kabylie last fall. But the action touched only part of the area and apparently without spectacular success.

This time, the French opened with a three-prong attack. Nearly 1,000 paratroopers dropped into the 5,000-foot-high Akfadou area, in the heart of the mountains. Marines landed at Cape Sigli and moved inland. Foreign Legion units also landed.

The plan was to move eastward toward the best defended area for a thorough sweep.

DINING OUT AND INNS

By HARRY CRAFT

It Could Easily Be In France— But It's Right Here In Marin

It could be in Saone et Loire or any other French town, but it isn't. You'll find La Petite Auberge right in San Rafael a block from the bus station, and if you can't it's your own fault because a lot of folks from out of town don't have a bit of trouble.

Look for a quaint little red brick structure where the bricks weren't even set level until the roof line was reached —and that's it.

Atmospheric piece de resistance is the outdoor patio covered by a wisteria vine which could be 25 or four score years old—no way of telling without digging into its history. Here gather nightly seekers of fine food and wine, menu'd in French style by Paul de Vaux and Pierre Flobert.

Any night of the week except Monday when the place is closed you'll find them in numbers. Weekends you'll do well to reserve ahead.

Last Tuesday only convinced me again that here is a spot catching on so fast it might set a success record for its size hard to beat. If the rustic scenery pleases your aesthetic tastes the food lends material support in the palate and mid regions.

During a particularly satisfying stage in our set-to that also included soup, pigeon aux petits poix, rum baba and suitable vintages my wife viewed her dreamy-eyed mate with a stubborn set to her jaw.

"Look," said she. "I'll darn your socks, wash your shirts and cook your meals, but this I will not serve you for breakfast."

"Why not?" I argued. "It's absolutely delicious."

"I don't care. Half a cantaloupe filled with French tawny port? Absolutely not!"

Okay, okay. For dinner then, sometime, maybe?

THE CAPTAIN'S ROOM is the name chosen by Fred Kern for his new restaurant and bar soon to open on the former site of Joe's Village Patio in Corte Madera.

It popped into Fred's mind when he was at the Alcohol Beverage Control Board office arranging for his license. The clerk asked for a name and without too much forethought out came "The Captain's Room." So designated, it will so remain.

The term implies something on the nautical side and, that, in effect, is what the Captain's Room will be. Extensive remodeling will cancel out the bar at the level of Don Hick's service station and place it below in a corner of the dining room. The old bar quarters will then revert to gas station use.

Adjoining property is being graded for parking space, and entrance to both bar and dining room will be from Tamalpais avenue and the parking lot.

Captain's chairs and other nautical trappings will dress up the premises in sail-ho style. Cuisine may take a similar turn and plans look good for a very attractive place.

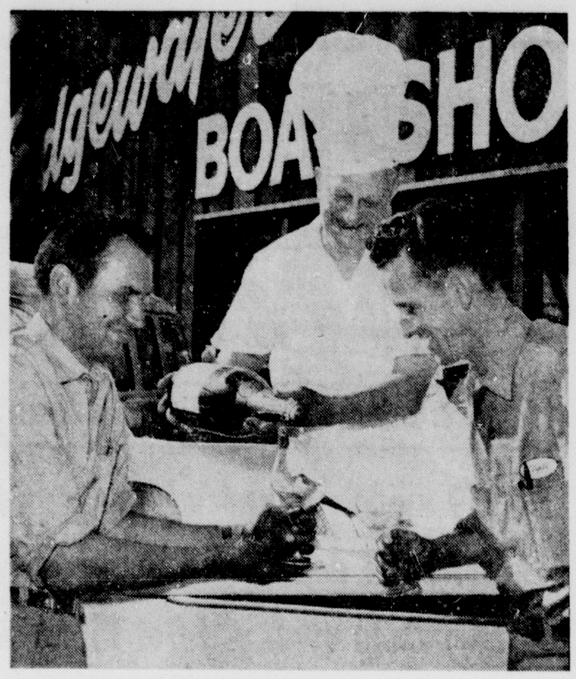
Opening is hoped for sometime in August, depending upon dispatch in construction.

SMORGASBORD: Jimmie Louie, who formerly purveyed fine Chinese and American food at Joes' Village Patio, will take over dining facilities of Travelers Inn in San Rafael. No date set for opening—should be in August . . . One of my favorites in the restaurant field, Ann Baney, is back in that field. She's cocktail hostess at Bob's of Marin, Fridays, Saturdays and Sundays, 7 p.m. to 2 a.m. . . . If the staff at Brands Ranch Wagon looks overfed and overweight, they probably are. Comes from having all the what and when they want to eat, on the house.

LEST I HAVE sung the praises of Rubini's in Fairfax too softly, permit me to remind you that all is not beefsteaks and chops that glitters on the menu. Friday diners-out in particular should be pleased to know that seafoods are well represented in this part of the county. Swordfish steak, crab Newburg, broiled lobster tails, lobster steak Rubini (this is an epi for epicures), jumbo prawns (they're cooked here like nowhere else) and others.

The list is soon to be supplemented by something new and exotic, but I'll wait until the recipe is all set before I tell you about it.

While on the subject, mention should certainly be made of the culinary talents of Rubini's hostess, Corky Jones. We sampled some of her cooking last week and discovered for ourselves what it seems others have known about right along —she's good.



NO, NO, IT ISN'T DONE THAT WAY! You tie a ribbon on the bottle, swing it against the hull and break it—not pop the cork and drink it! Clyde Kilian and Lawrence Ziegler of Sausalito have the procedure all wrong for launching their newly rebuilt Edgewater Boat Shop after it burned down to the pilings. Maybe it's the fault of the fellow in the center doing the pouring — Maurice Guridi of Pierre's French restaurant across the street. What a waste of good champagne! (Ken Molino photo)

Assessments By Counties Up 5 Per Cent

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—The state Board of Equalization has approved the assessment rolls of the state's counties, totaling $23,733,286,367 for land, improvements, and personal property, after exemptions.

The state-wide increase in assessed value was $1,205,060,380, or 5.34 per cent. Exemptions totaled $1,459,538,658, an increase of $46,540,012, or 3.29 per cent.

The assessment roll submitted for Marin County showed a total of $192,985,183 in assessed value, after $15,394,445 in exemptions. The assessed value after exemptions was an increase of $9,244,460, or 5.03 per cent from a year ago.

The breakdown for the county showed assessments for land at $69,590,480; improvements, $119,868,530 and personal property $18,920,618.

Women Inmates Show Big Gain

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The number of women in California prisons increased 18 per cent during the fiscal year that ended June 30, the state Department of Corrections said today.

The total prison population at the end of June was 19,188 inmates, a gain of 7.2 per cent from the previous year. Women constituted 793 of the total, a rise from 671 in June 1958.

GRAPE GROWER TELLS OF WAR WITH BIRDS

FRESNO (AP)—Grape growers of the southern San Joaquin Valley are being plagued by birds—thousands of them.

Leonard LeBlanc of the Clovis area told a Fresno Chamber of Commerce symposium he has a full-time employee shooting birds through the daylight hours and still is suffering greater losses to birds than ever before. He said others are taking the same measures.

The grape crop is perhaps the cleanest and highest quality on record, he added.

Fair Plans Day For Garden Clubs

SACRAMENTO — "Say It With Flowers" will describe a lavish arrangement of floral and foliage compositions at the annual Garden Clubs' Day at the California State Fair.

As a new special event the floral arrangements will express "proverbs in flowers" on Sept. 10, the ninth day of the fair which runs Sept. 2 to 13.

Members of affiliated garden clubs and their guests will gather in Governor's Hall at 10 a.m. to hear various state chairmen and to meet district directors and club officials at a luncheon to follow.

Mrs. E. G. Barnes, 3952 Brule court, Sacramento, has charge of reservations for the lunch. Deadline for reservations is Sept. 6.

MARIN MOVIE ROUNDUP

Leprechauns Coming To Rafael Screen

By LESLIE DARD

Here's what your movie entertainment money will get you this weekend in Marin County:

RAFAEL THEATER

The leprechauns will take over the Rafael screen starting Sunday with the opening of "Darby O'Gill and the Little People," a frequently delightful Irish fantasy made by Walt Disney.

The cast is excellent: Albert Sharpe is Darby, lazy, aging caretaker of a lord's estate; Janet Munro is Katie, his lovely, spitfire daughter; Sean Connery is a Dublin lad imported to replace Darby; Kieron Moore is the village bully, and Jimmy O'Dea, for many years as star of the Irish stage, is Brian Conner, king of the leprechauns.

Much of the fun stems from the battle of wits between Darby and King Brian for, as anyone knows, if you capture a leprechaun, he must grant you three wishes — and Darby and the king have dueled many times.

Although this film was made in Hollywood, you'd swear Disney sent a whole crew to the Emerald Isle.

SEQUOIA AND NOVATO THEATERS

In the spring of 1863, Union cavalrymen made an audacious raid into the heart of Rebel territory, severing the lines carrying supplies to Vicksburg and thus materially shortening the Civil War.

It is this story which is told in "The Horse Soldiers" (color), starring John Wayne and William Holden. The film opens Sunday at both theaters.

Wayne portrays Col. Marlowe and Holden is his surgeon sent along to minister to the wounded.

TIBURON PLAYHOUSE

"The Sound and the Fury" (color, CinemaScope focuses on a Southern mansion, home of a decaying family headed by Yul Brynner and peopled by an idiot (Jack Warden), an alcoholic (John Beal), a hypochondriac (Francoise Rosay), a troubled young lady (Joanne Woodward) and eventually the young lady's long absent mother (Margaret Leighton).

What happens to these people, taken from the pages of one of William Faulkner's novels, makes for a generally mature and vivid film marked by first-rate acting.

The co-feature is "Up Periscope," starring James Garner and Edmund O'Brien. It's a war action film involving the seizure of a vital Japanese code by Garner.

TAMALPAIS THEATER

"South Pacific," a color epic, has been held over.

Directed by Joshua Logan, it is a lavishly made, engaging show which retains all the joy, sorrow and comedy of the Broadway version.

LARK THEATER

"My Uncle," Oscar-winner as the best foreign film of the past 12 months, has been held over again.

It stars Jacques Tati, the clown of "Mr. Hulot's Holiday," and his satire is keener than ever.

FAIRFAX THEATER

William Holden won an Oscar for his performance as Sefton in "Stalag 17," the comedy-drama now at this theater.

It's actually a very funny film, since a good bit of its story deals with the efforts of captured Air Force men to amuse themselves in a German prison camp.

The men realize there is a stool pigeon among them. Suspicion points to Holden, a promoter type. He hasn't endeared himself to the others and when the Germans get rough with a captured officer, the men beat up Holden.

It would spoil your enjoyment to reveal any more of the tense ending. Estimate: A superior film.

The co-feature is "A place in the Sun," starring Monty Clift and Elizabeth Taylor in the Theodore Dreiser story (An American Tragedy).

MARIN MOTOR MOVIES

"Cat on a Hot Tin Roof," opening Sunday was one of five nominees for an Oscar as the best film of the year (it's in color) and its stars, Liz Taylor and Paul Newman, were in the running for best acting awards.

Based on Tennessee Williams' prize winning play, the story is full of vigor and lusty frankness.

Burl Ives plays Big Daddy, a gusty old tyrant near death. Newman plays his younger (and favorite) son, numbing himself with whisky and rejecting his wife in the belief that she has been unfaithful. Miss Taylor is cast as the wife, anxious to bear a child so that she may share in Big Daddy's estate.

Obviously, this is a film for adults.

'HORSE SOLDIERS' AT NOVATO—Artist recreates one of the spectacular moments in "The Horse Soldiers," the John Wayne-William Holden film due Sunday at the Novato Theater.

COMMAND PERFORMANCE—By order of the King Brian, monarch of the Leprechauns, Darby O'Gill plays a lively Irish tune in Walt Disney's "Darby O'Gill and the Little People," opening Sunday at the Rafael Theater in San Rafael. Weekday matinees have been arranged Monday through Friday.

Aid Bill Due Brown Veto

SACRAMENTO (AP)—Gov. Edmund G. Brown says he'll veto a bill to stiffen penalties for fraud and change payment methods under the state's aid-to-needy-children program.

The governor announced yesterday that he will pocket veto the measure by Assemblyman S.C. Masterson (D-El Sobrante).

Brown said he agreed with a provision permitting in-kind rather than cash payments to ANC mothers. It would provide such items as rent, groceries and utilities in lieu of cash.

However, he objected to raising from two to six months the period that a county may withhold payment for failure to report the facts of eligibility correctly.

4 Marin Anglers Win Prizes For Salmon Catches

Four Marin County fishermen have been declared winners of prizes in the Schenley Sportsmen's Club salmon contest, it was announced today.

Catching prize fish last week were Harold H. Paulsen, 32 Vendola drive, San Rafael, 40-pounder, aboard the "Bluefin"; John Lunt, Box 383, Sausalito, 40-pounder, aboard the "Maybe"; John Krimmins, Stinson Beach, 36 pounds 12 ounces, aboard the "Ma-Ru," and Hob Ferguson, 254 Flagstone terrace, San Rafael, 36-pounder, aboard the "Fisher No. 1."

The Schenley Club presents rods or reels to fishermen who catch salmon 35 pounds or larger.

Giants Send Antonelli Vs. Cubs Tonight

Johnny Antonelli, king of the San Francisco mound corps, takes the hill tonight against the Chicago Cubs as the Giants attempt to consolidate their position at the head of the National League standings.

Antonelli, with a record of 14-5, was whipped in his last outing when a couple of his pitches went over the fence for a 3-2 Los Angeles victory. Johnny claimed the balls weren't hit over—but were carried over by the high wind.

The crack southpaw will be facing the same breezes today as he hooks up in a mound duel with Dave Hillman (5-7) of the Cubs.

"We've been getting the finest pitching since I've been managing this club," said Manager Bill Rigney after yesterday's 5-1 win for a two-game sweep over the St. Louis Cardinals.

"It also looks as though our boys are going to break out of their batting slump a bit," he said as he noted that the Giants clubbed out 11 safeties yesterday. Rigney gave Antonelli credit for improving Jack Sanford's mound work yesterday.

"Johnny taught both Sanford and Mike McCormick how to throw a changeup," said Rigney, "and that's the difference."

CARDS WORN OUT

Manager Solly Hemus of the Cards said:

"San Francisco has been wearing us out all year."

San Francisco has won 11 and lost only three to St. Louis so far this year. In the two games against the Cards this week McCormick and Sanford each pitched eight and two-thirds innings of shutout ball before allowing a run.

Four of the five Giants runs yesterday were unearned. They got two in the first inning when Willie Mays and Orlando Cepeda scored on Ken Boyer's error on a hard smash by Daryl Spencer.

FINAL RALLIES

One more came across in the seventh on two infield hits and an error; and two crossed the plate in the eighth on singles by Bob Schmidt, Eddie Bressoud, Jackie Brandt and Jim Davenport, plus an error by pitcher Lindy McDaniel. Wilmer Mizell was the losing hurler.

Rigney said he "probably" would start little Stu Miller tomorrow against the Cubs, using Sam Jones on Sunday.

Giant Jottings: Gino Cimoli, Cardinal outfielder, and a San Francisco boy, says: "We just can't beat the Giants. We make foolish plays against them that we don't make against anyone else." . . . Giant pitchers have allowed only six runs in the four games of their home stand . . . the last five Giant pitchers have gone the distance . . . Outfielder Willie Mays has a stiff neck and was taken out of the game for the final inning yesterday, but he will be back in action tonight.

Pastrano, Johnson Clash Tonight In 10-Round TV Bout

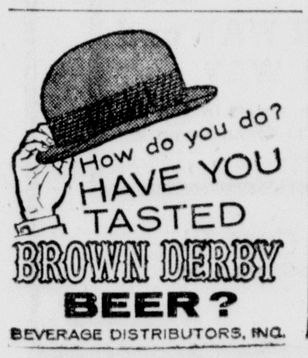
LOUISVILLE, Ky. (AP)—Willie Pastrano, who never has been knocked off his feet, takes on Alonzo Johnson tonight in a heavyweight 10-rounder which is a must for both fighters.

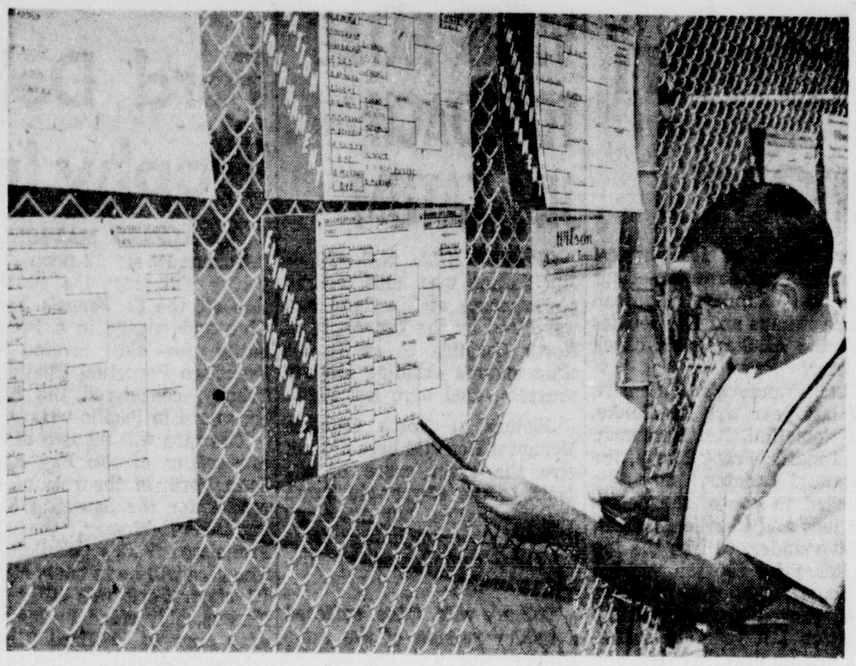
The National Boxing Assn. ranks Johnson seventh. The NBA has Pastrano unranked but Ring magazine rates him eighth.

The nimble Pastrano needs to win to remain a contender. Johnson has won 12 in a row and needs the fight to continue his fistic rise.

Pastrano originally was scheduled to meet Alex Miteff, but Miteff was ailing.

Johnson, whose home is in Braddock, Pa., has won 17 of 18 fights. Pastrano, of Miami, has a 48-7-5 record.





CHECKING FINALISTS — Art Morris of the San Rafael Recreation Department checks the brackets board to see what's in store for Marin's junior tennis stars at Albert Park tomorrow. Braves, Bums Lose Key Men; Turning Point In N.L. Race?

By ASSOCIATED PRESS

If there's to be a turning point in the tight fight for the National League pennant, it may be at hand—not in the won-lost records or batting averages, but in the injury lists.

For while right-hander Jack Sanford proved himself sound again by pitching first-place San Francisco to a 5-1 victory over St. Louis yesterday, Milwaukee's third place Braves found they'll have to do without slugging Ed Mathews indefinitely. And second-place Los Angeles lost Gil Hodges for at least a week.

Hodges, the man with the big bat in the Dodgers' comeback, pulled a leg muscle after his 19th home run had touched off a 5-3 victory over the Chicago Cubs.

Mathews, the N.L. home run leader with 29, was kept out of the lineup because of a bruised hip, suffered Wednesday, as the Braves slipped 4½ games behind with a 6-2 defeat by Cincinnati. It was the only other game scheduled in the N.L.

In the American, Minnie Minoso's grand-slam homer triggered a seven-run sixth inning that gave Cleveland an 8-5 victory over New York. Kansas City rapped Baltimore 9-5 and regained sixth place from Washington, beaten 11-2 by Detroit.

Hodges broke up a scoreless tie with a two-run homer in the fourth, then was injured sliding in the sixth. The big first baseman is batting .293.

Wally Moon also homered for the Dodgers, his seventh, and forced in another run with a bases loaded walk in a two-run seventh that nailed it for Larry Sherry (1-2). The young righthander singled home the clincher in the seventh for his first major league victory, but needed Don Drysdale's saving relief job after Ernie Banks singled home two runs in the eighth. Moe Drabowsky (4-8) was the loser.

Willie Jones' grand-slam homer beat the Braves in the eighth after a two-out error by second baseman Bobby Avila.

Loser Joey Jay (3-7) had shut out the Reds on four hits for 7⅔ innings before singles by Frank Robinson and Jerry Lynch and the error set up Jones' eighth homer. Brooks Lawrence (5-9) was the winner in relief, pairing with starter Bob Purkey to check the Braves on three hits.

SHOOTING STARTS TOMORROW

'Fair' Deer Season Forecast In Marin

California's coastal deer season opens Saturday at dawn with prospects ranging from poor to excellent and fire danger high in all areas.

Shooting opens a half-hour before sunrise. The limit is two bucks, forked horns or better, in all areas.

Generally, the Fish and Game Department predicts only a fair season unless the weather gets cooler and wetter.

Public lands will offer poorer prospects than a year ago, but hunting on private lands should be good.

The deer are in good to excellent condition, generally sleek and prime. The ranges are dry and the weather unusually warm.

Most of the prime areas are on private or gun club land, with trespass permission a must for the unattached hunter.

Such is the case in Marin County as all hunting areas are privately owned.

Game Warden Al Giddings predicted a "fair" season for Marin and said he expects approximately 600 deer to be killed this season—a slight increase over last year. The Marin record kill is 1054 bucks in 1954, according to Giddings.

Giddings said the western Marin area starting at Nicasio should provide the best hunting, adding the deer "look in good condition now, but there'll be a shortage of browse later in the year."

This is a problem that has effected deer in northern Marin around Novato, the game warden said. There was a slight die-off of deer in that area last fall, he explained, because of the shortage of browse. "We found eight dead deer in one day," Giddings added.

Giddings reminded local hunters to tag their deer immediately and have them validated.

He also pointed out that hunters traveling through the Tamalpais Game Refuge must have their weapons unloaded and encased.

CHIEF WARNS HUNTERS OF FIRE HAZARD

Marin County Fire Chief Charles F. Reilley today reminded hunters of the high fire hazard and urged them to use extreme caution during the deer season which starts tomorrow.

"The area is explosively dry because of the little rainfall and recent high temperatures," Reilley stated, "and it only takes a spark to touch off a blaze."

The chief added: "In the past our local hunters have gained a fine reputation for using caution and I hope they keep up the record. Also, I hope they'll warn other hunters of the fire hazard."

Rams Lose Waller For This Season

LOS ANGELES (AP)—Halfback Ron Waller will not play with the Los Angeles Rams this season.

Waller notified the Rams' office yesterday that he will remain out of football this year, hoping to heal shoulder and knee injuries that plagued him last year. Waller, former Maryland star, was all-pro in his freshman year in 1955.

Big Beefy 49er Freshmen Start Practice Tomorrow

When the San Francisco 49ers list a 235-pound football player as a "smaller hopeful" one gets an idea of the beef available at their rookie camp that opens in Moraga tomorrow.

No less than eight of the ex-collegians top the scales at 240 or more and two more of that general poundage will report after the All-Star Game in Chicago.

Which proves the 49ers seek bulwarks for their forward walls, offense and defense, for the National Football League campaign.

Lynn "Pappy" Waldorf tagged the following neophytes for head coach Red Hickey:

Monte Clark, 6-6, 260, Southern California; Henry Schmidt, 6-4, 260, Trinity; George Shirkey, 6-4, 250, Austin; Ted Stahura, 6-0, 250, Pittsburgh State; Hogan Wharton, 6-2, 245, Houston; Don Rogers, 6-2, 245, South Carolina; Bill Kortuz, 6-2, 255, Dayton; and Wally Bavaro, 6-4, 240, Holy Cross.

After the All-Stars play, Dan James, 6-2, and 245 from Ohio State, and Frank Geremia, 6-3, 245, Notre Dame, join the fun at St. Mary's College where the 49ers train.

Listed as the "smaller hopefuls" were Jack Bolton, 6-3, 235 from Puget Sound; Bob Carter, 6-3, 230, Denver; and Vel Heckman, 6-0, 230, Florida.

Trades that sent away veteran lineman Bob Toneff and Lou Palatella show hope for line talent from the rookies. Some figure as many as 12 first-year men will stick.

"Our defenses gave up 5.4 yards last year every time the other team ran the ball, the worst showing in the league," the new head coach commented.

Thirty rookies and 15 veterans, including quarterbacks Y. A. Tittle and John Brodie, report tomorrow for physical exams and get down to serious work on Sunday. Eighteen more veterans and five rookies from the All-Star game check in later.

San Francisco's defensive line last year was Ed Henke, Leo Nomellini, Bill Herchman and Toneff. Frank Morze, the 280-pound center, may be switched to one of the defensive jobs and Charlie Krueger, a 250-pounder, will be the top candidate for the job vacated by Toneff. Krueger, of Texas A&M, proved a training camp sensation last year but suffered a broken arm that kept him out of the regular schedule.

VIRUS FATAL TO COACH JIM TATUM

CHAPEL HILL, N.C. (UPI) — Jim Tatum, who built football powerhouses at Maryland and was hired by the University of North Carolina to revive his alma mater's skidding football program, died here last night.

Doctors at North Carolina Memorial Hospital here did not give the exact cause of the death of the 45-year-old South Carolina native, but described it as an "overwhelming" virus infection complicated by uremic poisoning.

Tatum's wife, Edna, suffered a milder version of the same ailment and was quarantined at home with their three children. University officials said there was no sign of the illness among the children, Rebecca, 14, James Jr., 13, and Edna Reid, 7.

Tatum, who had been in Montreal with his family as guests of Coach Douglas Walker of the Montreal Alouettes, had returned home last week following the sudden death in the same hospital here of his 54-year-old sister, Mrs. Agnes Tatum Brown of Laurinburg, N.C.

HOSPITALIZED SUNDAY

He was stricken shortly after his return and was admitted to the hospital Sunday for diagnostic studies.

Shortly before 11 p.m. the colorful and popular coach died in his private room at the end of a dimly-lighted corridor on the sixth floor of the hospital.

Always the center of controversy, Tatum returned to his alma mater here just four years ago. He wanted to rebuild the school into a national football power.

He came from the University of Maryland, where he had built a football dynasty in nine years. His teams there played in three bowl games. In 1953 his team was named national champion and Tatum was voted "Coach of the Year."

United States railroad payrolls totaled almost five billion dollars in 1958.

Ford Defends Coveted Yacht Trophy In Bay Duel Tomorrow

By ALFRED MATSON

Tomorrow at 12 noon two yachts will cross the starting line off the St. Francis Yacht Club and engage in a 14-mile battle for the coveted San Francisco Perpetual Challenge Trophy, considered the highest award in Pacific waters.

The race will pit two of the top sailors of the Bay Area, John Ford, in the role of defender for the Sausalito Y.C., and Jake Wosser, the San Francisco Y.C.'s challenger. The race will be in boats of the IC class. Ford will tiller the Norena, ably aided by his veteran crew of Willard Gilson, "Heinie" Bigall, Commodore Fred Crawford and Rowland Whitaker. Wosser will skipper his own boat, Rutsan, and will look to Frank Duhme, Ritchie Owen, Roy Ashley and John Rumsey to aid him in unseating the champion of the past four years.

A large fleet of spectator boats will follow the race, for the shoreside viewers the contestants' numbers are Norena, 75, and Rutsan, 79 and are so indicated on their mainsails and spinnakers.

The perpetual challenge trophy, a time-worn silver mug of Victorian design, was initially the object of a race back in 1895 between the El Sueno of the Encinal Y.C. and the Queen, the challenger of the SFYC. The defending club emerged the winner in that race and again the following year, but in the years to come the trophy found many and widely separated homes.

In 1907 the yatchsmen of southern California made their first bid, but were defeated. Undaunted, during the next 40 years, 11 more such quests were equally as fruitless; in 1949 their efforts were finally rewarded when the Hanahuli of the Los Angeles Y.C. defeated the "Dream" of the SFYC In the next four years as many challengers went south. The first three were defeated, but the fourth was not to be denied. Dennis Jordan, now commodore of the St. Francis Y.C. was the hero.

NEXT WEEK has been designated "Mercury Week," may be not by the President or even Governor but it still is, to the Mercury class racers of the far west. There will be four days of racing—Monday, Tuesday, Thursday and Friday, with a double feature on Thursday.

All contests will be sailed in the Richardson Bay-Racoon Strait area and are sponsored jointly by the San Francisco, Sausalito and Corinthian clubs.

MULTIHULLS VIE TOMORROW

A dozen of the nation's fastest multihull sail boats will participate in the Pacific Coast Multihull Championship Regetta tomorrow on Richardson Bay and Sunday off the San Francisco Marina starting at 11 a.m. each day. Typical of the speedy craft will be the 20-foot tri Maran Caper (above), piloted by owner-builder Fred Jukich of Mill Valley.

BOWDRY FIGHT

Big Money Ahead For Sixto If...

Sixto Rodriguez of San Anselmo has appeared in San Francisco rings five times as a pro, but his match against highly-regarded Jesse Bowdry at the Civic Auditorium, Thursday, July 30, will be his first main event in this city.

The 22-year-old California state light heavyweight champion, who lost only one in 23 bouts, will be on the road to bigger money matches if he can get over the hard-hitting St. Louis fighter.

"We can get a lot of work for Sixto," said Matchmaker Bennie Ford of the San Francisco Boxing Club. "The light heavyweight division is rich in talent and Rodriguez can make some big money by staying right here at home."

Rodriguez had his first pro fight in the old San Francisco Gardens in June, 1956, stopping Ted Juarez in three rounds. This was shortly after he won the Golden Gloves middleweight title and lost in the finals of the National Tournament at Boston.

In subsequent local appearances, Kid Sixto won decisions over Billy Ricks, Tommy Villa, Joe Neal and Ted Martin.

Bowdry, recent winner over Tony Anthony in a nationally televised bout, arrives in San Francisco tomorrow for his first appearance on the west coast.

He is the fourth-ranked light heavyweight contender, according to Ring Magazine. Only Yvon Durelle, Harold Johnson and Erich Schoppner are rated ahead of him for Archie Moore's 175-pound crown.

His most recent success was a decisive triumph over Tony Anthony last month in a nationally-televised bout.

The 20-year-old midwesterner had 20 kayo wins to his credit.

Rodriguez is unranked nationally.

Assistant matchmaker Mario Spampinato has paired Willie Anderson, Bowdry's stablemate, in a six round semi-final match with Johnny Payne, San Francisco. They are middleweights.

In other supporting bouts, all four-rounders, Bill Pate, Oakland meets Fred Roots, Stockton, middleweights; Luke Souza, San Luis Obispo, faces Joe Fano, San Francisco, middleweights, and Julio Lau, San Francisco, mixes with Joe Vargas, Stockston, featherweights. Another four will be added.

Crucial Tilt In S.R. Little League

Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop, boasting a 6-1 win-loss record, meets Cerutti Brothers (5-2) tonight to determine the second half championship of the San Rafael American Little League. KTIM will broadcast the crucial game at 6 o'clock.

T and B defeated the Kiwanis, 8-5, Wednesday while Cerutti demained in contention with a 13-9 win over the Elks. The Cerutti team won the first half championship with a 6-2 record.

Smoke But No Fire

STERLING, Ill. (AP) — Where there's smoke there is fire didn't prove out for Sterling firemen who chased a smoking truck down the street. The truck had blown a head gasket and the engine was burning oil.

BIG UPSET IN DRAKE LEAGUE

Cox and Co. quintet made its first victory of the season a big one last night by knocking off the previously-undefeated Quality Liquors team, 40-35 in the Drake Summer Basketball League.

Bill Gallagher scored 15 points and Ron Good added 10 to pace the big upset. Joe McGrath tanked 14 for Quality.

In other games the Giacomini cagers downed Pinky's Pizza, 42-36 and Billings and Hutchison remained undefeated with a 42-32 decision over Taveggia-Brusati Sports Shop.

High scorer of the night was Phil Vukicevich of Billings-Hutchison with 16 markers.

Playoffs Tomorrow In Fairfax League

Adams and Watt, winner of the second half of the Fairfax-Sleepy Hollow Little League, will meet the Medicinmen, winners of the first half, at 11 a.m. tomorrow at the Fairfax City Park Field to determine the champion of the minor National League.

The victor of this game will then meet the winner of the Fairfax minor American League the following Saturday.

I-J Scribes Connolly, Hanley Hash Over Antonelli Flareup

By JOHN J. CONNOLLY

The Johnny Antonelli "brannigan" could bring about many changes in press relations between players and newsmen.

What Antonelli had to say about the "wind" didn't rate an inch of copy in any fishwrapper. But because he happened to be going after his 15th victory of the year, and because he has had a couple of other brushes with newsmen, the Giant southpaw winds up apologizing—and with his tongue in cheek.

There are many prima donnas in baseball and it so happens that Antonelli is one of them. He's young, tall, dark, and handsome and likes to strut.

Undoubtedly he popped off without thinking. And the aftermath of his folly is likely to bring about a new deal in press relations.

The late John J. McGraw of the Giants had one press conference daily. After that you couldn't talk to him, enter the clubhouse, or discuss anything with him until the next day.

For years in Coast League baseball, the managers of both teams stopped in the press room after the game to answer questions and the managers spoke for their players.

It worked out pretty good and, until the Giants invaded minor league territories, no baseball reporter ever had the audacity to question either winning or losing pitcher AFTER a contest.

BUT TODAY the same guy who started the whole rumpus—Antonelli—was the first to get into a beef with a "minor league reporter."

Antonelli, when he came to S. F., thought nobody but a New York reporter meant a thing. He found out soon, and the press gang in S. F. forgave and forgot the insult he was alleged to have made.

Now we find Antonelli is in the midst of a flare of temperament.

Antonelli, and all the rest of the so-called New Yorkers transplanted in S. F., should be told of that long before they came west the gang out here were okay guys.

San Francisco and the far west sent more good ball players to the big leagues than Antonelli can mention.

And San Francisco sent up better southpaw pitchers than Antonelli.

BUT SOONER than rave about Antonelli being a stuck-up kid, the press ought to forget him completely. What he said about San Francisco and the wind in the heat of argument was what he really, down deep, thought. And if that is what he thinks, then it is my firm belief he should be given a good cooling off, press-wise, fan-wise, and public-wise.

Apologies are hard to give and show the traits of sportsmanship. But this is Antonelli's second offense and the law doesn't always smile on a guy after he has made two mistakes.

ANTONELLI'S FRIENDS and many of the Giant brass were really surprised at the Babe Pinelli story about cry-baby ball players. In fact when when I met Walter Mails he chided me for defending Pinelli.

And then along comes Antonelli and his display of temper to prove how right Pinelli was.

Sad Sam Jones did the same thing, only worse and more of it at Los Angeles when he was "robbed" of a no-hitter.

But sooner or later the big leaguers pioneering major league baseball in the west should be told that the Indians left the west many years ago. In fact it is no cinch that the big leaguers have created any improvement of the breed.

So if Antonelli and the other cry-baby Giants feel S. F. is a poor place to work for top wages, they should be given the train, bus, or plane schedules and take off.

By JACK HANLEY

Much ado about Johnny Antonelli's comments after he lost that ninth inning 3-2 decision to the Dodgers might have given the impression that Johnny is a sorehead—and a popoff sorehead, at that.

After a restful night's sleep, Johnny undoubtedly was a little startled to read what he had said. He did not deny saying it, but wished he could recall the harsh remarks — or, at least, wished that the dressing room reporters had tempered his comments.

As honest and meticulous reporters they quoted Antonelli verbatim—except one of his comments about Seals Stadium. One writer said Antonelli called it an "unmentionable" place, explaining "only John did not say 'unmentionable.'"

Now, we have a pretty good idea of the word Johnny used although we were not present at the time, being busy writing the spot story of that game while the dressing room interview was in progress.

It is a word that virtually all ball players use time and again in describing displeasure of anything not precisely to their liking.

The writer who used the word "unmentionable" as a substitute for the one Antonelli employed left a wide area of doubt as to just what kind of language the gentlemanly southpaw uses when angry. There was even a greater gap left by other writers who just used blanks.

Because Antonelli's verbal blast about Seals Stadium winds has been quoted and requoted with some ear-burning and cursing prefixes supposedly used by him, we thought the record should be set straight.

We never heard Antonelli curse. Neither have his teammates. We mention this only to clarify the record and not to indulge in any discussion of right or wrong morals.

THE EXTREMELY sensitive San Francisco press felt so righteous in its umbrage at Antonelli's remarks that even editorial writers took a couple of potshots at the southpaw pitcher. One editorial writer, obviously with no knowledge whatsoever of how emotionally low a pitcher feels after losing a four-hitter, chastised Johnny severely—even suggesting that Horace Stoneham send him to a windless ball park. How silly can you get?

Antonelli may not be a suave diplomat in defeat. The pitcher who is an "I-don't-care-guy" is not worth his salt. They're all soreheads — but only temporary popoff soreheads—when they lose four-hitters by one run.

Dutch Ruether during spring training this year was reminiscing about some of his pitching duels, when a writer interrupted him to ask how he felt after losing a 1-0 decision and he said:

"You don't want to talk to anyone—not even your wife. In fact, you'd like to kick her."

Leo Clausen Champ Of Hub Golf Tourney

Big Leo Clausen, the long-ball hitting salesman for De-Long Chevrolet of San Rafael, walked off with the top prize this week in the annual San Anselmo Businessmen's Golf Tournament at the Marin Golf Club, Loma Verde.

Larrupin' Leo grossed an 81 in the 18-hole medal handicap test and with a 15 handicap netted 66 to gain a three-stroke victory in the Championship Flight.

San Anselmo fireman Al Colombo, playing in the foursome directly behind Clausen, staged a dramatic chase and threatened to overhaul Leo before fading on the final holes. Colombo finished with a net 69.

Two low handicappers—Bobby Brossier and Milt Moreley—tied for third at 71 net, Brossier with six handicap strokes Morely with four.

74 BY JAKOBSEN

Best actual score of the day was turned in by young Tom Jakobsen of San Anselmo, star of the University of Oregon's links team. He carded a 74. Other creditable gross cards were Morley and Byron Eggleston with 75s, Howard Mead with a 76, Brossier, T. Dixon and Larry Callan with 77s, Vern Gilstrap with 78 and H. Lawrence with 79.

Mead, of Equitable Insurance Co., won the Mayor's Flight with a net 60, followed by Bob Russell of Corte Madera with a 69.

The Hub City Flight was captured by little Frank Sampietro of the Marin Golf Club with his 61. Myron Spencer of San Rafael was second, two strokes back.

San Anselmo Police Officer John Orr and real estate salesman John Greisen tied for the Red Hill Flight title at 58. Orr shot a 111 and got 53 handicap strokes. Greisen had a 39 handicap to help his 97 gross.

BRUCE TOP GUEST

George Bruce of Fairfax walked off with Guest Flight honors with 106-37—69 while there was an interesting tie for second between Callan, of San Rafael, who fired a nifty 77, and Jesse Carlton of Sausalito, who grossed 126. The former had a six handicap and the latter 55 to net 71.

Chairman John Bell reported this tournament the best in the history of the popular event.

HERE'S WHEN A VOLKSWAGEN MAKES SENSE

WHEN YOU BUY IT, you pay only $2055. A Volkswagen Panel Truck gives more payload (1830 lbs.) and more capacity (170 cu. ft.) than trucks costing $300 to $700 more. You save right at the start!

WHEN YOU LOAD IT, you load through wide, double side doors and a wide rear door. This means faster, smoother deliveries even on crowded, traffic-heavy streets. Doors on both sides are optional . . . so are split seats.

WHEN YOU DRIVE IT, you get the handling ease and maneuverability of an automobile. A Volkswagen turns sharper, climbs easily, delivers all the speed you need with the famous VW air-cooled rear engine.

WHEN YOU PARK IT, you park in places that usual trucks can't tackle. (What's more important to a delivery vehicle?) A Volkswagen Panel Truck is 3 feet shorter than standard automobiles.

WHEN YOU FUEL IT, you save money. A Volkswagen uses regular gas. It delivers twice the miles per gallon of usual ½-ton trucks. A Volkswagen makes even small deliveries economical.

WHEN YOU SERVICE IT, you'll find fast, expert service and genuine VW spare parts in every one of the 50 states. Come in and see the Volkswagen Panel Truck today. Nothing else like it.

Missing Society Girl Found Unharmed, Tells Of Kidnap

Says Two Armed Men Abducted Her At Airport

CHICAGO (UPI)—New Jersey society girl Jacqueline Gay Hart, 21, was found hysterical and incoherent, but apparently unharmed, early today on a downtown street, more than 48 hours after she disappeared from the Newark, N.J., airport.

She said she had been kidnaped from the brightly-lighted airport parking lot by two men who bound her, held her on an automobile floor at gunpoint and bragged "we're going to collect lots of money from your parents."

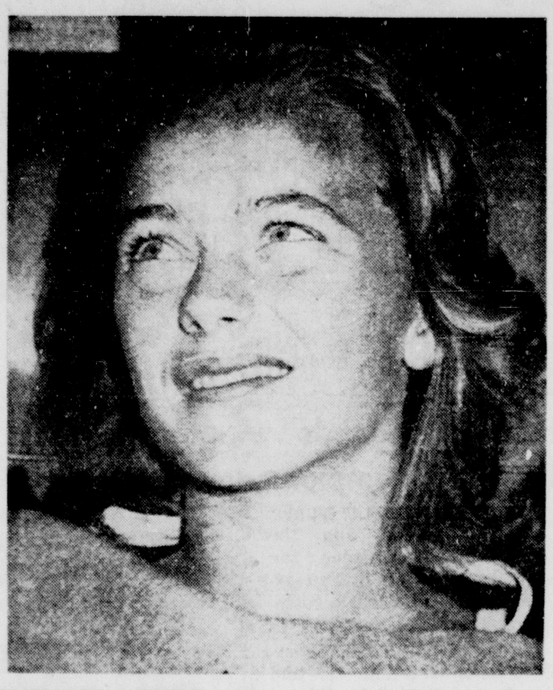
No ramson demand was received by the family, according to the girl's mother, Mrs. Laura Hart of Short Hills, N.J.

Deputy chief of Chicago detectives Howard Pierson said he had not discounted the possibility the beautiful blonde bride-to-be had had a recurrence of amnesia which affected her memory after an automobile accident two years ago.

The Chicago FBI Chief Richard A. Auerbach assigned agents to the case.

Police said when she became aware of their skepticism, Miss Hart offered to take a lie detector test to back up her story. There was no immediate decision as to whether it would be given her.

The girl's father, Ralph A. Hart, executive vice president of the Colgate-Palmolive Co., left Newark airport at 8:19 a.m. aboard a Capital Airlines plane that was due in Chicago at 11 a.m. Hart was accompanied by Miss Hart's fiance, Stanley Noyes Gaines, 25.



MANAGES A SMILE — Jacqueline Gay Hart, 21, Short Hills, N.J., socialite, tries to smile as she tells police in Chicago of her abduction Wednesday from a Newark, N.J., parking lot. She was found wandering in a Chicago park today. The left side of her face is bruised. (AP Wirephoto)

"Daddy, I'm scared," Miss Hart told her father by telephone. "Come and get me."

Shortly after 6 a.m. she roused enough to pose for pictures and to talk briefly to newsmen. Her hair was combed, and she smiled wanly for photographers, but a tear crept down her cheek occasionally.

"I feel fine," she said. "I'd rather not talk about it right now."

She said she was not molested in any way, but she had suffered bruises of the arms. She had a small red mark on the left side of her forehead and bruises on her arms were visible.

Miss Hart insisted she got no description of the men who she said abducted her, nor had she any idea what their car looked like.

Fact-Finders Probing Steel Strike For Ike

WASHINGTON (AP) — Squads of government fact-finders concentrated today on steel strike data to provide President Eisenhower with the most exhaustive survey of its kind ever made.

As the strike moved into its 10th day, periodic reports were being sent to the White House by federal experts as soon as they were completed.

$100 MILLION LOST

The half-million striking steelworkers already have lost nearly 100 million dollars in pay. About 10 million will be added to the wage loss each day the strike continues.

With about 90 per cent of the nation's steelmaking at a standstill, daily production losses were estimated at nearly 43 million dollars. Losses also were mounting in allied fields where an estimated 45,500 workers have been furloughed.

MONDAY MEETING

Federal mediators have scheduled a meeting Monday in New York, the first joint session since the strike began.

What are the prospects for settlement? Not very bright, according to Joseph F. Finnegan, director of the Federal Mediation and Conciliation Service.

"I still see no early or easy settlement," Finnegan told reporters. The fact that both sides will again sit down together does not imply any change in the position of either, he said.

But he added: "We feel we now have a better orientation on the differences between the two sides."

Teamster Lawyer Didn't Offer Bribe, Crum Says

WASHINGTON (AP)—Bartley C. Crum says he did not mean to imply in sworn testimony that Edward Bennett Williams, a Teamsters Union attorney, had offered him a bribe.

Crum, a New York lawyer, filed a statement Thursday with the Senate Labor-Management Committee saying his relations with Williams had been on the highest professional level.

In testimony to the committee July 13, Crum said Williams told him the Teamsters would pay the fees of Godfrey P. Schmidt as a court-appointed monitor for the union if Crum did not testify to the committee.

But in his statement Thursday Crum said he wanted the record to show that no inference should be drawn from his testimony about a conversation with Williams that the payment of Schmidt's fees hinged on Crum's not testifying.

Crum said there was no foundation whatsoever for an inference that Williams in effect offered a bribe.

Crum has represented Schmidt in Schmidt's efforts to collect $28,000 in fees from the union for his monitor services. Schmidt recently resigned as one of the three Teamsters monitors.

Williams told the committee July 13 that Crum's statements about him were completely false. Thursday Williams told a reporter Crum's testimony "was false and this is his way of conceding it, as far as I am concerned."

Sen. John L. McClellan (D-Ark.), committee chairman, said Crum's new statement emphasizes the necessity for the Justice Department "to pursue the matter with a view of determining who committed perjury and to prosecute the guilty and vindicate the innocent."

SMOKE SIGNAL INVITE

Indians Hold Pow-Wow Atop New Skyscraper

NEW YORK (AP) — It took a canny eye indeed to interpret the smoke signals rising from the 40-story teepee in the city's financial district.

But the redskin construction workers and the paleface press agents got the word.

A party of braves sent up the signals yesterday after bolting the last beam in place atop the steel structure of a new building.

They said they wanted to invite some tribesmen, working a block away, for a celebration.

Publicity pow-wow? By no means, protested the Indians. And a group of press agents, who had shown up for no clear reason, heartily agreed.

One of the braves cranked a riveter's forge on top of the new structure and sulphur was thrown on the coals.

The smoke was beautiful, but a brisk wind broke up the clouds and mixed them into larger billows from a nearby power plant.

Nonetheless, and to no one's astonishment, the other Indians started arriving immediately and there was friendly drinking of toasts all around.

Working on tall buildings is old stuff for many of Manhattan's Mohawks. They're good at it because, they claim, they don't suffer from the usual white man's fear of high places.

Youth Admits Burglary In Terra Linda

A 16-year-old San Rafael boy confessed yesterday he stole $32.50 in cash and $281 in checks from a Terra Linda doctor's office Tuesday night.

Undersheriff Eugene Meyer assigned to the case Inspector William Bradley, Identification Chief Earl Cummesky, and Deputy Arthur Leal. They traced the youth through fingerprints on glass louvers.

The youth told officers he went to the office of Dr. Ralph W. Jacobs at 416 Hickory lane between 10 and 11 p.m. Tuesday. After he had removed three of four louvers, he heard someone approach and he left. He later returned to finish the job, taking out the fourth louver and creeping inside.

The boy said he had been to the office with another person about a year ago and remembered where the money was kept.

He told officers he destroyed the checks and spent most of the cash on his car. He works as box boy at a local market.

The young thief told Inspector Bradley he carefully wiped his fingerprints off the cabinet inside the office and thought he had wiped the prints off the glass louvers also.

Zone Change For Land In Novato Asked

William and Irene Nave of Novato have petitioned the county planning commission for a change from limited agricultural to retail commercial zoning of a small parcel of land near Center road and South Novato boulevard in Novato.

A planning staff spokesman said the change would "fill out" a section that naturally lies within such a zoned area. The parcel is located to the rear of two parcels zoned commercial that front on Center and on South Novato boulevard.

The petition will be given a public hearing at 2 p.m. Aug. 3 at 1711 Grand avenue, San Rafael.

Subdividing Up, State Reports

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — The state Division of Real Estate announced recently that subdivision filings are 38 per cent above the volume filed last year.

The record year for subdivisions was 1955, when 3,411 tracts were filed. The department estimates that about 3,000 new tracts will be started this year.

Truck Safety Measure Signed

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown has signed bills requiring safety devices on truck brakes and requiring diesel engines to be manned with a fireman as well as an engineer.

The brake bill requires that a safety device approved by the Highway Patrol be installed on trucks equipped with air brakes. The device should bring the truck to a controlled stop in case of air pressure failure.

The diesel engine bill extends the present so-called "full crew law" to cover diesels as well as steam engines.

AT A RECENT rehearsal for the Northgate Fashion Luncheon to be held July 29 at the Marin Art and Garden Center sponsored by Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., and the Humane Society, the youngsters who attended with their mothers had great fun making friends with a Golden Retriever pup . . . but once the women finished rehearsing, guess who got the pup? Pictured, left to right, are waitresses for the affair, Mesdames W. James Dawson, George Fernbacher and S. K. Herzog Jr.

ONE OF THE PROBLEMS of most volunteers is how to crowd more hours into every week. Maybe that was why Mesdames Myron Du Bain, Henry Hillebrand III and Walter Meinberger, left to right, were so intrigued with the Lambretti scooter used by a co-worker. The three women, who devote many hours to Guide Dogs for the Blind, Inc., will model at the second Northgate Luncheon. Tickets for the popular summer series are by reservation only.

NO DOUBT, IN ANOTHER 10 years things will be different. Scott and Fore Dawson, left to right above, weren't the least interested when their mother, Mrs. W. James Dawson and other attractive young women practiced for the Northgate luncheon. As everyone "ohed and ahed," the boys quietly sneaked out for an impromptu luncheon under the trees.

Nautical Activity Planned By Scouts Marin Yacht Club

The Girl Scouts are sponsoring a nautical activity program at the Marin Yacht Club. Mrs. Robert O'Connell is the director, assisted by Mesdames Joseph Nunes, Charles Lavaroni, Robert Laufer, and John Curtin.

Two professional consultants have been used—Mrs. Charles Geller and Lieut. Mahon. Mrs. Geller took the girls on an exploration trip along the beach. Lieut. Mahon, U. S. Coast Guard, visited and spoke on the rules and regulations of small craft.

Girls are learning to row boats, how to read tide and weather charts, make knot belts, and perfect their swimming strokes. The two week class has the following girls enrolled: Shelley Anton, Diane Ferrier, Jackie Newman, Janet Rigsbee, Kerry Warnock, all of Kentfield; Elizabeth Brennan, Ignacio; Gail Coulter, Susan Empio, Linda Sparrow, Novato; Dorothy Fleming, Linda Graver, Cynthia Hurley, Mill Valley; Susan Gabbs, Jeanne Garner, Joan Garner, Carolyn Zeiss, Ross, and Nancy Mann, Marie Rundberg, Madelon Walsh, San Rafael.

Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Edwin L. Tucker will be guests of honor at a cocktail party tomorrow night at the Officers' Club at Hamilton Air Force Base. The general, vice commander of Western Air Defense Force, is retiring from the Air Force on July 31 and the party is an official farewell.

Hosts for the evening will be Maj. General Hugh A. Parker, commander of Western Air Defense Force, and Mrs. Parker along with other officers of WADF and their wives.

The guest list includes Lt. Gen. Roy H. Lynn and Maj. Gen. Frank E. Rouse from Air Defense Command Headquarters in Colorado Springs; Maj. Gen. and Mrs. E. J. McGaw and Col. and Mrs. M. M. Irvine from 6th Army ADC.

Also Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Sory Smith, Col. and Mrs. George Northrup, and Col. and Mrs. James J. Roberts, all of 4th Air Force.

Other guests will include Maj. Gen. and Mrs. Curtis R. Low, Colonel and Mrs. Howard Cheney, Col. and Mrs. Thomas L. Hayes, Col. and Mrs. Rupert C. Welch, Colonel and Mrs. Paulett Spivey, Brig. Gen. and Mrs. Prescott Spicer, and Col. and Mrs. George S. Ceuleers.

Reception To Follow Trophy Race

"Noreena," skippered by John Ford, will be the Sausalito Yacht Club Defender in the Fifty-Third Annual San Francisco Perpetual Challenge Trophy Race on Saturday, at noon, starting at the racing buoys off St. Francis Yacht Club, San Francisco.

The silver cup is reputed to be the oldest sporting trophy west of the Mississippi, and is in size about the same as the famous American Cup.

Sausalito Yacht Club has held the cup four years, and the Challenger is San Francisco Yacht Club, skipper, Jake Wosser, in "Rutsan."

Crew for Sausalito Yacht Club includes Commodore Dink Crawford, rear commodore, Heinie Bigall, Bill Whitaker, and Bud Gilson, owner of "Noreena." San Francisco Yacht Club crew is John Rumsey, Richard Owens, Frank Duhme, and Roy Ashley.

Immediately following the race there will be a champagne reception at the old Sausalito Yacht Club clubhouse, with the winning and losing crews, members and guests of Sausalito Yacht Club and San Francisco Yacht Club attending. About 57 are expected to attend. Mrs. Bill Whitaker is chairman of the arrangements for the reception.

Reed P-T Club Has Contributed More Than $20,000 On Projects

With pardonable pride the Reed District Parent-Teacher Club is announcing that over the past six years it has raised and spent more than $20,000 on school and community projects. Included in this impressive figure are such items as contributions to KQED, the Bay Area Educational TV channel; petty cash to each teacher for use for miscellaneous classroom needs and a sizeable contribution of over $10,000 for outdoor planning including landscaping and equipment.

Outdoor planning, which has been the club's major emphasis for the past several years has been pointed toward creating atttractive and useful settings for the schools. Under the direction of a committee, outdoor classrooms have been constructed at the Reed School, gardens planted, and the entrance made more attractive through use of planters. Future plans call for black-top and turf on the playground.

During the past year a rock retaining wall has been built at the Tiburon School and at the Belvedere School a large play area was paved, a windbreak built, and a charming mural added to the wall at the kindergarten play yard. This area is now known as "The Mural Room."

One of the most rewarding activities of this committee was the establishment of a tree nursery behind the Reed School. Over a year ago, 2,000 six-inch seedlings were planted. Today they are nearly four feet high and are valued conservatively at $4,000.

When construction at the Bel Aire School is completed, the committee will proceed with plans which have been drawn up by a landscape architect. Meanwhile fathers have been contributing a great deal of time in building planting boxes and walls. Many of the trees from the nursery will be used at this school.

MAJOR PROJECT

During the past year the Club has taken on another major project — books and libraries. This includes acquisition, processing, disposition, plus the stimulation of reading for both children and adults. The Club even entered the publishing field briefly.

Early in the year the Club set a goal of $1,100 to be raised for school libraries. This was easily met from the proceeds of the annual Valentine Dance, and a library committee was appointed to unify the efforts of the several schools in establishing libraries. Selection of the books was left entirely to the school administration.

BOOK FAIR

In November the Fourth Annual Book Fair was held and, as usual, was tremendously successful. Profits of $750 were allocated to the four District schools. It is of interest to note that $3,200 worth of books were sold to the children and adults who attended the Fair. As an additional stimulus to reading, contests were held in prose, poetry and art.

In conjunction with the Belvedere Nursery school, the Club held a Book Drive with special plea for National Geographic magazines. These were bound in pamphlet form by subject for the libraries. In addition, 300 books suitable for the school libraries were received; 100 were sent to Redwood High School library and many more to the County library.

2,000 BOOKS

With the profits from the previous Book Fairs and a donation from the school district, $4,685 has been made available for books. Through the efforts of the committee nearly 2,000 books are ready to be circulated and several hundred more are still to be processed.

As a result, a full time professional librarian is to join the Reed District staff next year and libraries will be operating in all four District schools.

A brief entry into the publishing field resulted in the printing of "Shark Point—High Point," history of the Tiburon Peninsula written by the Reed School eighth graders. The project was started in 1953 when an eighth grade language assignment resulted in such interesting material that the class mimeographed, bound in book form, and sold 200 copies. A later class re-edited the volume and sold more copies. This year the third edition was underwritten by the Club and printed professionally and beautifully in time to keynote the Book Fair. An enlarged historical map of the area was also published and sold.

But the $20,000 has gone for other things over these past years. Included are stage equipment, audiometer, and radio-phonographs for classrooms, informational material for tax and bond elections, school assemblies, summer recreation programs, youth group sponsorship, and improvement of teachers' rooms. On a county level, the group contributed to the formation of a Marin County child guidance clinic, special class for orthopedically handicapped children, the Junior Museum, and the Marin County P-TA Scholarship Fund.

FUND RAISING

But all contributions have not been monetary. The Club has sponsored productions of the San Francisco Players' Guild, classes in Red Cross swimming in cooperation with the Southern Marin Recreation Center, hobby shows, spring carnivals (fun raising as well as fund raising) and welcoming luncheons and room mother service for the teachers. The Club has participated in the Marin County Educational Conference and the County Recreation Conference and has sponsored a polio clinic and a well baby clinic.

In addition, at general membership meetings, such speakers have been presented as Mrs. Kathleen Norris, noted California author, and Miss Helen Heffernan, chief of the Bureau of Elementary Education of the State of California.

The Club is also one of the five member organizations of the Village Salvage Shop from which it received over $1,200 during the past 12 months.

The earliest predecessor of the present club was the Tiburon Mothers' Club which was founded in 1925. In 1950 this group joined with the Belvedere Mothers' Club (founded 1930) to become the Reed Mothers' Club. In 1957 the group was incorporated as the Reed District Parents Club, and during the past year the name was officially changed to the Reed District Parent Teacher Club. During its 34 years the Club has continued to devote its efforts to promoting the welfare of the children of the district.

Worn with this ensemble from Balmain is a Hindu-inspired diamond choker and diamond earrings. ST. SEBASTIAN'S

Virginia Molinari Weds Louis Rossi

In a recent nuptial mass at high noon at St. Sebastian's Church in Greenbrae, Virginia Molinari, daughter of Mrs. Roy Traverso of San Anselmo and the late Joseph B. Molinari of San Francisco, became the bride of Louis Rossi of Ross.

The bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Frank P. Rossi of Ross.

The Rev. Thomas O'Kane, pastor of St. Vincent de Paul Church in San Francisco, was the officiating minister.

When the bride was given in marriage by her brother, Paul Molinari of San Francisco and San Anselmo, she wore a gown of white peau de soie fashioned with portrait neckline with delicate Alencon lace applique and seed pearls at the neckline and sleeves. The full princess line skirt extended into a chapel sweep train. Her coronet of wax blossoms and seed pearls caught the fingertip length silk illusion veil. She carried a mother-of-pearl missal centered with white orchids.

Sandra Maxwell of Larkspur as maid of honor, and bridesmaids Nancy Richards and Dione Chenoweth of San Jose and Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority sisters of the bride wore identical gowns of shell pink silk organza designed with scoop necklines, short sleeves and full skirts. They wore bow-trimmed bandeaux of pink silk and carried white missals centered with pink roses and forget-me-nots.

Stephen Schwarz of Los Gatos was best man. Ushers included Stephen Granville of Kentfield, the bridegroom's brother-in-law, and Ray Luce of Terra Linda.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Traverso wore a dress of sand silk chiffon with matching accessories and the bridegroom's mother chose an ashes of roses silk taffeta dress covered with silver grey lace.

A reception followed the ceremony at the Traverso home on Brookside drive.

The bride was graduated from St. Rose Academy in San Francisco, Sir Francis Drake High School and San Jose State College. She is a member of Alpha Omicron Pi Sorority. Mr. and Mrs. Emilio Bugna of San Anselmo are her maternal grandparents.

The bridegroom, who has one sister, Mrs. Stephen Granville of Kentfield, is a graduate of Sir Francis Drake High School and Stanford University. He is employed as an electrical engineer in San Francisco. John Bevilacqua of St. Helena and Mrs. Louis Rossi of San Francisco are his grandparents.

Use Rich Creams To Repair Damage Of Summer Sun

Hot summer winds and sun can play havoc with your complexion. If this is your problem, beauty experts recommend that you forego washing your face with soap and water for a few days.

Instead, cleanse the face and neck with rich creams. Use cream lavishly, letting it "set" for a few minutes so that it soaks into the pores. Then wipe it off thoroughly with a Kleenex tissue.

Use plenty of tissues so that only clean, soft material touches your skin. This will help avoid unsightly skin blemishes.

Date Advice

Dates should be rolled in flour before they are cut. Then the slices will not stick together, nor will they cling to the scissors. The flour used should be a part of that called for in the recipe.

Table Server Cartons Aid Chin 'Wipe-Ups'

Those backyard watermelon feasts you give this summer can be a no-work occasion for you, too. Simply set out a sharp knife with which to slice the icy melons and an open box of paper napkins to use as chin and hand wipers.

The handy dispenser boxes of Kleenex table napkins that divide into two Table Server cartons are especially convenient for this purpose.

Little Extra Care Will Prolong Life Of An Orchid

You can save that special orchid corsage for at least one more day with just a little extra care.

First, unwind the florist tape from the stems. Then place the stems in a glass of water and store in the refrigerator — not the freezer compartment, however. Too cold.

When you're ready to wear them again, blot the water from the orchid stems with a Kleenex tissue and enjoy their beauty again on your dress, coat, your wrist or in your hair.

LITTLE ROUNDUP

Girl Scouts At Sugarpine Tour Mother Lode Country

The Alternate Patrols of the Roundup of the Girl Scouts of the U. S. are camping at San Francisco's Camp Sugarpine, Calaveras County, California. The following is a letter from Maureen O'Connell of Marin County Girl Scouts, patrol scribe:

Hi Marinites!

Just a line to tell you all about the Little Roundup being held at Camp Sugarpine in the Sierra, north of Calaveras Big Trees State Park. Tuesday afternoon we arrived here to begin two weeks of camping with Girl Scouts from several different councils in California. There are 33 girls in camp divided into four patrols, the Deviled Eggs from Del Rio Council, Las Seis Extranjeras (Six Strangers) from Monterey Council, the Dogies from San Francisco, North San Mateo, and Sierra-Cascade Councils and of course the Little Fleas of the Golden Hind from Marin and Central San Mateo Councils.

Our patrol is the largest. It includes Sheila Basile, San Rafael; Pat Johnson. San Anselmo; Mary Langbehn, San Rafael, and Maureen O'Connell, San Rafael—all from Marin County, and Marion Bill, Phyllis Dykes, Joyce Mathwig, Val Ratto, Bunny Sanchez, and Stephanie Smith from Central San Mateo County. Mrs. Eugene De Brecht of Novato is the adult advisor for the patrol and nurse for the encampment.

We have been kept busy planning and carrying out several activities. Thursday night we hiked down to Calaveras Big Tree State Park for a nature hike and picnic dinner. Friday morning we left bright and early on a tour of the Mother Lodge country. We visited Murphys, Columbia, Sonora, and Angels Camp. Then we spent Saturday and Sunday welcoming visitors and showing them the different units. We are now preparing for a four day backpack trip in this area. More Little Roundup news in my next letter.

Letters From Home Are So Important

By DOROTHY Y. WHIPPLE, M.D.

Have you a youngster off in camp this summer?

Maybe it's his first experience away from home. He will most certainly want to hear how things are doing at home. He will need word from home more in the beginning of camp than toward the end when he is in the swing of camp life.

Begin to write to him at once and write to him often.

If your youngster is below 10, make very sure he is able to read what you write. Children have difficulty reading the handwriting of many adults. It is not a bad idea to print out your letters. It takes a bit longer — but then it's better to send many short letters than only a few long ones.

A few don'ts:

NO ORDERS

Don't give him a lot of instructions. Don't remind him to brush his teeth or say his prayers. The adults in charge of the camp will see to these details. Your child will not appreciate being nagged by you long distance. Don't nag him about writing to you. If there is anything wrong you will hear immediately from the camp. On the other hand, if he does write, always mention his letter when you write to him.

Tell him you miss him. No one likes to slip out of an established place and not leave a hole, but don't make him feel you are sorrowful and lonely.

Tell him little things that happen. How you forgot to stop the milk and now the milk is crowding out everything else in the refrigerator and you guess you will have to give Daddy junket for supper. "I'll bet he won't eat it up the way you do," you should add.

Talk about how neat the house is without small boys to mess it up. And you might say, "You know I looked everywhere yesterday for my scissors. I looked in your room and in the toy chest and everywhere — and where do you think I found them."

Maybe you could write him a story about some episode of his childhood that he will remember: "Once upon a time there was a little boy who had an itch when he went to bed for his nap. He scratched and he scratch and couldn't go to sleep. Finally his mommy came and put some salve on his itch. She left the tube of salve on the table by his bed. The little boy itched some more. After a while he got some more salve to soothe his bites. His hands were gooey. He rubbed them together and then he rubbed them on the wall. What a mess that little boy made!"

Your stories need not be masterpieces of literary skill to fascinate your child.

PICTURES HELP

With your stories and family episodes, draw a few pictures. You don't have to be a great artist. A few straight lines and a circle for a head are enough, just something that adds contrast and interest to a whole page of writing.

If you are really ambitious you can cut out a picture or two from a magazine and paste into your story for illustration.

Letters of this sort are the kind children away from home love to get.

Sisterhood, the flagship in this fashion flotilla, devotes its main service to the community, acting as official hostesses of the Center, and assisting the nursery school which provides professional supervision for pre-school children of all denominations. A new entry in its log of activities is a fund-raising program to benefit the non-sectarian Campership Fund sponsored by the Marin Jewish Community Center.

An attractive crew of seaworthy models including Mesdames Martin Brownstein, Maurice Koch, Eugene Hiller, Kurt Rosenthal, Russell Shatz, Mervyn Shenson, Fred Pill and Mervyn Cohn will be on deck to help refresh your wardrobe at these summer sale-ing fares from a fashionable specialty shop in Ross.

Woman Artist Has Designed Paper Aprons

By GAY PAULEY

NEW YORK (UPI)—A woman artist's invention should eliminate those apron strings children frequently get tied to.

Matter of fact, Louise Pershing plans to do away with aprons as we women have known them.

The painter, a resident of New Hope, Pa., has produced a paper apron, to join the parade of disposables from tissues to towels.

"I've been giving a lot of thought to aprons," said the dark-haired Miss Pershing during a recent visit to New York. "When you have a small kitchen and a servantless home, you have to. And who can afford servants these days? I wanted to make the aprons pretty enough for the guests who offer to help the hostess."

Her thoughts, coupled with her skill as an artist, produced the disposables in three gaily-printed motifs — bandana, strawberry and ivy leaf. They are made with contoured bib and held in place with a tie-around belt.

The artist signs her paintings —and her aprons—as Louise Pershing. But in private life she is Mrs. Datus Berlin, the wife of a New York retail executive and mother of three boys — "another good reason for aprons," she laughed.

She said the idea for the disposables was a natural; getting them into production was another thing.

SWAN HAIRDO IS NEW STYLE FROM PARIS

PARIS (AP)—The Swan Hairdo, with wings of hair swept forward on the cheeks and a pure-browed look, is the season's new style from the Paris hairdressers' syndicate.

Coppery reds and silvery blondes are the two colors heavily favored by the French coiffeurs in styles shown Wednesday night in advance of next week's showing of fall and winter fashions.

The swan style sweeps a mass of hair up in a backward slant that looks almost like a high chignon. But short ends are brushed down on the nape in what used to be called a duck tail.

Now, naturally, it's a swan tail.

High Fronts, Low Backs Are In London Fashion Showings

By EDDY GILMORE

LONDON (AP) — Crowds packed London fashion houses bidding to compete with the great style shows of France and Italy.

Shows were by John Cavanagh, Lachasse, Michael Sherard and Norman Hartnell, one of the Queen's dressmakers. They matched some of the trends emerging from the shows being held in Florence and in Rome last week. The pace-setting shows in Paris start next week.

The over-all impression of the British collection was a long, lean look for autumn and winter. This was produced by longer suit jackets, and in some cases, longer skirts for dresses and suits. Inches were also added by high, narrow hats and high collars.

Fur continued to be featured on suits, topcoats and even dresses.

Cavanagh showed an elegant coat trimmed and lined with pastel mink.

Last year's wide belts were cut down by several inches. Cocktail dresses by Amies, Stiebel and Creed were more covered up.

Slightly padded shoulders—but not the squared military types of early post-war years—were back at Lachasse. His jackets were longer, too.

Many hat designers seemed to get their inspiration from central Asia. Headgear worn by Tadjiks, Uzbeks, and Kalmucks were copied.

In after-dark dresses, high fronts and low backs were in fashion. Brown, black, violet, and green were the most emphasized colors.

Plans were made at the recent meeting of the Auxiliary of Muir Woods Post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, for a potluck dinner followed by a silent auction at the next meeting on Aug. 4 in the Mill Valley Odd Fellows Hall.

During the meeting conducted by president Mrs. Donald Comstock, senior vice president Mrs. Herbert Huffman gave a report on the department convention she and Mrs. A. J. Rometti attended in San Jose as delegates.

It was announced that Mrs. Peter Silveira has been appointed 16th District historian and 18th District installing captain.

NEW HEALTH DISCOVERIES of famous biochemists & nutritional scientists

This Lady Has Answers To Good Health

Mrs. Nell Sutcliff, well-known Nutritionist, will be in our store each day July 27th through August 1st. You are cordially invited to visit us and learn about new nutritional discoveries.

LEG CRAMPS?
Uncomfortable leg cramps can be the result of calcium deficiency, and dietary authorities recommend phosporous-free calcium to control this condition. New scientific evidence shows that calcium and phosporous should not be combined in one tablet, because phosphorous interferes with the body's absorption of calcium. Ask Mrs. Sutcliff to tell you about DYNA-CAL—the phosphorous-free calcium product—with vitamins C and D, and a special ingredient that helps to put calcium into the blood stream quicker—bringing prompt relief to cramping, calcium-starved muscles.

• POOR DIGESTION — "DYSPEPSIA" — "HEARTBURN"
Ask Mrs. Sutcliff about digestive enzymes—how they can help you stop uncomfortable symptoms of indigestion—cramps, bloating and flatulence. The DYNA-ZYME Digestive Food Supplement aids in the digestion of not one, but all three kinds of food —fat, protein, and carbohydrates.

• "REGULARITY" WITHOUT LAXATIVES
Science has discovered a new, non-laxative treatment for "dry" constipation. Not a cathartic—not a "bulk" laxative—HYDREX is an organic substance in tablet form which keeps hard, dry fecal matter soft for easy passage by permeating it with the moisture it should normally have. Non-habit forming HYDREX does not force bowel movement. It allows normal evacuation by simple, non-laxative, "moistage" action. Mrs. Sutcliff will explain.

• NON-DRUG RELIEF FROM NERVOUS TENSION
Nervous tension—anxiety—worry—sleeplessness. There's hardly one of us who doesn't occasionally feel the stress of living in this fast-moving modern day and age. Mrs. Sutcliff can tell you about a natural, harmless, non-toxic and non-habit forming herbal calmative and relaxant which brings relief from taut nerves during the day and insomnia at night. Ask her about LULL.

"INTESTINAL CONDITIONING"
In our modern-day living, there are many threats to the normal functioning of the intestinal tract. As a natural "intestinal conditioner," protopectin acts in 7 different ways to aid in the normal functioning of the gastrointestinal tract. Ask Mrs. Sutcliff for full information about CITRI-MEAT.

NEW LIFE IN OLD BLOOD—FAST
A group of scientists at Johns Hopkins University have made the amazing discovery that a single, natural food substance—sorbitol —found in fruit, when taken with vitamin B-12 and iron, greatly increases the absorption of these nutrients—gets them into the blood stream almost as quickly as "shots" by hypodermic needle. This newly discovered "absorption enhancement factor" makes it possible to use less iron which, in large doses, often causes irritation, nausea, "after-taste," and constipation. Mrs. Sutcliff will tell you more about sorbitol and HEMO-TONIC.

SERVING ALL OF MARIN COUNTY

TODAY'S EDITORIAL

Let's Go Slow, Take Close Look at Youth Camp Idea

Ideal physical facilities won't necessarily make a successful youth camp.

That is, $120,000 worth of beautiful buildings on a beautiful site adjacent to Kent Lake will not necessarily solve any of Marin's youth problems.

It's how the camp is operated that makes the difference; not where it is located or how expensive are its buildings.

Some years ago the county of Marin operated an informal kind of labor camp at the former county park at Stinson Beach. County prisoners were sent out there to perform useful work under the supervision of the county park superintendent.

For some years the arrangement worked well

The park site didn't offer the world's most delightful climate in the off season and the old World War II temporary barracks buildings weren't exactly "The Ritz" in the way of accommodations.

Still the work camp did some good for the prisoners, for the most part.

The physical facilities, or lack of them, didn't have much to do with the success of the undertaking.

Now the county supervisors are pondering a $120,000 construction project that would put a camp for young wards of juvenile court up on the shores of Kent Lake.

That, obviously, is a good idea. But before the county parts with $120,000 of taxpayers' money, let's ponder the question of who is to run the camp and what assurances have we that it will be properly run.

We taxpayers handed out a considerable sum not-so-many years ago to modernize and expand the juvenile hall out in Lucas Valley.

We don't know whether the increase in the number of escapes and "incidents" out there resulted from the improved facilities or whether they were caused by other factors.

But we know we would like to see the record improved there.

And before the county goes ahead with a youth camp, we would like assurances that it will be properly run. Maybe it would be better to start a pilot camp on a test basis with much less lavish physical facilities so as to see if county employees can make a success of it, before we go "whole hog."

PENKNIFE OPERATION SAVES LIFE

Surgery by penknife in a Trenton, N. J. restaurant saved the life of a choking diner recently.

Two doctors at a nearby table noticed a man slump to the floor and begin to turn blue.

One of the doctors, a throat specialist, realized the victim was choking because his windpipe was blocked. He knew that death was imminent if emergency measures were not quickly taken.

Using a penknife and kitchen cutlery, sterilized in whisky, he cut an incision in the victim's windpipe and removed the food causing the obstruction.

Immediately the man's color began to return and he took a deep breath. Meanwhile, instruments rushed from a nearby hospital enabled the doctors to complete the operation.

Drastic measures are often necessary when life is at stake. Christ warned us to be even more daring when our eternal destiny is involved. Remember his words in the Sermon on the Mount:

"If thy right hand scandalize thee, cut it off, and cast it from thee: for it is expedient for thee that one of thy members should perish rather than that thy whole body go into hell." (Matthew 5:30)

Help me to make any sacrifice, O Lord, rather than lose You.

Looking For Inexpensive Hobby? Try Becoming Career Passenger

By HAL BOYLE

NEW YORK (AP) — If you are looking for a new and inexpensive hobby, why not become a career passenger?

A career passenger is a person who enjoys motoring but doesn't know how to drive a motor car — and doesn't intend to learn. He just goes along for the ride.

America has been a nation on wheels for so long now that any able-bodied person who admits he can't drive an auto is looked upon with pity, as if he suffered an affliction of some kind.

Years ago, when I first confessed in print my inability to steer a four-wheeled vehicle, I received a postcard from a reader saying:

"You abuse the right of a college graduate to be ignorant. God must have been asleep when you were born."

Actually, however, there are still millions of us career passengers, and both pity and contempt are wasted on us. We don't intend to learn to drive, because we are happy in our ignorance. We feel we get more sheer pleasure out of motoring than anyone.

The driver is tense and anxious. But traffic jams do not disturb the career passenger. He merely pulls out a newspaper or a copy of Tolstoi's "War and Peace," and reads serenely until the jam is broken. Motoring gives him no ulcers.

To be a career passenger sounds easy. But there is an art to it — as there is to any profession or hobby. Here are a few general rules to follow to become a real pro:

1. Never sit in the back seat. If you get the reputation of being a back seat driver, your career is ruined.

2. FIGHT DOWN any temptation to be helpful. If the driver hands you a road map, hold it upside down and ask cheerfully, "where to?" The driver will shake his head, take back the map and find his own way. Then if he takes the wrong road it is his responsibility.

3. Give praise, but give it judiciously — the praise a driver hungers for from his wife but rarely gets. If you can't honestly praise his driving, praise the performance of the car.

4. Don't offer to pay part of the gas or oil costs. You have done enough for the driver by listening to him and praising him.

5. IF HIS CAR breaks down, don't offer to help. Get out and hitchhike another ride.

6. Don't express appreciation for the ride.

It is the driver who should be grateful. You are perhaps the one person in the world he can feel superior to — at least while he is behind the wheel — and therefore you are filling a vital need in his life.

MacArthur Places Facts Before Public

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Mr. Henry MacArthur's column, "No Good Reason Why Public Should Pay for Railroad Featherbedding," appearing in the San Rafael Independent-Journal July 13, is a very thoughtful and logical exposition of the potential cost to the public of Senate Bill 944, passed by the California Legislature and now awaiting action by Governor Brown.

Clarification of the fact that this bill seeks to require the continuation of a featherbedding practice by law is much needed and most helpful. Certainly, as Mr. MacArthur points out, "featherbedding reaches right down into the pockets of every person in the state, and in fact, the nation."

I am personally very grateful to you and Mr. MacArthur for your public service in bringing these facts before the public, which should not have to pay for the kind of featherbedding S.B. 944 seeks to require by law.

Nixon Has Prepared Himself For Meeting Khrushchev's Arguments

WASHINGTON — There is a tendency to view Vice President Nixon's trip to the Soviet Union as either baldly political or purely an act of diplomacy — depending on where you stand. It seems to me it is neither.

The reason I say neither is that its purposes are non-political, as far as Mr. Nixon's quest for the Republican Presidential nomination is concerned, yet some of its consequences may well be very political. Whether he handles himself well or poorly, the effects can hurt or help him.

THE PURPOSES of the trip which Mr. Eisenhower initiated, are these:

To repay formally the visit which the Soviet First Deputy Prime Minister, Frol R. Kozlov, made to the U. S. to open the Soviet exhibition in New York.

To attract the maximum attendance of Soviet citizens to the American exhibition which the Vice President will open in Moscow.

To send an American representative of sufficient stature so that he will be reasonably entitled to something comparable to the television, radio,and press courtesy which we extended to Mr. Mikoyan and Mr. Kozlov — as a means of expounding American views to the Russian people.

To encourage a frank exchange of views between Premier Khrushchev and one who is President Eisenhower's most trusted right arm and who is at the center of U. S. policy formulation, as Mr. Nixon is.

THESE PURPOSES make the trip eminently useful. I am sure that the President did not weigh whether it would be good for Mr. Nixon, personally or politically, to go. He certainly intends to take a completely neutral, hands-off attitude toward the 1960 Republican nomination; no other course would be in character. But he is not going to refrain from continuing to use his Vice President significantly for fear it will look as though he were favoring him.

Mr. Nixon has prepared himself in characteristically Nixonian style. He has read a new sheaf of books. He and Mrs. Nixon have energetically acquired a beginning facility in conversational Russian. He has briefed himself on everything from outer space to the latest at Geneva. He has analyzed everything which Messrs. Khrushchev, Mikoyan, Kozlov, Gromyko, and others have been saying about America and American policy in order to be ready. He is taking talented companions with him, including the President's brother, Dr. Milton Eisenhower, president of John Hopkins University, and Adm. Hyman Rickover, father of the atomic submarine and no mean conversationalist himself. He has gone over with Mr. Eisenhower and Secretary of State Herter a wide range of subjects he would be glad to discuss candidly with Mr. Khrushchev if the Soviet Premier is so minded.

Obivously Mr. Nixon wants to fulfill this mission successfully not only because it is important for the nation but also because he knows that doing well will enhance his political prestige here at home. My own conviction is that in 1960 the Presidency will go to the nominee with whom the voters best feel they can entrust the conduct of foreign policy.

MR. NIXON will have no trouble answering Mr. K's sly or wishful — I don't know which — argument to Averell Harriman that while the leaders of both parties support the President on defending West Berlin, the "workers do not."

Evidently to Mr. Khrushchev the 15 million members of the combined AFL-CIO are not "workers" because the AFL-CIO on Feb. 20 this year explicitly endorsed the government's stand on Berlin.

Evidently to Mr. Khrushchev the Socialists in 38 different countries are not "workers" because the Sixth Congress of the Socialist International, meeting in Hamburg last week, adopted a resolution calling on "all free people" to support West Berlin.

Mr. Nixon will not be one to hold back the facts.

Is Bridge Board A Rubber Stamp?

EDITOR,
Independent-Journal:

Your editorial suggesting new members of the Golden Gate Bridge Board was, in my opinion, very timely.

It is my understanding that a good newspaper constantly regards itself as attorney for its readers. I am glad to have you represent me. My commuting to San Francisco does not conform to the exact pattern laid down by the new rules of the Bridge Board. Consequently, I am paying cash tolls. The alleged commuter deduction has, in fact, become an increase for me.

Your suggestion that the Supervisors should appoint different representatives on the Bridge Board causes me to wonder, however, if this is the solution.

Recently I was told by an official of one of the political parties of Marin County (I would give you his name privately) that the general manager in fact makes the decisions. This gentleman went on to say that the general manager is "a political power and he will cut you to pieces if you criticize him." When we blame the Bridge Board, are we in fact only attacking rubber stamps rather than men with real authority?

Dull Statistical Reports May Help Supervisors Drop Off To Sleep

THE DIFFERENCES between estimated business and actual business in county departments for the fiscal year of 1958-59 were revealed to the Marin County Board of Supervisors this week by County Administrator Donald A. Jensen.

Jensen used a fancier and what might be called more "modern governmental" method of explaining what the report was all about.

"I am summarizing," he told the board, "those instances in which there were significant deviations between forecasts and actual performance for the fiscal year 1958-59 as a whole, as shown by the cumulative figures . . ."

The supervisors showed interest in only one of the sections of the report — that on the municipal court, which showed a downward trend for the last four months of the fiscal year in filings, as compared with the previous year.

A couple of the board members wondered aloud whether the planned third department of the court would be necessary.

HERE IS SOME material from Jensen's report and some comments:

Filings in the Superior Court were "substantially as predicted except probate filings" that were 14 per cent lower than forecast; criminal filings were 13 per cent higher, and juvenile filings were 13 per cent higher.

"Volume of work (in the auditor-controller office) in practically all activities was higher than anticipated, except for the inventory control program which got off to a slow start due to the necessary use of staff in other activities.

Activity in the health department exceeded the forecast, and in the probation department the "number of adult investigations . . . ran to 370, or 29 per cent more than forecast . . ."

AND SO GOES the report. No doubt much of the information will be of some value to the board of supervisors, but board members might wonder just how valuable.

Like a lot of reports that obtain statistics, it's pretty dull. And by the time one gets to the end of the report, which contains the information that the county library bought more books than planned and its total circulation increased 10 per cent, one wonders whether a board member, safely tucked in bed with volumes of other county reports to catch up on before catching up on sleep, might just nod off.

Jensen's administrative department, which turns out a pretty fair stack of written reports for the board each week, is not mentioned in the report. That department, no doubt, did not experience "significent deviations between forecasts and actual performance . . ."

But Jensen presumably is only following the orders of the board.

Perhaps the reading of these reports is stimulating, just like a nightcap before nodding off. And just maybe the only comment necessary is that the board (or at least a couple of members) registered interest only in the municipal court filings.

One would think that Jensen might have a little "administrative hearbreak" when reports are so lightly accepted.

LATIN AMERICAN UNREST—II

Caribbean Nations Blame Uprisings All On Castro

(EDITORS NOTE: Following is the second of three foreign news commentaries which deal with current unrest in the Caribbean.)

By PHIL NEWSOM
UPI Foreign News Editor

JUST AS CUBA'S Fidel Castro served to dramatize the revolutionary spirit existing in the Caribbean, so it has become the fashion of Caribbean nations where unrest breaks out to blame it all on Castro.

Castro is the avowed enemy of the dictatorships of the Dominican Republic and Nicaragua, both of which have been the scenes of abortive uprising attempts within the last few months.

But unrest in Latin America is as many-colored as the rainbow and has as many different causes.

In some instances the hand of Moscow is apparent. The Soviet Union is making a strong bid to infiltrate Latin American economies and local communist parties, both above and below ground, are working hard to extend their influence to the government level. In the Caribbean area this applies particularly to Cuba and Guatemala.

BUT THE SEEDS of unrest lie also in these statistics:

Half of the inhabitants of Latin America are illiterate. Though two out of three make their living from the land, only five per cent of the land is cultivated. Farm productivity per man hour is less than one fifth that of the U.S.

Average food consumption is about one fifth less than in the U.S., and in some countries, one per cent of the population control 20 per cent of the wealth.

The 1950 census for Honduras, showed that only about 30 per cent of the population had shoes.

In April of this year, some 80 men made an invasion attempt on the coast of Panama. Their leader reportedly was Dr. Roberto Arias, former Panamanian ambassador to Britain and the case received initial attention because Arias' wife, famed British Ballerina dame Margot Fonteyn, was clapped into jail by the Panamanians.

Later, the Panamanian government quoted some of the captured invaders as saying they had set sail from Cuba.

The "invasion" later was dismissed as a quarrel among Panama's traditionally ruling families, and Cuba largely was absolved.

In mid-June a 112-man airborne force attempted an uprising in Nicaragua. President Luis Somoza promptly accused Castro of masterminding a "cold-blooded" plan to upset the Nicaraguan government. His brother, Army Chief of Staff Gen. Anastasio Somoza said he was braced for "communist" attacks in the future.

This month, a second attempt in the last six months was made against the government of Honduras. This, too, was dismissed as a strictly Honduran affair, led by former Army Chief of Staff Col. Armando Velasquez Cerrato. July marked the fifth such attempt by Velasquez Cerrato in four years.

BUT WHATEVER the cause whether uprisings are born from within or without, the Caribbean is seething with unrest as it has not for more than 20 years.

Next month, in Santiago, Chile, foreign ministers of 21 American states will meet to study the broad problems of "unrest in the Caribbean."

It will be the most important meeting of the OAS in its 11 years, and its problems the most delicate.

Aside from unrest brought on by poverty and economic imbalances, there will be both old and new jealousies. Cuba and Venezuela will be arrayed against the Dominican Republic, and, to a lesser extent, against Nicaragua. And, sitting at the same table, will be such as Costa Rica, Guatemala Honduras with burning memories of their own vest-pocket border wars.

Sutton School Nears Completion On Schedule

Novato's new $304,818 Lu Sutton School, under construction since Jan. 12, is expected to be finished by July 31—on schedule.

The rambling school building, on 10 acres off Center road near Crescent court, includes 12 classrooms, a kindergarten, a library, one special session classroom, and a separate building for administration offices.

It will be the only school in the Novato Unified School District without a multi-use room, but master plans for the site call for eventual construction of that addition.

The plant has been erected by Reynolds Construction Co. of Santa Rosa at a construction cost of $12.30 per square foot, $1.32 below the maximum allowable by the state, according to Eugene DeBrecht, district business manager.

Supt. William J. J. Smith has estimated the school will have an enrollment of 425 students this fall, a near-capacity number for the kindergarten-through-sixth grade school.

The school will be open to children residing in the area roughly bounded by Novato boulevard, Wilson avenue, and Indian Valley road, but excluding portions of Indian Valley road.

Local Fairs Must Justify Requests For State Funds

SACRAMENTO (UPI) — Gov. Edmund G. Brown yesterday signed legislation which requiries local fairs to justify their annual request for state funds.

The bill, by Assemblyman Thomas M. Rees (D-Los Angeles), eliminates the present automatic $65,000 appropriation from the state fair fund.

Under the measure, $65,000 is the maximum that may be allocated, and each local fair must justify its annual request to the state Department of Finance.

The governor said he would ask the department to "analyze carefully the requirements of each fair to assure that allocations will meet their real needs."

He said the new method of paying allocations would show a net gain to the general fund of $10,400,000 this fiscal year, mostly from accumulated funds and at least $2,300,000 a year in the future.

By LEON C. SMITH

It seems strange that the people who should respect the out-of-doors most are the ones who go about destroying it. It's hard to figure out why Americans who are ordinarily law-abiding citizens steal or destroy highway and park signs. Like sewing buttons on a balloon, it doesn't make sense . . . yet every year it costs us millions of dollars for the vandalism of sportsmen and tourists. Water tanks in national forests are shot up, monuments are chipped and trees are carved by folk who just don't stop to think. Now that we're right in the middle of the touring season, we might all remember that such destruction adds to taxes and may endanger lives. There certainly must be better ways to leave our mark on the world.

A local cynic says that housework may tire a woman out, but it takes a shopping spree to leave her well spent. Sure, but think of her morale. And when your car operates sluggishly, think of our dependable service department. Why? Because our expert mechanics understand your car. Their experience and thorough mechanical training enables them to complete a repair job in less time, which saves you money. J.E. FRENCH CO., 1542 Fourth St., San Rafael. 1. POSTAL CARD . . . 2. LETTER . . . 3. ADVERTISING FOLDER . . . 4. AN I-J ADVERTISEMENT . . .

A. An I-J Advertisement, by a tremendous margin.

ANALYSIS

Postal Card. We used to call it a "penny postal." That's when you could buy them at any post office for one cent each. Today a government postal costs 3c—$750 for postage alone to send a short message to 25,000 names. Engravings, printing, addressing, compiling or buying a mailing list, delivery to the postoffice, other expenses, could easily double (or triple) that figure, depending on how elaborate you make your 3c mailing card.

A Letter. This costs even more—$1,000 for postage alone if you send it first-class. Individually typed letters would, of course, be prohibitive in cost; the expense of a form letter would include costs of the paper, mimeographing or printing, filling in names if desired, envelopes, addressing, enclosing, handling expense, in addition to postage. Ten cents per name would be a low estimate. That's $2,500.

Advertising Folder. Your message, adequately presented in type and pictures, could hardly cost less than a letter — say, $2,500 — and could run to almost any amount, depending on size, colors used, etc.

An I-J Advertisement. For $750—the cost of 25,000 Postal Cards—you can present your selling message in the Independent-Journal more than 37 times, in a space (2 columns by 10 inches) larger than a postcard! No expense for mailing list, addressing, printing . . . not even for engravings, if you use the I-J's free mat service.

Or you could run TWO full page ads in the I-J for $750, giving your message tremendous impact and selling power . . . and still have nearly $100 left in your advertising kitty.

You could even have an EXTRA COLOR in one of your page ads, and still keep within your $750 budget.

CONCLUSION: To cover Marin, with your message delivered on the doorsteps of 5 out of 7 homes (an estimated audience of close to 100,000), ADVERTISE IN THE DAILY I-J!

Why Don't School Officials Oust Juvenile Delinquents?

Why are some officials so soft with hoodlum kids? I went to Washington recently. I listened to officials roast our schools. They were upset because many schools still kick out the worst of the bad kids. The officials didn't like it.

"What difference does it make," one of them asked me, "that a teen-ager lies and steals? Or sometimes hits pupils? Or even teachers? He's still a child. His teachers should be patient. I say no school ever should drop a student, no matter what he does."

Does his idea bother you? It does me. Our schools are supposed to see that the kids who want to learn have a chance to learn. One really bad high school boy can stop the education of all his classmates. Don't the good pupils have some rights? And the teachers? Should they be punching bags?

I've shared responsibility for discipline in many schools. I've learned that schools can help most of the bad kids. They should spot them early and make psychological studies. They should set up special classes, with the right sort of teachers. They should guide and discipline them. Then nearly all of them improve.

But there comes a time when the rights of the good students matter more, time when a boy who either will not or cannot improve must be removed. The welfare of the good youngsters requires it. That's my theory, and I act upon it.

Do you agree with me? Or with the officials I quoted? Is it ever right to remove a bad boy from school? Please write me in care of this newspaper. I'd be interested in learning what you think.

Zone Change Sought For Junk Yard

A woman who, county planning personnel say, has permitted a junk yard to operate on property north of Novato, has petitioned for a change of zoning, from limited agricultural to heavy industrial.

A planning staff spokesman said the petition has been filed in an effort to "legalize a violation."

The junk yard is located west of Highway 101 on property owned by Dorothy M. Hammermann. Rather than move the operation, a planner said, she has decided to seek a zoning change.

A public hearing on her petition will be heard at 2 p. m., Aug. 3 by the county planning commission at 1711 Grand avenue, San Rafael.

SONOMA-MARIN COUNTY FAIR STARS

The Mason-Kahn dancers, shown above, will be one of the feature attractions at the upcoming Sonoma-Marin Fair in Petaluma. Also appearing in the free vaudeville shows staged throughout the fair, Aug. 6-9, will be the Mulcays, harmonica artists; Ursula and Gus, juggling team imported from Germany; Bill David, vocal impressionist; and Killy Keo, comedy diving board and trampoline performer. The free attractions are scheduled for both afternoon and night performances.

Godfrey Will Appear At Horse Show

SPRINGFIELD, Mass. (AP)—Radio-television star, Arthur Godfrey, who underwent a lung cancer operation April 30, will make his first public appearance at the Eastern States Exposition horse show in September, Edgar S. De Meyer, general chairman of the show, said yesterday.

Godfrey appeared at last year's show and, De Meyer said, was invited to return for the 1959 show long before it was known he was suffering from cancer.

Godfrey is recuperating at his Leesburg, Va., farm.

State Experts See Big 1960 For Business

SACRAMENTO (UPI)—Economists for the state government predict 1960 will be a better year for business than 1959.

In a forecast of economic conditions for the future, the state Department of Finance said:

"The basic economic pattern to be assumed in 1960-61 is one involving a high level of operations without the excesses inherent in boom times, but also without the labor scarcities which have accompanied other recent periods of prosperity."

The department report added:

"Although general price levels may be slightly higher than those of the current year, serious inflation is not likely to be a factor."

The national outlook, the economic report said, is for gross production to be "somewhat above the half-trillion-dollar milestone" compared with 475 billion dollars this year.

Marinite's Tune Has Radio Premier

"Sparklets," a new instrumental composition by John Milton Hagen of Mill Valley, had a recent world premier over radio station KFI of Los Angeles. It went on the air with the "Night Owl Club" program.

AF Families In Need Rely On This Society

By BETSY M. WOODMAN

An airman from Hamilton Air Force Base, father of two small children, was in need of financial assistance when his premature baby had to stay on in the hospital for two months after birth.

Another airman, stationed at a remote site, was burned out of house and belongings except for what he and his wife were wearing. They needed help to replace essential personal and household items destroyed by the fire.

Both of these families received the necessary monetary help from the Air Force Aid Society, whose main support consists of voluntary contributions primarily from Air Force personnel.

The annual campaign for funds for the society begins at Hamilton on Monday and will continue through Aug. 7. General project officer for the campaign is Lt. Col. James M. Hollingsworth.

No government funds are received or used by the Air Force Aid Society, which began to operate as the official emergency relief organization of the Air Force in 1946. Emergency financial assistance to Air Force personnel and their dependents is provided through approximately 250 aid society sections throughout the world.

Individuals, military or civilian, may become members in the society by donating at least $1. Various annual and permanent memberships are available, according to different amounts of contribution. A donation may also be made as a memorial. No contribution, however, insures that the donor will receive aid. Each emergency is judged by itself.

The monies of the society are carried in a general fund, from which emergency assistance is given, and an educational fund. This latter is a memorial to the late Gen. Henry A. Arnold, and is used to assist children of Air Force personnel to get a college education or vocational training.

To prevent duplication of services which other agencies are prepared to give and to conserve resources, all possible use is made of established national, state, and local relief agencies responsible for similar services.

Aid is given in interest-free loans or outright grants, depending on the circumstances of each case.

From all requests at Hamilton last year, 149 persons received financial help from the society. Contributions at the base last year totaled about $4,700. Loans and grants were made for more than three times this amount, $14,800. More than $8,000 has been used in assistance during the first seven months of this year.

PROMOTED — John F. Schmidt, 65 Madrone avenue, San Anselmo, has been promoted to assistant cashier and assistant secretary in the bond and investment department of American Trust Co., San Francisco, it was announced by Harris C. Kirk of Ross, chairman and chief executive officer. Schmidt, a graduate of the University of San Francisco, has been with the bank since 1937.

Uruguay, tiniest South American republic, depends almost entirely upon its sheep and cattle products for export trade.

High School Language Enrollments Mounting

SACRAMENTO (CNS)—High school students are parleyvous-ing more French, Spanish, Latin, and German these days.

The Department of Education reports enrollments in foreign language courses in the four years of high schools nearly have doubled during the period from 1951-52 to 1958-59.

Actually, the increased participation in foreign language courses is a very mild one, as total enrollments in high schools have increased considerably during that period.

The department reported 111,724 high school students were studying Spanish, French, Latin, and German in 1951-52, and this number increased to 210,806 by 1958-59. This represented an increase of 89 per cent. However, over-all enrollments for grades 9 through 12 increased 75 per cent.

The net increase in students taking foreign languages increased from 29 per cent in 1951-52 to 31 per cent in 1958-59.

Spanish by far is the most popular foreign language in California, although interest in other languages is increasing more rapidly. Enrollment figures for 1951-52 showed 78,333 students studying Spanish, 12,194 in French classes, 18,949 in Latin, and 2,248 studying German.

By 1958-59, the Spanish students had increased to 132,589, an increase of 69 per cent. However, students enrolled in German had increased to 9,004, a gain of more than 300 per cent; students in French had increased to 34,655, a gain of 102 per cent, and enrollments in Latin had jumped to 34,558, a gain of 88 per cent.

The department said 14 high schools provided classes in Russian last year, five had classes in Italian and one high school Chinese.

Trading Stamp Bills Are Signed

SACRAMENTO (AP) — Two bills requiring state regulation, licensing, and bonding of trading stamp companies were signed yesterday by Gov. Brown.

The legislation by Assemblyman Gordon Winton (D-Merced) and Sen. Luther Gibson (D-Vallejo), effective July 1, 1960, also requires companies to redeem stamps for cash if book holders ask for it.

Unlicensed companies are prohibited from doing stamp business and all companies must put up bonds guaranteeing they will redeem their stamps. Any merchant proposing to discontinue use of stamps will have to post warning notice.

Marin Teacher Back From Job In Germany

A Marin high school teacher is back in his Mill Valley home after a year's tour of duty with Army dependent schools in Germany, and his elementary school teacher daughter is awaiting travel orders for a similar tour.

Charles A. Doll of 195 Buena Vista avenue returned from Karlsruhe last week with his wife and daughter, Susan.

Ready to depart for assignment somewhere in Germany is another daughter, Marilyn, who taught this year at Reed School in Belvedere.

Doll, industrial arts instructor at Sir Francis Drake High School since 1951, taught mechanical drawing and general shop at a new junior-senior high school in Karlsruhe, headquarters for Army dependent schools in Germany. He also served as junior class adviser.

One of 13 high schools for children of U.S. Army personnel stationed in Germany, the Karlsruhe school had an enrollment of 225, smaller than most because of its newness.

Doll's students gave him few problems. He said he found them more sedentary, friendlier and easier to discipline than students here.

One reason, he suggested, was their awareness that a student could earn an uncomplimentary mark for his father's record and, in an extreme case, cause the whole family to be shipped home.

Also, said Doll, the youngsters in Army families are more confined and generally do not have cars. He said the Army operates "excellent" youth programs on its German bases.

Karlsruhe is only 30 minutes from Switzerland and two hours from France. Taking advantage of this proximity, the Dolls went on many weekend and vacation motor tours.

Doll, who was on leave of absence from Tamalpais Union High School District, will resume his teaching job at Drake High next fall. Before going to Drake, he taught seven years at Tamalpais High School.

Budget Session Slated By Council In Corte Madera

The Corte Madera Town Council will continue its review of the 1959-60 town budget at an adjourned meeting Monday at 7:30 p.m. in the town hall.

The preliminary budget, prepared by town manager Arthur H. Brandow, totals $344,916. Brandow has recommended no increase in last year's tax rate of $1.48 per $100 assessed valuation.

Several minor holdover items from the council's July 6 meeting also will be taken up at the Monday session.

have already been sold
your FORD DEALER can now offer you a tremendous 2nd Million Deal on
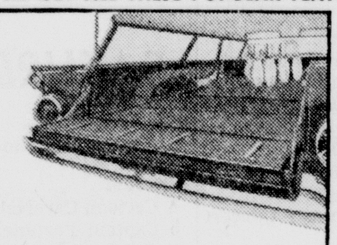
AMERICA'S MOST POPULAR WAGON

YOU GET ALL THESE POPULAR FEATURES ON A 2ND MILLION FORD DEAL!

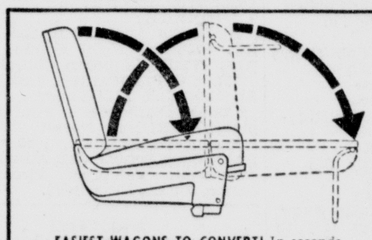


LOADSPACE BIG AS A BOWLING ALLEY! All six Ford wagons give you loadspace nearly 10 feet long, up to 92 cubic feet for cargo! Loading width at liftgate is over 10 inches wider than Ford's nearest competitor. And height of loadspace opening is biggest in Ford's field.

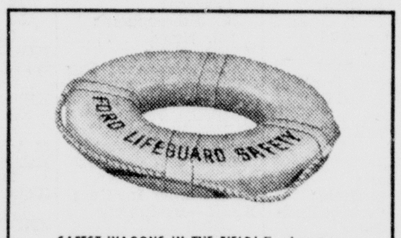
EASIEST IN THE FIELD TO LOAD AND UNLOAD! Only Ford in its field has the extra convenient combination of tailgate and liftgate. They pop open at a touch, raise and lower with one hand ease. No dials or cranks, or extra-cost power equipment needed. And you can open tailgate only, if you desire.

THE ONLY WAGONS BUILT FOR PEOPLE! Ford doors are wider, for easier "get-in" and "get-out." Deep-cushioned, foam-padded seats span the full width of Ford wagons and give the middleman full comfort, too! And Ford packs more weather and sound insulation throughout, than any other wagons in Ford's field.

THE ONLY WAGONS IN FORD'S FIELD WITH ALL SEATS FACING FORWARD! Only Ford wagons, in Ford's field, let everybody sit comfortably facing forward. Ford engineers were not "boxed in" by design necessities that make 3rd-seat riders crawl in over tailgates, sit backwards, become blinded by headlights of following cars.



EASIEST WAGONS TO CONVERT! In seconds, Ford Station Wagons convert from luxurious passenger liner to spacious cargo ship. Even a child can flip down Ford's Stowaway seats easily, safely, because Ford's fold-down seat design simplicity eliminates the more complicated system of Ford's major competitor.



SAFEST WAGONS IN THE FIELD! Ford wagons surround you with exclusive "safety firsts" like rear gates that do not open from inside, Lifeguard deep-dish steering wheel and Double-Grip door locks. And Ford's husky, Wide-Contoured frame cradles all passengers in a "ring of steel" for even greater protection.
